

Lancaster Intelligence. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1871. DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, GEN. WILLIAM McCANDLESS, OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, CAPTAIN JAMES H. COOPER, OF LAWRENCE COUNTY. A FULL POLI OF THE DEMOCRATIC VOTE WILL BE GIVEN TO THE CANDIDATES...

The Weekly Intelligence will be mailed to subscribers after the October election for FERRY CARR. Let it be put into the hands of every man who will read it. Every dollar spent will be worth five times that amount paid for brass bands and for getting up big meetings.

The Importance of Our State Election. It is customary for politicians to enlarge upon the importance of each recurring election. Every year the people are told that the future destiny of the nation depends upon their vote.

For years past Simon Cameron has been struggling to retain his position in Pennsylvania, and he has at last succeeded in accomplishing his purpose. When, by the free use of money, he succeeded in being elected to the Senate of the United States...

Radical Candidates as Letter- Writers. When E. H. Rouse was elected to the Temperance Convention by the Republican candidate for Auditor and Surveyor-General, he remarked that by a singular coincidence...

Old subscribers. Mr. Zachariah Killian, of Hinkletown, sends the money for his subscription in advance, and informs us that he first commenced to take the paper in 1829. We have some of the oldest subscribers in the State...

Thomas Ferran, Esq. Thomas Ferran, Esq., who is now visiting his friends in this city, called in on the editor of the INTELLIGENCER, and was remembered by numbers of our subscribers as a former editor of the INTELLIGENCER.

It was resolved for the Democratic Legislature to have a public meeting on the 13th of July, to enact that "soldiers serving in the late rebellion, and disabled from manual labor in consequence of their military services, be exempted from paying poll-tax."

out organization and labor. Let that be the means for securing victory be left unexplored. Now is the time to enter upon the work of organization. It must not be left to the last hours of the campaign.

The Temperance Party in the Field. We will be glad to report, which we publish elsewhere, the Prohibitionists of Pennsylvania have boldly entered the political field and put forward candidates for Auditor and Surveyor-General...

The Kentucky Election. Certain newspapers profess to regard the Democratic majority of thirty thousand in Kentucky as a very small victory. They put us in mind of the saying that a man who stands upon the top of a high mountain as Noah's ark went floating by.

Grant's recent visit to Washington. Grant's recent visit to Washington, D. C., has been the subject of much speculation. It is generally supposed that he went there to see the President and to discuss the affairs of the country.

Radical opinion. A matter of course, the editor of the INTELLIGENCER, who is now visiting his friends in this city, called in on the editor of the INTELLIGENCER, and was remembered by numbers of our subscribers as a former editor of the INTELLIGENCER.

Thomas Ferran, Esq. Thomas Ferran, Esq., who is now visiting his friends in this city, called in on the editor of the INTELLIGENCER, and was remembered by numbers of our subscribers as a former editor of the INTELLIGENCER.

It was resolved for the Democratic Legislature to have a public meeting on the 13th of July, to enact that "soldiers serving in the late rebellion, and disabled from manual labor in consequence of their military services, be exempted from paying poll-tax."

It was resolved for the Democratic Legislature to have a public meeting on the 13th of July, to enact that "soldiers serving in the late rebellion, and disabled from manual labor in consequence of their military services, be exempted from paying poll-tax."

It was resolved for the Democratic Legislature to have a public meeting on the 13th of July, to enact that "soldiers serving in the late rebellion, and disabled from manual labor in consequence of their military services, be exempted from paying poll-tax."

Butwell's Failure. Butwell has been hawking the new U. S. loan throughout the financial market of Europe without success. Spinner was of this opinion, and then Elchoy and Spenser were sent after Spinner.

Extension of the Ring. In its last issue the Express cast attention to the fact that a desperate effort is being made by the corrupt Ring to extend its power to the management of the Poor House and County Hospital.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.

Two twin lambs in Washington county, whose mother died, were suckled by a wolf. The lambs are uncommonly large at this season, and are probably the result of the great abundance of food which they received from their foster mother.

Samuel Hancock, of Solisbury, Bucks county, has raised a pair of piglets weighing 17 pounds; and from one early rise he raised 15 piglets weighing 15 pounds. Some of the heaviest piglets weighed over half a pound each.

The steamer Chautauque exploded at Philadelphia, and killed two men. The explosion occurred on the morning of the 10th inst., when the steamer was on its way to the city.

The Apaches were reported at last night to be very active in Arizona and New Mexico. They have been seen in various places, and are doing much mischief to the settlers.

The Centennial anniversary of Walter Scott's birth, was celebrated in Edinburgh with becoming ceremonies. The celebration was held on the 15th inst., and was attended by a large number of people.

At the Seaside. Shall we go to the sea-shore or to the mountains? This is a question which many ask themselves as the Summer approaches. The beauty of the coast and the grandeur of the mountains are both equally attractive.

Prof. Lowe, of Chester county, is meeting with great success in the South with his ice-machines and will probably reap a fortune there. The peach, apple and cherry trees that were stripped of their fruit and followed by the late hail storm in Lyncoln county have put forth a new crop of blossoms.