Churches Will Seek to Raise Large Fund for Extension Work.

Biaborate plans are being made by the Presbyterians of this city for the campaign to be wased this autumn to help ebiain a budget of $140,000 for home missons and church extension of the de-nomination. The pastors of all churches have been requested to present the cause have been requested to present the cause have been requested to their congregations on Sunday, October 18, the day that has been set aside as "City Mission Sunday."

Local churches have been asked to contribuate $10,000 of the budget for home mission work during this year. Of this amount 80 per cent is to go toward mission work in the presbytery, 10 per cent for mission work in the synod and 30 per cent for national home missions.

Efforts are also to be made to collect per cent. for national nome missions, Efforts are also to be made to collect $100,000 to be used in paying off mort-gages on all missions and churches desir-ing assistance. In the Philadelphia Pres-pytery there are 75 churches, 42,854 members and Sunday schools having a total bers and Sunday schools having a tota membership of 36,585. Following "City Mission Sunday" a spe cial meeting is to be held in Calvary Church when clergymen and laymen will speak on the home mission work, and particularly on the local field.

subject for tomorrow is to be "The God of This Age." The special sermons are to be given at 10:30 o'clock in the mornings through the remainder of this month October, November and December.

Will Preach on Revivals

In anticipation of the visit of "Billy" day, the baseball evangelist, to this city during the early part of 1915, the Rev. James Ramsay Swain, pastor of the Woodland Presbyterian Church, 42d and Pine streets, is to preach a series of sermons on Sunday evening on "The Revivais of History."

Church Greatly Improved

During the summer the Temple Presby-terian Church, Franklin and Thompson etreets, has been greatly improved. The interior has been repainted and decorated, and the greenstone walls on the outside have been completely refaced with three coatings of a patented cement that gives the edifice the appearance of a brownstone structure. The Rev. Dr. Will-iam Dayton Roberts, pastor, announces that the autumn work is starting hope-fully fully, and he anticipates a busy and suc-cessful winter's labor.
