

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives: A year of peace and general prosperity to this nation has passed since the last session of Congress...

It is to be regretted, however, that a free ocean of the electric franchise, denied to citizens, in exceptional cases, in several of the States...

The States of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas have not resumed representation in the Union...

After the existing war broke out, the Government was obliged to suspend the writ of Habeas Corpus...

Should the present struggle result in affecting the honor of the French Republic, it will be a subject of still further solicitude...
