

Lancaster Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1871.

The Road to Success.

We have repeatedly spoken of the means which must be employed by the Democratic party to ensure success in the Presidential election of 1872; and we more and more feel that everything depends upon the ability of the Democrats to impress the people of the country with the belief that, if entrusted with power, it will inaugurate honesty and economy in all branches of the public service.

This large amount of money was lying in the hands of these speculating bankers, drawing no interest for the City, and the City officials had placed it there, had their profit in so doing, while at the same time the City was actually paying out $4,000,000 in City warrants.

The Pittsburgh Post has a column and a half article in support of Thomas A. Scott for the Presidency, as the Democratic and Conservative candidates in the Presidential election.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

More Radical Financiers.

Radical journals, which have had so much to say about Tammany frauds, will be sufficient to occupy their attention in the recent developments of the management of the City Finances of Philadelphia, in addition to the previous frauds which were charged upon the Radical officials.

This large amount of money was lying in the hands of these speculating bankers, drawing no interest for the City, and the City officials had placed it there, had their profit in so doing, while at the same time the City was actually paying out $4,000,000 in City warrants.

The Pittsburgh Post has a column and a half article in support of Thomas A. Scott for the Presidency, as the Democratic and Conservative candidates in the Presidential election.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

A Small Select Council.

The action of the Radical majority of the Select Council in refusing to allow Mr. Shimp, the Democratic member elected from the 3d Ward, to be sworn in, is a striking illustration of the superlatively small and mean conduct which Radical partisans, elevated from the slums of the street into positions of brief responsibility, can be guilty of.

This large amount of money was lying in the hands of these speculating bankers, drawing no interest for the City, and the City officials had placed it there, had their profit in so doing, while at the same time the City was actually paying out $4,000,000 in City warrants.

The Pittsburgh Post has a column and a half article in support of Thomas A. Scott for the Presidency, as the Democratic and Conservative candidates in the Presidential election.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

The Police Force.

The Lancaster Radicals did hard-ly beaten in the late City Election by the Democratic majority, and they rendered them the verdict, "You have been tried in the conduct of our affairs and have been found wanting."

This large amount of money was lying in the hands of these speculating bankers, drawing no interest for the City, and the City officials had placed it there, had their profit in so doing, while at the same time the City was actually paying out $4,000,000 in City warrants.

The Pittsburgh Post has a column and a half article in support of Thomas A. Scott for the Presidency, as the Democratic and Conservative candidates in the Presidential election.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

Transparent Hypocrisy.

The Radical journals send up a howl of affected indignation, and shed a profusion of tears, when they see the names of the Return Judges in the Cumberland and Franklin districts, to award the certificate of election to Mr. Wakley, as Senator-elect.

This large amount of money was lying in the hands of these speculating bankers, drawing no interest for the City, and the City officials had placed it there, had their profit in so doing, while at the same time the City was actually paying out $4,000,000 in City warrants.

The Pittsburgh Post has a column and a half article in support of Thomas A. Scott for the Presidency, as the Democratic and Conservative candidates in the Presidential election.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

It is not necessary to say that the Democratic party is in a war of factions in the next Presidential campaign. That party has within itself the elements of a civil war.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Table with columns for Year, Governor, Auditor General, Treasurer, and Conventions. It lists the names and vote counts for various candidates in Pennsylvania from 1860 to 1870.

Majority 4590 14400 20770 228038

State Issues.

Danville is building an opera house. Harrisburg is to have a star course of lectures.

There are 120 Millers in Reading and 97 in Scranton. The temperature record only 12 or 13 in Berks.

The American House in Mechanicsburg, owned by the German family, has been renovated from coal gas work.

Dr. R. Christy, of Hollidaysburg, while picking grapes, fell off a chair, and was killed.

The receipts of grain at Chicago for several weeks before the fire, exceeded those for the same period in any year.

The Jersey Shore tannery, recently destroyed by fire, was insured for $1,500,000.

The North Philadelphia Presbytery, which has a membership of 1,000, is in contact with the ground.

A company is talked of amongst the farmers of Montgomery county, for the manufacture of artificial manure.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

The City Councils of Montreal, New York, and Chicago, have all passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of slavery.

The Pittsburgh Locomotive Works completed and shipped recently two narrow-gauge locomotives for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

Earthquakes are going to farm.

The Michigan apple-crop is immense. A fire-alarm is to be erected at Taunton, Mass.

Secretary Delano has announced the lecturing business. A fire-alarm is to be erected at Taunton, Mass.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

The City Councils of Montreal, New York, and Chicago, have all passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of slavery.

The Pittsburgh Locomotive Works completed and shipped recently two narrow-gauge locomotives for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

The City Councils of Montreal, New York, and Chicago, have all passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of slavery.

The Pittsburgh Locomotive Works completed and shipped recently two narrow-gauge locomotives for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

The City Councils of Montreal, New York, and Chicago, have all passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of slavery.

The Pittsburgh Locomotive Works completed and shipped recently two narrow-gauge locomotives for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

The City Councils of Montreal, New York, and Chicago, have all passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of slavery.

The Pittsburgh Locomotive Works completed and shipped recently two narrow-gauge locomotives for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

The average wages for laborers in the Chicago yards are $1.75 per day; for carpenters, $3 to $3.50.

The City Councils of Montreal, New York, and Chicago, have all passed resolutions in favor of the abolition of slavery.

The Pittsburgh Locomotive Works completed and shipped recently two narrow-gauge locomotives for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

Honors of the Fire-Brick and Real Estate.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.

The following are the names of the Chicago Fire-Brick and Real Estate. People are not only cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, but with all the regard to the suffering which demands their sympathy, they do not forget their own interests.