A Check to San Domingo Jobbers.

When the San Domingo treaty was defeated in the Senate during the last session of Congress, the Executive was left to be killed; but those who concluded had not calculated aright upon the inordinate greed of Grant, or made due allowance for the influence of the Executive...

The Inventory of Stevens' Estate.

The community may congratulate itself that there is some prospect that the inventory of Stevens' estate will be completed to file in the Register's Office, the inventory of the estate which they have so long withheld.

Another Radical Defeat.

The attempt of the Radicals to manipulate the vote of the New York Convention has failed. The Radicals have carried the State, not unexpected to their opponents.

Religious Press on Grant.

Some years the religious journals of the country have been the recipients of exceptions, have been used as pack-horses for the Radical party.

News Items.

Es-Senior of California, the well-known ex-reef, is in New Orleans. A colored woman offered her ballot at the polls at the recent municipal election in New Bedford, Mass.

The Message in Canada—Opinions.

A despatch from Ottawa of the 13th says: The message of the President to the Canadian Government is a most important document.

Speech of Peter Castelar in the Cortes.

In reply to a question the Cortes, involving the Avoca candidature, Castelar made a vote of censure. He passed on the Avoca candidature.

San Domingo in the Senate.

The members of the Republic were wise when they provided by an express constitutional limitation that no treaty should be made with a foreign power, except with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of the Senate of the United States.

Grant's San Domingo Job.

Grant's San Domingo job has been sanctioned by his own party, much to the regret of the people of the United States; and, to-day, there are numerous Republican journals which refuse to entertain the scheme.

Yankee and the United States.

Yankee is disposed to stand by the President, who stands by Butler, on the subject of the withdrawal of British troops from the United States.

Senator Drake.

The recent election in Missouri was a new defeat for the Radical party in that State—it was an extinction, a complete annihilation of the organization.

The War in France.

The reports from France show that the Germans still hold a tight grip upon their province. The sorties from Paris have proved ineffectual and the armies are still in the hands of the French.

The Alabama Troubles.

The Alabama troubles have finally been forced to abdicate in favor of the Democratic Governor. What with the explosion of the Ohio carpenter, the explosion of the State in the U. S. Senate, and other substantial gains, the victory in Alabama is very complete, indeed.
