The Army to be Increased!

For what? The organ of Grant at Washington tells us in no significant language, it has the hardihood to announce, by way of paving the course for an extension of the army...

There were ever existed in the minds of men a doubt as to the propriety of honest men as rulers by employment of the laymen, those doubts must be removed by the developments of the last few months...

The people of the South are not to be permitted to live in peace, or to prosper in the enjoyment of their rights...

It is for these unholy ends that Congress will be asked to increase the army...

Radical Robberies in Philadelphia.

The radicals of Philadelphia are not completely happy—not nearly so much delighted as we might expect them to be...

Head-Enterprise.

The project for building ten attractive furnaces in the City of Reading is now a fixed fact. The enterprising business men of that place look upon the result...

Senator Norwood, of Georgia.

Thomas Norwood, of Georgia, the newly elected United States Senator from Georgia, is a native of that State, forty-one years of age, and a practicing member of the Savannah bar...

Mr. Murphy at Last Resigned.

It is about a week since Mr. Murphy, in office, has been so great that Grant was forced to suggest that his resignation would be accepted.

The Senatorial Mandamus Case.

In the Supreme Court at Pittsburgh, the argument was heard in the case of the State of Pennsylvania vs. Eminger, a Democratic Return Judge of Cumberland county.

Starting Term.

The Democratic Party Dead?

The Democratic party is dead! It is dead, and yet, with the most ridiculous lucubrations, they keep kicking what they pretend to be a dead body...

Radical Voting.

The only form of consolation upon which the Grant and Murphy coalition can find at present, is the result of the New York election...

What the Democracy has done in the past, it can do in the future. It is the duty of the Democracy to preserve its organization as a body of constitutional freedom...

Radical Robberies in Philadelphia.

The radicals of Philadelphia are not completely happy—not nearly so much delighted as we might expect them to be...

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

The New York Tribune says the following in its issue of the 19th inst. regarding the late Chief Justice Roger Taney...

A Good Suggestion.

The New York Sun, one of the most influential newspapers in the country, makes a very sensible and timely suggestion...

Death of Rev. Alfred Cookman.

This distinguished divine, whose death we recorded, having been a member of the New York Convention...

What has the Country Gained?

The statement of the Secretary of the Treasury that he has paid $27,000,000 in the month of March, 1870, means simply that he has drained the country of that much money...

How They Do It in Texas.

In a recent issue of the Intelligencer, and military triumph, the Courts take the matter in hand, and throw out the Democratic candidates...
