the Shoriff was no better than anybody HORSE STOLEN.-A chestnut-sorrel hors else, and finally caught him by the threat and black coal-box wagon were stolen in Baltimore on Saturday evening last, and have been traced in this direction as far as lacerating his neck, tore off his nock tie and ollar, and that then the Sheriff soized him strasburg, near which point the thief w. by both arms and backod him against the Strasburg, near which point the thief was yesterday seen, apparently steering for Reading. The horse is about six years old, 154 hands high, with three white fest. Thief is about 5 feet 5 incless high, light blue oyes, dark sand y goatee, and dressed in dark steel-mixed clothes, such coat and black, stiff rimmed hat. Any informa-tion relating to the horse and buggy, or thief, may be addressed to A. Johnson's livery stable, 411 West Baltimore street, Baltimore. vall of the City Hall as previously stated. The weight of ovidence and the character of the witnesses were so decidedly in favor Shoriff Frey that even the "quarternion magistrate took refuge behind "a conflict o tostimony" and dismissed the case. But shall the matter end there? Are brutal policemen to be allowed to insult, assult and arrest respectable citizens and still hold their positions on the police force? Messrs. Frey, Senor, and Funk

Baltimore. CHANGED HANDS.—The daily stage line from Oxford to Parkesburg, changed hands on Monday last. Frank Conway, the former proprietor, sold his entire stock of stages, horses, two, bo Samuel Hamilton, of Cochranville, This stage leaves the Ox-ford Hotel at sik o'clock every morning, connecting with the mail trains east on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Parkesburg at 0:30 A. M, leaving Parkesburg atto The ar-rival of the mail train west, at 10 A. M. Arrives at Oxford about 2 P. M. This makes it a line of great convenience to paswere all assaulted and arrested on Thursday ovoning without a shadow of law, and it is Mayor Atleo's duty, if he wishes his administration to escape deeper odium than yet attaches to it, to dismiss every police offier who took part in the late outrages. It is not enough that the victims be morely dismissed after they have been throttled and battered with billies with ee to pas out cause; they must be protected against songers, as well as an improvement IN Town.—Thomas M. Coulson, Esq., formerly local editor of the INTELLIGENCE, is in town. Farming in old York county the recurrence of such outrages, and this the recurrence of such outrages, and this ean only be done by a police force of sober and gentlemanity officers. TALL PRICES FOR TORACCO.—Julius Lovy bought for the Metropolitan Cigar Manu-industry which distinguished him in his editorial capacity. Coulson is a lucky fel-low. It is not every local oditor who can afford to return to a fine farm and enjoy all the pleasures of rural life.
