in the times that tried men's souls? Was it not a testimonial from Grant, but from Fisk and Gould in Grant's name? It is of late currently alleged and quito generally believed that this thousand dol-lar subscription of the President's was paid by Mr. Fisk or by his partner, Jay Gould, in addition to a similar subscription of their own. If this is not so, Mr. Fisk should not allow the report to be circulated a moment longer to the injury of the President. If it be true, Gen, Grant will do woll at once to make some explanation of a fact so increduntil he has caught the other three.—Ha-vana Correspondence of the New York Times. ____

Barn Struck by Lightning and Entirely Destroyed. About five o'clock on Wednesday eve-ning of last week, the barn of Dr. Frantz, situated about one mile from Hopewell Mills and about four miles Northeast of Waynesboro', was struck by lightning, and quickly consumed by fire, The whole crop of wheat, oats and hay just harvested was destroyed. A threshing machine, a wagon and two calves were burned up. The loss was about three thousand dollars, and there
