Lancaster Intelligencer. WEDNESDAY JULY 13, 1870.

Reading the Express Out of the Party As will be seen by the report of proceedings had in the Republican County amittee, a full report of which we which elsewhere, the Express has been publicly and deliberately read out of the Republican party. The reasons which prompted the recognized representatives of the Radical party, in formal counci assembled, to commit this act, are soleminly set out and specifically assigned in the resolutions which were unani adopted. The editors of the mously Express have proven themselves to be political heretics, and they and their newspaper have been formally excommunicated, and are henceforth to be regarded by all the faithful as anatheme maranatha.

In our opinion the Express did no deserve to be so severely disciplined. I has only offended in one instance. It opposition to an exhorbitantly high protective tariff is a single piece of rerelation in the midst of a long caree of the basest servitude under the part, ash. It has bowed in meek submissio to the yoke for years, not daring to cal its soul its own. It has approved every violation of the Constitution of United States, and has endorsed all the follies and crimes of Congress. It de fended every outrage committed against Democrats during the war, and went a fir as any newspaper in the proscriptio of all who differed with it politically It has been full of hatred and all man ner of uncharitableness. It gave itself up to be used as a packhorse of the Radical party, and carried all the heavy and dirty loads put upon it until an attempt purer level.
