The Proposed Lease of the New Jersey Roads to the Pennsylvania Ratironal Company.

It is a remarkable new time to be commercial and mercantile interests of Philadelphia are almost unanimously op-posed to the lease of the New Jersey Rail-roads to the Pennsylvania Railroad Com-pany, the newspapers of that city either opening advocate the lease or preserve a profound silence in regard to it. Having

Appenity advocate the lease or preserve a profound silence in regard to it. Having a no newspaper organs to speak for them, the business men of Philadelphia are taking the matter in their own hands, and at a meeting of the Commercial Exchange, held on Tuesday, the Committee on Inland Transportation through their Chairman, Mr. Geo. L. Buzby, reported for the con-sideration of that body, the following pre-merkeness theorem, and the subart

Whereas, 'The Pennsylvania fautose owes its existence to capital contributed by Philadelphia in her corporate capacity and by her private citizens; and, Whereas, The design of the road was the development of the commercial interests of Philadelpha; and, Whereas, Our business men have largely provided the means for building first-class constraints to econcente with the road in

Whereas, the lease to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company of the Now Jersey Roads, coupled with a vast expenditure for the improvement of Harsinus Cove, as a supping depot, will endanger and retard the success of our offorts to enlarge our outward commerce ; and, Whereas, The moneys proposed to be expended at Harsinus Cove, if applied to facilitating access to our river front by de-livery on our docksof freight drawn by lo-comotives over tracks to be had outside and to the south of the pepulate the portions of our eity, would furnish all the accom-modations for shipping now sought to be obtained, at a point one hundred miles dis-tant, and
