Congressional Proceedings.
TUESDAY, March 14.
In the U. S Senate, the House joint resolution for a final adjournment on the 15th (to-day) was, on motion of Mr. Morgan, tabled by a vote of 32 to 13. The negative votes were the Democrats, with the addition of Mr. Trumbull. Mr. Summer presented a petition from natives of San Domingo against annegation and began to sented a petition from natives of San Do-mingo against annexation, and began to read it. Mr. Sherman made the point of or-der that, under the rules of the Senate, pe-titions could not be presented to the exclu-sion of business. The Vice President sus-tained the point. Mr. Sumner their pro-ceeded to state the substance of the memo-rial when Mr. Morton inquired whether, if it was in order for Mr. Sumner to speak against San Domingo, it would be in order for him to make a reply. The Vice-Presi-dent thereupon ruled Mr. Sumner out of order, and that gentleman resumed his seat, declining to appeal from the decision of the
