SENATE. - The Senate met at 74 o'clock, p. M. Mr. Buckalew called up the bill pro-viding for the calling of a Constitutional Convention, and moved to strike out all Convention, and moved to strike out all after the enautment clause and insert a new bill, which provides for submitting the question of calling a Convention to the peo-pie at the next October election. The amendment was agreed to by a vote of 16 to 13. Mr. White then said he was opposed to the bill as substituted, but as the major-ity were determined to pass 1 the would vote for it. The bill then passed by a unan-imous vote. Mr. Petriken called up the House bill requiring the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund to receive proposals as Depositaries of the State Funds. Mr. Bill lingfelt said the bill was a great improve-ment on last year's, because it requires the banks to give security, and relieves the Treasanrer and his securities of all liabilities in case of loss, but it was too important to pass hastily. The bill was laid over or

The frac-ured ribs penetrated the membrane of the o'clock last night. This morning Oroner Dysart hald an inquest on the body, assist ed by T. E. Lane Schöfeld. The jury returned a verdict of death caused by un-avoidable accident. To this meeting, is usual, and all white the second without distinction of sect or creed. Among the speakers who are engaged for the meeting are William Lloyd Garrison, John W. Ohadwick (Pastor of the Second Unitarian Church In Brooklyn, N. Y.); and Mrs. Cella Burleigh. Mary A. Livsermore, Editor of Woman's. Journal, will probably also attend. They give notice that Bro-gressive Friends deem it at once a duty and a pleasure to be hospitable to strangers. Those, however, who prefer not to avail themselves of their hospitality, will find a hotel at Kennett Square, and a pirvate boarding-house at Amonoro, the former two miles, the latter less than one mile! from the meeting house.
