deeds of glory; the honorably discharged members of it, delighted as each additional laurel was achieved and heaped upon it. From its organization to the time of its being mustered out of the service, the same spirit continued. And did it cease then? This third annual re-union of its survivors answers the question in the negative. It still lives, although the survivors, are scattered over the Commonwealth, yea, over the whole Union, pursuing their different avocations; and when the name of the Seventy-seventh Pennsylvania volunteers

The route lies between Mobile, Alabama, and Houston, Texas—passing through New Orleans, the New York of the South. Of the whole line of 45 miles, about two-thirds are aiready built, and the ockholders have expended nearly TEN MIL LION DOLLARS in the work. The bonds now offered are secured by a mortgage upon all that part of the line west of New Orleans, which has an enormous traffic assured to It from the start, this being the only rall connection by start, this being the only rail confection by which the cotton, corn, cattle and other pro-ductions of Texas can reach New Orleans. So important is this road considered to oulsiana, that the State has made very liber I grants in aid of the enterprise, by direct do ngians in an analysis and another second mortage sounds, and by subscriptions to the stock of the Company, amounting in all to over eight mil-

Bates, President ank of Commerce, Franklin Havens, President Merchants' Bank, Boston, and others, also well known.

The above statement of facts proves the SAFETY of these Bonds. Their PROFIT is equally manifest upon examination. They are sold for the present at 90, and accrued interest from July 1st. At this price they afford a cerne for forty-five years, of nearly 9 per cent, upon their cost. One thousand dolars invested in these 8 per cent, bonds will give the purchaser more than seventy-seven per cent, greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government Five Per Cents, while holders of Government Sixes will find a decided profit in selling them at present high prices, and re-investing in the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas Bonds. Subscriptions will be received in Lancaster
