

PHILLIES ENTERTAIN GIANTS AGAIN TODAY—DR. KRAENZLEIN TO RE-HERE

PHILLIES OWE MUCH TO DOOLIN FOR HIS WORK

Auburn-haired Leader Has Wrought Well Despit Reverses and Should Not Be Allowed to Go to Braves.

Aside from the all-important question as to which club will win the National League pennant, the main idea in the minds of fandom is to favor Charley Doolin.

Doolin has never won a pennant for the Phillies, but he is a good leader, and with the material which he had this season, no one could have done better.

Had the Philly leader been able to hold Mike Doohan he would probably be in the running now. The numerous and necessary switches at the shortfield position caused the Phillies to drop games which should have been added to their string of victories.

Even with all the breaks of the game going against him at every turn, Charley Doolin has stood up splendidly under the grilling.

Charley was in the line-up, and the power of the team's play was increased far more than his mere catching would have justified.

In the two double-headers which the Phillies have played with the Giants the New Yorkers have lost ground by getting only an even break.

When the time comes that Mathewson cannot go in and give a creditable account of himself it is time for McGraw to look toward strengthening his club.

The Giants were lucky to split with the Phils yesterday. Catherburn would have pitched a better game than he did for Tesreau and prevented the Braves from being three and a half games ahead of the McGraws instead of two and a half, as they are today.

Today's game between the Phillies and the Giants will be started at 3 o'clock. This will be the starting hour for all single games of the National League during the remainder of the season.

Some days ago Christy Mathewson predicted that the Boston Braves were going to catch a nerve-racking race that they would break sooner or later.

Some days ago Christy Mathewson predicted that the Boston Braves were going to catch a nerve-racking race that they would break sooner or later.

A few words about this so-called "nerve-racking race," or "high-tension," is strictly in order, for the simple reason that it either doesn't exist, or is present to such a small degree, as to give to the club that is negligible quantity.

"Nerve-racking" and "high tension" are terms which can be applied to individuals alone. If you ask the average ball player the difference between the "nerve" when his club is near the top fighting for place and when it is safely clinging to the uppermost rung, he will tell you that as far as his play is concerned, there is no difference.

When the first meeting of the league was called, the President, William Jacob Schaffer, called the body to order and suggested that the Allentown team and the Auburn Park N. J. five be admitted to the league.

One matter that will come up tonight for consideration is the absolute protection of the referee before, during and after the game.

It will be noticed that the only run scored by the Highlanders against the Athletics was made by Pete Daley, who came in on a sacrifice hit after he had tripped over Strunk's head.

Frank Chance appeared on the sidelines against the Athletics in Monday's fracas. He did not seem worried in the least that he had been given no other alternative than to resign as manager.

MACKMEN ARE DIVIDED IN THEIR SERIES SYMPATHIES

Some Favor Giants to Win, While Others Want Braves to Capture National League Pennant for 1914.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—According to the Braves followers here, the Athletics are to play their last game of the year at the Polo Grounds this afternoon, when they meet the Highlanders.

What the Athletics think of the matter is of some importance, but in general both players and manager are reticent on the subject of the National League flag, though they do not in the least object to admitting that they are going to capture the pennant.

The Athletic players themselves are divided on the question of which club they would prefer to play in the series, for the reason that different motives lead them to arrive at different viewpoints.

Frank Chance appeared on the sidelines against the Athletics in Monday's fracas. He did not seem worried in the least that he had been given no other alternative than to resign as manager.

The Mackmen leave after today's game for their final trip over the Western coast of the circuit. They are not scheduled tomorrow, but meet Detroit the following day.

Yates and Blackburne Now Tied for the High Honors.

Play in the annual championship tournament of the British Chess Federation at Chester went on steadily on schedule time in spite of the war, and, according to latest advices received here, F. D. Yates, of Yorkshire, titleholder, who started off with three straight wins and then added four more scalp to his list, was tied by J. H. Blackburne, after nine rounds had been contested.

In the major open tournament at Chester, 12 shorties, with two more games to play, had a total of nine points. The same player won first prize in a rapid transit lightning tourney, with Blackburne placed second, Mr. Houlding, the titleholder, was making a clean sweep in the women's championship tournament, having won seven games straight.

Along with Tyler and James, Rudolph has been carrying the pitching burden of the Boston Braves in their mad rush for the National League pennant.

The trio has won 59 games and lost 28. Of these Rudolph has captured, including yesterday's game, 21 affairs and has been credited with 11 defeats, most of which were sustained during the early stages of the race, when the Braves were adorning the bottom of the ladder.

PENN STATE SQUAD VERY LIKELY TO BE A SUCCESSFUL ONE

Sixty Candidates Are Out for Five Vacancies On the Eleven—Coaches and Players Optimistic.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 15.—With more than 60 eager candidates fighting for five vacancies on Penn State's football team, the outlook for a successful season is most encouraging.

They are encouraged by the splendid condition of the eight varsity men of last year's team and are sure that two halfbacks and a tackle are to be developed readily from the string of well-coached schoolboys who have reported for the preliminary practice.

Coaches Harlow and Hollenback are confronted by two problems—the satisfactory development of a left tackle, around whom State's offensive play is to be constructed, and a quarterback to succeed Captain "Shorty" Miller, who was graduated last June.

Two rare halfbacks are in the squad. They are Welby, of the 123 eleven, and Whetstone, the ex-West Philadelphia High School back. Much is expected from both of these men.

KRAENZLEIN, NOW ON AMERICAN SOIL, MAY NOT GO TO BERLIN

Because of the Great War He Believes His Contract to Coach Germany's Athletes Is Ended.

The European war has made available for some American university one of the best football trainers and track and field coaches in America.

Although he still has two years of his contract to fulfill, Kraenzlein thinks his work in Germany is done for the present.

"I haven't heard a word from the German Olympic Committee since I left," said Kraenzlein yesterday.

"My plans for the immediate future are not at all definite, but in the absence of further news from Germany I am going to stay right here.

"My first year's work in Germany was entirely educational," he continued.

Those who saw the Olympic games at Stockholm two years ago will be disappointed to learn that the team from Hans Braun, the phenomenal German middle distance runner, are apparently over.
