SEES BLESSING IN WAR

The Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eaton Expects Good to Flow From Conflict.

The European war is going to be a blessins, in the opinion of the Rev. Dr. Charles Aubroy Eaton, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, Manhattan New York. In his sermon on Sunday Doctor Eaton said:

"This war is the greatest blessing.
When it is ended the world will be better and more enlightened than it has been since the days of Jesus. This is the end of the world of hypocrisy. The age selfishness and bigotry is gone, and, when I think of those thousands of boys who have been shot that this might be plished, I feel they have found a place for what they have done loward it. Lift up your hearts, the dawn

TOURIST GLAD TO GET HOME

Dr. Lewis Lautenbach Didn't Find

Rest There as Expected. Dr. Louis J. Lautenbach, of 33 South Sixteenth street, is home from Europe and is exceedingly glad. He made the trip to get a little rest. He did not find the journey a quieting one.

When the war broke out Dr. Lautenbach was in Holland. Tourists immediately became objectionable characters. It was injurated to him that the Govern-was intimated to him that the Govern-ment of Holland would be pleased if he quitted the country. Dr. Lautenbach left Holland in a baggage car. He finally managed to reach London. He had money equivalent to a couple of American doilars and there was no hope of fetting more, as the banks were closed and checks were not honored. Dr. Lautenbach happened to be known at a London hotel, where he was housed until he could get money and passage back to the United States. In London Dr. Lautenbach said his name was not popular. He was locked upon with suspicion, as many persons believed he was a German,

GERMAN DAY WILL BE DEVOTED TO PRAYERS

No Patriotic Celebration This Year in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.-German Day in Washington this fall will be observed as a day of prayer, and all Germans in Washington will gather in churches. This announcement was made today by Martin Wiegand, president of the United German Societies. The willingness of the Germans to meet exactly the spirit of President Wilson's request for observance of strict neutrality in this country led to the abandonment of the usual patriotic the nation-wide response to his proclamation designating, at the suggestion of the Public Ledger, Sunday, October 4, as "a day of prayer for peace."
