

Lancaster Intelligence.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1871.

The Democratic Policy.

SOME DEMOCRATS are apparently greatly demoralized by the fact that our party has been beaten this fall by small minorities in the great States of New York and Pennsylvania, are urging the Democracy to promptly designate that they will make no Presidential nomination in the coming year, but will support the nominee who may be named by the Republicans...

Among the ranks of the Radicals and the teachers of Radicalism—of those far-fetched ideas of political abstractions, enunciated by its leaders of the Wendell Phillips and Theodore Parker school, and its more absurd social teachings...

Party Substituted for Power. Radical assumption of power is a subject which should be constantly kept before the American people, in order that its rapid irruptions upon the Constitution...

At the time that Massachusetts has taken a stand in Louisiana, even at the hands of his own friends. His unwarranted interference in the political affairs of that State...

Stimulated with hope by the success of the Pittsburgh election, they have started a Citizens' Fleet in Allegheny City, and in reply to the letter of Hon. J. P. Wickesham, published in the Intelligencer...

Political Prolegomena. With 80 per cent. Democracy and 20 per cent. of Republicans—the latter not forming the base, but absorbing all the properties and peculiarities of the 80 per cent.—the latest suggestion of the Democratic Party...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Political Prolegomena. With 80 per cent. Democracy and 20 per cent. of Republicans—the latter not forming the base, but absorbing all the properties and peculiarities of the 80 per cent.—the latest suggestion of the Democratic Party...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Political Prolegomena. With 80 per cent. Democracy and 20 per cent. of Republicans—the latter not forming the base, but absorbing all the properties and peculiarities of the 80 per cent.—the latest suggestion of the Democratic Party...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Political Prolegomena. With 80 per cent. Democracy and 20 per cent. of Republicans—the latter not forming the base, but absorbing all the properties and peculiarities of the 80 per cent.—the latest suggestion of the Democratic Party...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Political Prolegomena. With 80 per cent. Democracy and 20 per cent. of Republicans—the latter not forming the base, but absorbing all the properties and peculiarities of the 80 per cent.—the latest suggestion of the Democratic Party...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...

Let the Revenue Bureau be Abolished. Senator Sumner has introduced into Congress a bill for abolishing the Internal Revenue Bureau. It provides that after the 1st day of June next all taxes shall cease, except those upon distilled spirits...

Mr. Sumner may think he is at the head of the Democracy, but he is not. He is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents, but he is a man of great talents...