LANCASTER, PA., WEDNESDAY MORNING MARCH 1, 1871.

NUMBER 9

OFFICE-Southwest Corner of Center Poetry. MARGUERITE. BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Massachusetts Bay, 1760 The bed-quiit's faded patchwork, the teacup Done was the work of her hands, she had extended her bitter bread;

But her soul went back to its child-time; she ng abuse, .onger heeded and pity too late tor Outspake the mother who watched him, sharp And, awed by the siddrawing high, his lips to her ear, he called back the soul that was passing "Marguerite do you hear?" She paused on the threshold of heaven; love And the robins sang in the orehard where bud ossoms grew ; led hands and the still face, never the ew! .... From the Atlantic for March, Miscelancous.

Tallaciana: Or Scintillations from the patches—and this overplus was called cabbage,* and found its way into the tailor's cabbage-box"—sometimes also called hell. The term cabbage, was not usually applied to any act, save such as could properly come under the above definition. Crib, cribbing, or cribbaging was, however, indiscriminately applied to this overplus, and also to a species of small stealing. Therefore, it will be seen that, although tailors could not, in a restricted sense of the term, cabbage from each other.

But, according to the quotation from the old song which we preface this paper with, we think we can show that—"Tailors are not the only folks who by cabbaging have made"—nor has the term originated with them. Although we preface the moved to the Executive Mansion, and mong the Romans as early as the time of Columella, and probaoly were introduced by them into England at a very duced by them into England at a very duced by them into England at a very an account of the rescue of Generally Washington's portrait, whose preservation has very generally been created on his very generally been created the yound a last a large to add his account of the rescue of General Washington's portrait, whose preservation has very generally been created to he forethought of Mrs. Madison in cutting it out of its frame. "Now was incutting it out of its frame. "Now incut the to the forethought of Mrs. Madison in cutting it out of its frame. "Now incut the to the forethought of Mrs. Madison in cutting it out of its frame. "Now incut the tothe orbital to does it look reasonable," says the old man, "that she would take down that picture of General Washington's portrait, whose preservation has very generally been created to the forethought of Mrs. Madison in cutting it out of its frame. "Now incut the to the forethought of the Correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post. In the tothe other than the other than the object of the Correspondent of the Correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post. In the tothe to the forethought of the Correspondence of the N. Y. Evenin Paul's reminiscences it would be well amply provide, without the assistance to add his account of the rescue of General Washington's portrait, whose preservation has very generally been credited to the forethought of Mrs. Madison politan amenities, and a large annual in cutting it out of its frame. "Now does it look reasonable," says the old man, "that she would take down that list of £385,000 ayear. But it throws on picture of General Washington, six feet the nation the obligation of providing high? I don't care for history when I for her Majesty's children on their maknow what I saw, and I told you I saw jorjiv or marriage, and that obligation.

with us in the White House. When and I he saw me coming he ran to me, and News.

Oh, mon cher Paul! Mon Dieu! Paul! And here he who was thus vehemently welcomed gets off a surprising quantity of French expletives. When I asked herds with the News House Control of the News House

What the Reporters Saw.

The Island...Its People...Its Produc-We make the following copious extracts from the very full correspondence furnished to the different New York papers:

picture or observable problems of the know what I saw, and I told you I saw her leave in a hurry, just taking some silver with her. I disputed this point of in reference to the Prince of Wales, once with a gentleman long after the war was over; and when he buke of Edinburgh, the Crown doubted my word, and talked about his tory, I went and found John Susa, the Trench door-keeper who used to live with us in the White House. When he saw me coming he ran to me, and says, and Prince Arthur.—London Doubt with us in the White House. When he saw me coming he ran to me, and says, and Prince Arthur.—London Doubt with the same around me, and says, and Prince Arthur.—London Doubt with the same around me, and says, and Prince Arthur.—London Doubt with the same of the Cincinnation of the C | The content of the

bles. The staples of their diet are plantians which are excellent when fried, yauns, sweet potatoes, cozeoa-nuts, pines, bananas, and sometimes satisfish. Fresh fish is never seen—whether the waters do not supply it or the people are too lazy to catch it, I cannot say. The better classes have meat about twice a west to labor? It is all very well to talk of the better classes have meat about twice a west after the waters do not supply it or the people are too lazy to catch it, I cannot say. The better classes have meat about twice a west after the waters do not supply it or the people are too lazy to catch it, I cannot say. The better classes have meat about twice a west after the waters do not supply it or the people are too lazy to catch it, I cannot say. The better classes have meat about twice a west after the waters do not supply it or the people are too lazy to catch it, I cannot say. The cents a pound - which is far beyond the means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor—and besides it is hard to means of the poor and besides it is hard to means of the poor and to the Capital of the Island. The correspondent of the Techano says:

The climate. Everybody keeps the internation of the New York Herrican and the poople are a fair every said that the end of the village, down in the last vessel shows her stern to the rickety in the water of the poor in the poor in the first of the Island. The correspondent of the Techano says:

The CLIMATE AND PRODUCTION.
The correspondent of th

LEGAL AND OTHER NOTICES-

RATE OF ADVERTISING.