our way. But year after year we approach nearer the realization of our hopes; and with more effort and more patience we shall at length scenre the full attainment of our desires. The address was lengthy, and we have room only for this imperfect obstract ict. 8. W. Deans, Chairman of Executive Committee, responded briefly. He had not expected to do this, as in making the previous arrangements his work was supp to be done, and the onus transferred to mentshis work was supposed of the meeting. We are aware, however, that we have come to a garden spot, not only materially but intellectually —a spot where many of the great reforms in the cause was born, as well as the restin the cause was born, as well as the rest-ing-place of the great man whoso memory would be ever green in the hearts of friends of education and all his fellow-citizens. The feducation and all his fellow-citizens. The issociation met here in its earlier days, and low after making the circuit of the State, ad returned, bringing the old friends and ew ones gathered on its progress of your men who have originated great agencies for perfecting the work a and some are here to-day; and r only are the common schools represented, but the academics and colleges of the State as well. We know we will be treated well, and expect a pleasant and profitable meet-
