Lan caster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1870.

Figure 1. The state of the control of the property of the state of the control of the property of the state of the control of the property of the state of the control of the property of the state of the control of the property of the state of the p The state of the control of the cont proclaim the republicat once.

The news from Europe continues be exciting and important. A republic no account, and that members of the has been proclaimed in France and the aitting to Prussian domination. If the new republic were firmly established either Reinoehl or Wiley were defeated and in complete working order, it would in their aspirations for a seat in the no doubt imitate the warlike energy of Legislature because they could not comthe first French republic, and under mand the combined influence of the new me leader like the first Napoleon the disasters of the last month might be repaired and the disgrace of defeat wiped out by correspondingly brilliant victo- the lucrative office of Recorder, was in-As it is the new government can hardly be expected to be ready to meet the armies of Prussia which are now marching with victorious shouts upon Paris. Brave as the French people are they cannot beat back the trained legions of Germany with an army of raw ter how weak is their gratitude to "the recruits or enthusiastic volunteers. The officers of the new French Republic dare not lower the standard which they have taken up, and they cannot reasonably hope to carry it forward to victory. The situation in which they are placed is one which is full of difficulties and Kready the objects of the law making beset with many dangers. The declaration of a Republic also complicates have been defeated. It is not likely that the difficulties in the way of the Prussians. The new government of France dare not make peace if the peo- rupt jobs should Kready be elected. ple demand war, and no government to which the people of Paris are opposed, tion of their candidates for Inspectors, can be maintained for a day without being supported by a large force of foreign soldiery; for French troops would fraternize at once with the masses and turn their bayonets against any obnoxious ruler who might be set over them by Prussia or the combined powers of Europe. It looked yesterday as if Prussia might undertake to restore the Napole- to be a complete failure. More incomonic dynasty after exacting indemnity petent and fully as many dishonest mer there is much more corruption in the Republican and the intense hatred of Napoleon, which has been extended by his unexpected surrender, renders the re-establishment of the Napoleonic dynasty an imposibility. A Bourbon oran Orleans would be equally as distasteful to the French people, and could only be kept upon a throne surrounded by an impregnable cordion of foreign bayonets. The difficulties placed in the way of Prussia by the declaration of the French Republic are neither few nor slight. There is little danger that the spirit of 1848 will be immediately revived in Germany, but the successful establishment and conduct of a French Republic and the intense hatred of Napoleon, which has been corruption in the Republican party of Laneaster County to-day than ever there was at any former reduction of the national debt, but does the review will leave a handsome in the Tensenouthy operations of the revience will leave a handsome reduction of the national debt, but does to deign to notice the subject of oppress sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxation in which every voter is directly interested. The third rejoices sive taxat conduct of a French Republic would be a constant menace to all the Monarchs of Europe. King William, of Prussia, is a despot, believing with all his heart in the divine right of Kings to rule, and is, therefore, the natural enemy of any will not permit a French Republic to govern themselves in their own

GEORGE BRUBAKER, the once powerful King of the Thugs, was deposed on Saturday night. He was not only completely defeated but openly insulted at the polls in his own ward. His politibeen at an end now but for the Express. of getting back to serve them again.

The French Republic must be established by force of arms before it will menace to the power of all the monarchs of Europe. The whole character of the Where will the sympathies of the Amer-cumstances? Will they be with the leaders of the Young French Republic contest has been changed by the surren-permitted to exist as a perpetual

The Radical County Ticket. For weeks past there has been seize upon the opportune moment and steal" of last winter and of all sorts of rascally legislation. Should Reinochl and Wiley be re-elected it will of this county that party discipline is of party are at liberty to bolt nominations whenever they feel like it or think it will pay them to do so. Better men than leaders of the new Thug organization. The only soldier, among the long list f names announced as candidates for gloriously defeated. The wounds of Private Hartman had no iongues ir them sufficiently eloquent to touch the hearts of the selfish politicians who made up the slate, and the loyal Radicals of Lancaster County showed in this mat-brave defenders of the County." The Commissioners came very near losing their candidate for Solicitor, but they managed to count Kready in by a plurality of three over his soldier opponent. In the nomination of this mar the office of County Solicitor elective

The Prison Ring secured the nomina and the reign of rascality by which that institution has been so long disgraced will continue.

Taking the Radical ticket as a whole no man can say that is such a ticket as should be set before the people of Lancaster County. So far the Crawford County System in this county has proved for the past and security for the have been nominated under it as under 19. A series of resolutions were adopted. future, and that would, perhaps, have the old delegate system. Rings are just The first praises Grant for some indefibeen the easiest way for her to escape as potent now as ever they were, and nite and undiscernible good which the Several of the taxes which are soo from existing complications. The dec-there is much more corruption in the people are expected to believe he has ac-

Wanted-A Candidate for Governor. The Radicals of New York are in seious trouble. An election for Governor is to take place in that State this fall, Republican form of government. He but up to this time no one has been found who is willing to accept the nomto exist if he can crush it out, and ination with the certainty of defeat starthe right of the people of France ing him in the face. Horace Greeley was earnestly solicited to allow himself way will not be conceded willingly. to be put forward as the standard bearer of the party, and General Grant inimated that the white-hatted philoso pher of the Tribunc would confer a spe cial favor upon him by so doing; but Horace "could not see it." He peremptorily declines, and assigns as his reason der of Napoleon, and we now see a for so doing the knowledge he has of French Republic doing battle against the state of parties and the assurance the armies of an invading monarch.— that he would be overwhelmingly defeated. Other prominent Republicans ican people be bestowed under such cir- have been approached, but so far each one of them has decided that he can not King of Prussia or with the struggling take the nomination. We suppose some one will eventually consent to be set up, That is one of the questions of the hour. to be knocked down by the Democracy under the lead of the Hon, John T.

LANCASTER COUNTY is no more strong ly Radical than Berks is Democratic cal influence in the county would have but while it required the expenditure of thousands of dollars and the debauching That paper enabled him to secure the renomination of John E. Wiley, who voted for the "big steal" down to the candidate for Congress in this county final passage of the bill, and then got the Berks county Democracy re-nomithe ring masters at Harrisburg to ex- nated Hon. J. Lawrence Getz by accluding cuse him so that he might have a chance | mation. Each candidate is rated at his proper worth.

also be a declaration by the Republicans under the new system to an extent its train. The Radical County Committee.

The Radical County Committee met ions of Satan. on Monday morning and organized by electing John M. Stehman, Chairman, The Reduction of Taxation, Democratic. over Charles Denues, by a vote of 45 to Committee will find it the most difficult task they ever undertook to compose the newspaper quarrels of the contending Radical factions in this county. They are bound to continue, and the committee and the people might as well learn to grin and bear the infliction.

Such, as we have recorded it, is the platform upon which the Republican party of Lancaster county goes into the present political campaign. With can party of Intensity country goes into the present political campaign. With such a platform any party ought to be beaten, and nothing but the lash of party discipline could induce any intelligent man to vote for candidates who take man to vote for co Great dissatisfaction exists among Republicans at the result of the recent primary elections in this county. It is asserted not only that corrupt and so generally are they believed that the dissatisfaction appears to be almost universal. What it may lead to we know not, but we are sure that honest men can not conscientiously vote for candidates who were "counted in," as it is said a number were. \times who were "counted in," as it is said a number were.

The Workings of the Crawford County | Congress Only Concerns Itself About the | Democratic Gains in the Next Congress. It is conceded on all hands that the A decision has been recently rendered Democrats will make large gains in the most intense excitement among the Radical politicians of Lancaster County. The spoils to be secured are worth gathering, and from the rival candidates for Congressional honors and profits down to the very lawyed to the very lawyed to the very lawyed to the party. The old delegate system by congress that rings are to the very lawyed to ee how any newspaper professing the Pennsylvania. To reach a lower resort, than any on this earth, and set up as a votes under cover of the friendly darkcarpet-bagger in the sulphurous domin-

The New York Times says:
"All the signs point to another large of Yankee monopolists. The fifth praises the ticket just nominated, "prison ring was brought to bear against the reduccandidates" and all. The sixth rejoices tion of the some sixty-five millions in the fact that the candidates for Asmade, not eighty millions, as stated in honesty and the decency of the Republication of the Republicatio embly are pledged to vote against big the Times. Only the persistent efforts teals and to stand by caucus nominees. of Democratic members of Congress, If Wiley and Reinoehl adhere to their and their luminous exposition of facts pledge it will be because it is more and figures, compelled the reduction profitable to do so than to break it. A made—not, what they demanded, $100,-supplementary resolution was adopted 000,000 in all—only $65,000,000 being all equesting the Radical newspapers of they could get. But for these efforts of he county to cease their abuse of candi- the Democratic members, the old taxadates and of each other. We imagine the country members of the County Committee will find it the most difficult (Government. lovernment.

Put the Democracy into power, and he expenses of the Government will be educed one-third, and the whole Tariff necessary be collected from some 20 articles, instead of 3,000 or more, and the internal revenue, from tobacco, whisky and stamps alone.

Twenty-first Senatorial District. The Democratic Senatorial Conven-ion for the Twenty-first Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Blair, Centre, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflir and Perry, met at Lewistown, on Tues day last, and nominated Dr. Crawford, of Juniata, and R. B. Petriken, Esq. means were employed to influence votes but that rascality of the grossest kind was practiced in the holding of elections. It is charged that wrong counts were made, and that the returns do not show the true result of the voting done. Soopen and so general are these charges, and so generally are they believed that the dissatisfaction appears to be almost were nominated after numerous ballots

Wanted --- A Leader. would be selected if the people were althe late rebellion. The Baltimore Sun at the coming Congressional elections.
for. Let the Democrats of the State
The Defeat Worse than that of Waterloo.

The corruption which has followed in the wake of the Crawford County Systiant the wake of the Crawford County Systiant the wake of the Crawford County Systiant to the wake of the Crawford County Systiant to the wake of the Crawford County Sys- there be honesty and decenty chough of the waite voters here weather tem has alarmed the more upright and in the Republican party in Lancaster polling place, or retired in disgust withintelligent men of the Republican party, county to kick Rauch out, as the and it is safe to predict that it will soon Inquirer advises, he will not be horde of drunken blacks were conductbe abolished, unless the corrupt and able to find a resting place or a field mercenary men who are its chief supporters should prove to be toostrong for the virtuous and discerning members of among the thieves and political pirates they changed the polling place from a more of drunken of norde of drunken of drunken of norde of drunken of drunken of norde the virtuous and discerning members of among the thieves and political pirates the party. For the life of us we cannot the party. For the life of us we cannot the party. To reach a lower resort, mill set up by a black, which rejoices in ast regard for morality and decency or to find a set of greater scoundrels, or the high sounding title of the "Revels" can' defend it. It is full of rottenness more congenial companions than those and has brought a long list of vices in with whom he now consorts, he would at other Wards and gangs of negroes have to emigrate to a warmer climate went from poll to poll repeating their ip by repeating. lican party as practised at the State Capital; but it is only a little more disgraceful than the scenes which were witnessed on the same evening in Lancaster county. The charges of cheating which are so freely made by Republicans in this county are not without foundation. Repeating was practised in this city and wherein it could be safely done, and when that was impracticable names were added to the tally lists and votes counted which vere never east. From the borough of Manheim more votes were eturned than were cast for Governor Geary at the last election, and that, too, when it is well known that many of the legal voters of the district were absent. Similar outrages were perpetrated elsewhere, and everywhere there was a flood of free liquor flowing, and such exhibitions of drunkenness as were demoralizing and disgraceful in the extreme. These things show how utterly corrupt the Republican party in Pennsylvania has become. The Crawford ounty System has failed to secure the election of better candidates, and the only good thing it has done is to reveal the utter rottenness of the Radical party where it is strongest. ____ In Georgia, the Democratic State Committee has elected Linton Ste-ohens its Chairman, and adopted a esolution recommending the nominapathy. He is unable to walk without pathy. He is unable to walk without assistance, and his mind is reported shattered and impaired. The Chief Justice is only 62. He is attended by physicians of great skill, and the hope is that he may recover, though from s that he may recover, though from Radical party in years gone by, he has been in the hour of its triumph among the most just and moderate of all its members.

Under the above caption we find the following article in the Philadelphia

later nour from the seat of war which have been in the hour of its triumph among the most just and moderate of all its members. tion of Congressional and Legislative candidates who are eligible under ex-

THE EUROPEAN SITUATION Desperate Fighting of the French

poleon Surrenders Himself and Mac-

FRENCH REPUBLIC DECLARED. Intense Excitement in Paris and Other French Cities.

The Imperial Arms Torn Down. Likenesses of Napoleon Trampled Un-der Foot. Prussian Invasion to be Resisted.

The Vote on the Republic-The Republican Ministry Congratulatory Address of Bismarck. Despatches from King William. Residence Assigned to Napoleon.

Residence Assigned to Napoleon.

Berlin, Sept. 3.—The following highly important despatch has just been made public here:

Before Sedan, France.
Friday, Sept. 2-12; P. M.;
From the King to the Quech;
A capitulation whereby the whole army at Sedan are prisoners of war, has just been concluded with General Wimpfor, commanding, instead of Marshal MacMahon, who was wounded.
The Emperor surrendered himself to me. As he has no command and left everything to the Regent at Paris, his residence I shall appoint after an interview with him, at a rendezvous to be fixed immediately.
What a course events with God's guidance have taken!

inched to the Crawford County System is the horde of fellows who are ready to their miscand set him, seed to lowest sell their influence and their votes. South their influence and their votes, sell their influence and their votes, sell their influence and their votes. South their influence and their votes, sell their influence and their votes. South the man to appear the sell their influence and their votes, sell their influence and their votes. South the man to appear the sell their influence and their votes. South the man to work hard their votes are marking for their votes of the Republican party that it is not an uncommon thing now for men who are far removed from want to bemandand receive money file of needy and improvident creatures who are bought uplikes sheepin theshams the self-to the self-to from their votes. Below these is a long file of needy and improvident creatures whose are bought uplikes sheepin theshams the such votes and make candidates pay well for their votes. Below these is a long the or including the propose soon hearned the tricks of their white benchman and a colored preacher addressed a letter to the different candidates when the suggestion. He was an old including the propose soon hearned the tricks of their white benchman and a shown as Radioal Republican. He could find a obtinement and secure a particle of political influence is in the ranks of the Democratic party. He was an old include the Caraford County System works and the colored preacher addressed a letter to the different candidates when the suggestion. He was an old include the Caraford County System works are the control of the proposing and the color of the proposing and the they voted for their favorite candidate as often as they chose. A large portion of the white voters never went near the polling place, or retired in disgust without voting when they saw how the horde of drunken blacks were conducting themselves. The negroes of that Ward not only polled more votes than there were Republican voters in it, but they changed the polling place from a tavern kept by a white man to a rum mill set up by a black, which rejoices in the high sounding title of the "Revels House." Similar scenes were enacted at other Wards and gangs of negroes went from poll to poll repeating their votes under cover of the friendly darkness.

The Patriot says:

Since the negro element has been admitted to a share of political power, the committee of the Crawford County system are becoming more apparent than ever before. In this city of Harrisburg not less than one thousand fraudulent votes were polled on last zaturday night, and the successful candidate for Mayor lies under the charge of having obtained a nomination by means so ful as to relieve every member of hispartyfrom any obligation to vote for him. The game of repeating, which we lave study and Mr. Child, in which the greatest effort was made to bring out a faul vot, only 1286 votes were cast against 2287 last. Staturday. The negro vote cannot be made to each of the party. The open vote cannot be made to each of the party. The very vote cannot be made to each of the party. The regression of the party, and the nomination of the country of the assisting and the prevention, the negro delegates all voting with the saturday. The preport vote cannot be made to form a month of the received of the party and Mr. Child, in which the greatest effort was made to bring out a faul vote, only 1286 votes were cast against 2287 last. Saturday. The negro vote cannot be made to count for anything like this disparity. Two years ago the late Mayor Hays received.

on oneing that this was the ultimatum of his wing, and declaring that a division of the party, and the nomination of a candidate for Governor on a libser of the party, and the nomination of rejecting his proposition. A white man and a negro delegate opposed enfranchisement, and the resolution favoring the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and those who stood with him for a liberal government then withdrew from the Convention and nominated B. Gratz Brown, of St. Louis, for Governor, on a platform in favor of the immediate employeness and platform in favor of the immediate employeness of the Emperor Napoleon romains and they will support B. Gratz Brown, and they will support B. Gratz Brown, and put forth their most vigorous efforts to cleet him, and to secure a State Legis lature favorable to enfranchisement.

At twelve noon to-day, a party of French ingin. The following minister of public Instruction, M. Lavenhegen. Major General Irodu training the Provincial Government, and the resolution of the party, and the resolution of the party, and the resolutions, and they will support B. Gratz Brown, and the resolution of the party, and the secure a platform will be a provinced to the party of the party of the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and those who stood with him for a liberal government of the first particularly the Prussian galactic particularly the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and those who stood with him for a liberal government of the first particularly the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and the sections and in the state and proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and the city of the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and the city of the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and the city of the proposed amendment was defeated. Senator Schurz and the city and they will support B. Gratz Brown, and put forth their most vigorous efforts to elect him, and to secure a State Legislature favorable to enfranchisement. That the combination of liberal Republicans and Democrats will prove strong enough to carry the State by a handsome majority and to secure the Legislature is generally conceded even by Republicans. The day of deliverance for the expressed his desire to surrender himself personally to the King, he not having now is generally conceded even by Republicans. The day of deliverance for the white men of Missouri is at hand, and she will soon be back in the fold of Democratic States where she rightfully belongs.

The serious illness of Chief Justice Chase calls forth a great deal of sympathy. He is unable to walk without is that he may recover, though from growing infirmities the changes are that he will not. Socially the Chief Justice is highly esteemed by every class, and politically he is much respected.—

Though among the formost to lead the the party in years gone by he has poleon and of the surrender of the army of Marshal MacMahon.

The Work this who identify themselves with the republi-Marshal MacMahon.
LONDON, September 3,—The Times this morning says MacMahon, by a series of arrors, has compromised the last chance of retrieving the fortunes of France.
From a chaos of unintelligible and conflicting telegrams we gather that MacMahon was proceeding to the relief of Metz, when he was encountered and driven back by the Germans, who pursued him so closely and constantly that collisions were inevitable. Hence conflicts have been reported all the week.

ble. Hence conflicts have been reported all the week.

There was serious work at Sedan on Tuesday when MacMahon was perched on the heights of Vaux, near Carignan.—
Thither came the Emperor on Tuesday and on that day thirty thousand of MacMahon's army were attacked between Mouzon and Moulins. This was the first battle of Beaumont reported by King William to the Queen. The French were driven over the Meuse to Mouzon, and the encounter on the other bank of the river became general.

otested against it. BRUSSELS, Sept. 4.—[Special to New York

Mahon's orders, and others by his own soldiers.

London, Sep. 3—[Special to the Herald.]—It is hoped in London, that the war fever will abate in Paris on this decisive news, but more fear than hope is felt.—It is given out from the Prussian Embassy here, that King William is prepared to abandon all claims of indemity on condition that he will be allowed to take possession of Alsace and part of Lorraine. It is understood that Austria and Russia oppose this settlement but that England favors it, and that if France refuses, England will join Prussia to abbreviate the war. Above all things, an outbreak or republicanism in France is deprecated. It is understood that he King of Prussia is prepared to treat on the basis of the abdication of Napoleon in favor of the Prince Imperial. The Crown Prince is openly opposed to extreme terms and in favor of recognizing the Bonapartedynasty. It is hoped that Strasbourg and Metz will at once capitulate to avoid the prolonged horrors of war. All depends on Paris.

Parts, September 5—6:20 r. M.—Paris is in a settle of indexcribable enthusiam — horrors of war. All depends on Paris.

Paris, September 5—6:20 r. M.—Paris is in a state of indescribable enthusiasm.—
The Garde Mobile occupies the Tribune.
The people have forced the gates of the garden of the Tulleries. The soldiers at the entrance and at the barracks fraternize with the people. The republican spirit is manifested everywhere. The mob are removing and destroying in all quarters of the city every semblance of the Empire.
The Imperial flags are being torn down from the house tops and from fronts of shops and public buildings, and where Imperial rams decorate shops they are violently removed and smashed in the streets.

An immense throng filled the Place PHotel de Ville. The mob gained access to the building, poured up the stairways and into the grand saloons. The portraits to the building, poured up the stairways and into the grand saloons. The portraits of the Emperor and Empress were torn from their hangings and thrown into the street. Here they were buffeted about some time and finally trampled beneath the feet of the crowd.

of the crowd.

Henri Rochefort, the lion of the hour, who has been liberated from captivity, the excited crowd bore in triumph to his hotel. He was enthusiastically cheered along the route. An immense throng of people followed Rochefort, cheering and singing particular corner. Thus shouted "Vive in the content of the co patriotic songs, They shouted, "Vive la France!" "Vive la Commerce!" "Live all Keratry made the rounds of Paris at mid-night. He found everything quiet. Uni-versal joy has replaced the former popular depression, and the republic is haited en-thusiastically.

The united voice of the people is for the ersal joy has replaced.

Lepression, and the republic is a lepression, and the republic with go and await invasion. The war spirit runs high. All classes hail the republic with joy and await invasion. The war spirit runs high. All classes hail the republic with joy and await invasion. The war spirit runs high. All classes hail the republic with joy and await of the coportunity of battling with the invaders, who will encounter the united masses, who will encounter the united masses, where before were sectionalism and strife. The Empress is expected to abdicate in favor of the nation. She joins the Princa Imperial in Belgium on Monday.

Marshal MacMahon was not wounded.—Ho remains in health, though fattigued.

The Chambers will meet now to discuss a decident of the lepter will be a lepter with the troops of Clark's regiment, retaining the colored, and it is said more colored troops are to be mustered in.

The Georgia House of Represents a bill for the issue cutstanding bor

M. Jules Favre's motion, of which the following is the text:
Louis Napoleon and his dynasty are declared to be deprived of the powers conferred upon them by the nation.
The Executive Committee has been constituted as follows:
President, Louis Jules Trochu; members, Deputies MM. Emmanuel, Arago, Cremens, Jules Favre, Jules Fury, Gambetta, Garnier-Pages, Glass, Bezone, Pelletan, Ernest Pecard, Henri Rochefort, and Jules Simon; M. Meratry, prefect of police, vice M. Pietri. vice M. Pietri.
The Duc d' Orleans is expected to arrive can movement.

A republic has with great unanimity and enthusiasm been proclaimed at Lyons, Bordeaux and other large cities in the interior M. Keratry, the newly appointed prefect of police, has issued a proclamation which recites the revolution, for the support of which all Frenchmen are united, has the same object as that of 1792—the expulsion of the foreigners from the soil of France,—Perfect order and quiet now prevail ident of the government, with full military power for the national defense.

Some changes have been made in the new ministry. M. Ernest Picard was appointed Minister of Finance and M. Magin, Minis-ter of Agriculture. the of Agriculture.

The vote on the deposition of the Imperial dynasty in the Corps Legislatif was of Beaumont reported by King William to the Queen. The French were driven over the Meuse to Mouzon, and the encounter on the other bank of the river became general.

The French were expelled from Vaux, and only faced about on Wednesday between Douzy and Bazeilles, with the Meuse and Cher between them and the enemy, and a severe engagement occurred. The Prussians turned the French right, necessitating a retirement on Sedan, before which they again renewed the fight on Thursday, when they were driven into that fortress.

London, Sept. 3—noon.—The surrender of the Emperor and MacMahon's army has greated rivet excitement, and the anxiet of the Emperor and MacMahon's army has greated great excitement.

which they again renowed the fight off Thursday, when they were driven into that fortress.

London, Sept. 3—noon.—The surrender of the Emperor and MacMahon's army has created great excitement, and the anxiety is universal to learn whether this surrender involves a cessation of hostlities and unresisted occupation of Paris.

Paris, Sept. 4.—The Council of Ministers has issued the following proclamation:
To the French People:

A great misfortune has come upon the country. After three days heroic struggle sustained by the army of Marshal MacMahon against 300,000 of the enemy, 40,00 have been made prisoners. General de Wimpfen who took command of the army in place of Marshal MacMahon against 300,000 of the enemy, 40,00
have been made prisoners. General de Wimpfen who took command of the army in place of Marshal MacMahon.
This cruel reverse will not shake our courage. Paris is to-day in a complete state of defense. The military forces of the country will be organized, and in a few days a new army will be under the walls of Paris. Another army is forming on the country will be organized, and in a few days a new army will be under the walls of Paris. Another army is forming on the state of defense. The military forces of the temperor has been made a prisoner in the struggle.

The government, in accord with public gravity of event.

(Signed)

COUNT DE PALIKAO,
CHEVREAU,
REGAULT DE GENOUILLY,

REGAULT DE GENOUILLY,

REGAULT DE GENOUILLY,

Brussers, Sept. 4.—[Special to New York World]—King William was profoundly overcome when the Emperor's proffer of surrender was brought to him by General Count Lepye, one of the Imperial Aids. His Majesty appointed a meeting at once, and exhibited the most considerate courtesy. It was not fully known to the Prussians that the Emperor was proposed by him. It is said that the Emperor insisted upon a surrender of the army against the wishes of the younger officers, as he was so much shocked by the fearful slaughter of Wednesday and Thursday.

Brussers, Sept. 3, noon.—Gen. Failly has been shot, one account says by MacMahon's orders, and others by his own soldiers.

London Sep. 3—[Special to the Hearts]. the Mease in the neighborhood of Sedau.

Berlin, September 5—evening.—Official despatches from the headquarters of the combined Prussian armies state that King William, count von Bismarck, the Crown Prince of Prussia and the Crown Prince of Saxony, struck the camp at Sedan this morning and took up their march to Paris.

The Bavarian corps remain at Sedan to preserve the Prussian lines and for other contingencies.

Ninety thousand—French prisoners have been sent from Sedan into Germany. Those of the French who refuse to sign the capit of the French was creased and prisoners ulation are to remain at Sedan as prisoners.

Paris, Monday morning, Sept. 5. The ulation are to remain at sensitias prisones.

Parits, Monday morning, Sept. 5.—The Provisional, Government has taken possession of office without the slightest disorder. All the Ministers are acting with energy. Orders for the immediate formation of colossal armies have been issued. Over 200,000 men are ready to take the third. The Superintendent of telegraphs has announced to all the Departments the event that have occurred in Paris. The Senate is suppressed and the Corps Legislatif dissolved. An important fraction of the Chambers have met at the residence of President Schneider and seem disposed to act independently of the Provisional Government, to whom, however, they have sent delegations. The officers and soldiers fraternize with the people, and place themselves under the orders of the Government, which is in permanent session at the Hotel de Ville, under the Presidency of General Trochu.

The France Tireurs of Paris guard all the Ministries and public offices, and evine the utmost desire to be courtoous. It is understood that the Government will convoke the Constituent Assembly.

urge the nation to make an unyielding de fonce, and declare the dismemberment of France to be impossible. The King of one of extermination, the fleet must be ordered to treat the great scaports of Ger-many as the Prussian armies treat the towns of Alsace and Lorraine. The enemy must be made to feel what united republican France can accomplish, here must bear arms.

The elections in Vermont and Califor The U.S. school ship Savannah, arrived at Fortress Monroe from Madeira yesterday, with all on board well. The total collections of the French of the revenue, and the vessel is held pending an investigation.

The Georgia House of Representa-tives has passed a bill for the issue of bonds to meet the outstanding bonds and interests due before January, 1873.

These bonds are to bear 7 per cent. intercst, payable half yearly in gold, and are redeemable in gold after twenty years. On sterling bonds interest is to be paid in gold, or its equivalent. In Johnson county, Arkansas, abou

The Duc d' Orients is expected.

The Duc d' Orients is expected.

The Paris to-morrow.

Paris Sopt. 5—evening.—The Journal of the newly officiel, the official journal of the newly created French republic, published the morning a proclamation by the republican ministry. The decrees dissolve the Corps in the decree of the de to the house of J. Glover, called him to the door and shot him dead. His son-in-lay, trying to escape, was also killed. After firing a volley into the house and