

Lancaster Intelligencer. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1871. DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, GEN. WILLIAM MCCANDLESS, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, CAPTAIN JAMES H. COOPER, OF LAWRENCE COUNTY.

A FULL POLL OF THE DEMOCRATIC VOTE WILL BE TAKEN AT THE STATE CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT LANCASTER, PA., ON MONDAY, AUGUST 14, 1871.

Circular the Intelligencer. The WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER will be mailed to subscribers until after the October election for FORTY CENT.

Let it be put into the hands of every man who will read it. Every dollar thus spent will be worth five times that amount paid for brass bands and forgetting up big meetings.

The Revival of Know-Nothingism. The proscription spirit of Know-Nothingism has only been slumbering in the Republican party since the election of Abraham Lincoln. At the Convention which nominated Mr. Lincoln Carl Schurz appeared and demanded that the customary Know-Nothing plank should be struck from the platform of the party.

Our Narrow-Gauge Railroad. We publish elsewhere the report of the committee appointed to examine the route of the projected narrow-gauge railroad from Lancaster to York.

State Executive Committee. The members of the State Executive Committee of the Republican party were organized at Lancaster on Monday last.

Ziegler's Ironia. That is the title of a handsome nine-column newspaper now published in Butler county.

The Alaska seal contractors are indirectly swindling the government by taking to seal off whalers.

General McCandless, who is stopping at Bedford Springs, was surrounded the other night and made a speech of an hour.

The Erils of Ring Government. In the editorial columns of the Lancaster State Guard, we find the following paragraph: Ring government, we care not which party it is, is a robbery of the taxpayer, and it is time the people of all parties should rise up and control their political affairs for their own benefit.

Mr. Russell Errett, Chairman of the Radical State Central Committee, has issued an address which cannot be termed a Republican party in Pennsylvania. It is full of misrepresentations, which are so bunglingly put forward that they cannot deceive any intelligent voter.

Full Account of the Census, Extent and Details. We are enabled to give the following highly interesting details, giving particulars concerning the terrible Persian famine, from our correspondent at London. The famine in Persia is much more widespread than at first reported. In place of being confined to the province of Khorasan, it extends over the entire land. Already the loss of life has reached a fearful total, and reliable authorities to have lost fifty per cent. of the population. Thousands of people are perishing daily from starvation.
