A Christmas Tree.

I have been looking on, this evening, at a merry commany of children grandest and the gladdest festival of the al regeneration of mankind.

There is a very curious customs observed by the Greek Church throughout Russia. It is the baptism at Christmas of the patron-saint. Each village and each city has its particular patron. In the larger towns, the ceremony is performed by a bishop. A cross is cut in the ice, and the patron-saint, represented by a carved woodenefficy, is baptized.
