

FLEETS OF ALLIES CONTROL EUROPEAN WATERS, IS REPORT

British Admiralty Announces Victory for Cammania, But Admits Reverses in Far-off Seas—German Victory in Baltic.

BORDEAUX, Sept. 21. The fleets of the Allies control the Atlantic, Mediterranean and North Sea, according to an official Navy Department statement published today in the Moniteur de la Flote.

LONDON, Sept. 21. The admiralty has reported a number of encounters in far-off waters. In the principal action the auxiliary cruiser Carmania sank a German armed merchant cruiser. The official bulletin announces details as follows:

SEVERAL BRITISH DISASTERS. The German protected cruiser Koenigsberg caught the British light cruiser Pegasus overhauling her machinery in Zanzibar Harbor and attacked and completely disabled her.

WOMAN CHATS WITH ROBBERS TILL HUSBAND GETS HIS GUN. Men Trying to Enter Shoe Store Are Driven Away.

BELGIANS RESIST PLAN TO COMPROMISE NATION. German Proposal for Concessions Answered by Fight.

LINERS BRING AMERICANS FROM WAR DISTRICTS

4273 Arrive in New York—Stories of Fighting. NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Three liners which arrived today from Europe brought 4273 passengers, many of them Americans from the war zone.

Among the passengers on the St. Paul 82 were American refugees. The Nieuw Amsterdam brought 1478 Americans. She was held up twice by British warships on the voyage over, but none of the passengers was molested.

FORTY WARSHIPS LOST OR DAMAGED TO DATE

Naval Casualties Record Heavy Disasters to Powers' Fleets. NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Forty warships have either been destroyed, badly damaged or otherwise lost to the European Powers since the war began.

ATHENS, Sept. 21. The Turkish fleet is coaling at Constantinople, according to a reliable report received here, and will be ready to move within 48 hours if the Porte decides to side with Germany.

VEDRINES WINS DUEL 6000 FEET UP IN AIR. Noted French Aviator Works Havoc With German Foes.

NEW HEBREW SYNAGOGUE. Congregation Plans to Build on North Eighth Street.

CAMDEN MAYOR SUMMONED

Must Tell State Health Board Why Sewage Plant Was Not Built. A summons to appear before the State Board of Health, at Trenton, on September 25, has been served on Mayor Ellis, of Camden, that he may explain why the State should not take action because of the city's failure to build a sewage disposal plant in compliance with the order to that effect issued in 1910.

WOMAN ILL WITHOUT FOOD

Police Send Her to a Hospital After Investigating. Helpless, without food, ill and neglected, Mrs. Robert Armstrong, of 23 Beck street, near Front and Christian streets, was found on a couch in her home this morning by Patrolman McIntyre, of the Second and Christian streets station.

Man Dies From Gas While in Bath

Dependent over the loss of relative in the European conflict, George Doerffel, 31 years old, of 3713 North 17th street, committed suicide by inhaling gas in a bathtub late Saturday night. His body was found by his wife.

AUTHOR HELD AT VIENNA

ROME, Sept. 21. It is officially announced from Vienna that Henry Sienkiewicz, the writer, has been liberated from prison, but is forbidden to leave the city. All of the imperial palaces in Vienna have been converted into hospitals.

RICH HARVEST AWAITS U. S. TRADE IN SOUTH AMERICA

Bolivia Man Writes to Local Firm of Opportunities. There is an unusual opportunity for American enterprise to reap a rich harvest in South America. This is the belief of Stephen P. Smith, a business man of Cochabamba, Bolivia, as expressed in a letter to Reeves, Parvin & Co., 166 South Front street.

VIENNA GOVERNMENT ACTS TO STOP FINANCIAL PANIC

Money Is Advanced to Insolvent Concerns and Moratorium Proclaimed. VIENNA, Sept. 21. An emergency hospital is being created at a cost of $50,000 by the municipality. This will be used for the treatment of infectious diseases. Dozens of buildings have been converted into hospitals for the care of wounded soldiers, who are being brought here from both the eastern and southern theatres of war for treatment.

WAR WORRY CAUSES DEATH

Wager German's Anxiety Over Struggle in Europe Ends His Life. Death due to general debility, thought to have been brought on by his anxiety over the war in Europe, came to Frederick Dinner, in the Old Fellows' Home, 17th and Fogel streets. Dinner was 91 years old, a German by birth, and a wheelwright and wagon builder by trade.

CROWD THROWN INTO RIVER AND LITTLE GIRL DROWNS

Floating Boat Slip Tilts at Wissinoming River Front. A tragedy which resulted in the death of a 3-year-old child and the narrow escape from death by drowning of 15 men, women and children took place yesterday on the Wissinoming water front when a floating boat ship, on which the crowd was posing for a picture, tilted under the weight, throwing the entire group into the river.

LIVERYMAN MISSES HIS HORSE

Rented Team to Man Who Fails to Show Up. Search is being made today by the police throughout the city for a bay mare, driven by a man who gave the name of Ben Albert and told Edward A. Gilbertson, 1201 Ludlow street, a liveryman, that he was a salesman for Morris Abraham Company, music dealers, 159 Broadway, New York.

"BUY-A-BALE" INTEREST HERE

A number of Philadelphia business men interested in the "buy-a-bale" movement, started in the South to assist cotton planters, by purchase of the surplus raw cotton will meet tonight to form a branch organization of the movement in this city.

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN NAMED IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE

I. W. W. Agitator Accused as Correspondent by Mrs. Carlo Tresca. Industrial Workers of the World leaders in this city were shocked and surprised today to hear that Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, the Industrial Workers of the World agitator, who as a mere child on City Hall plaza made her first address expounding principles of social revolution, has been named as correspondent by Mrs. Carlo Tresca, wife of Carlo Tresca, one of the leading strategists on the general staff of the Industrial Workers of the World army, in her suit for divorce against her husband, instituted at New Kensington, Pa.

Headache Cure Nearly Causes Death

Mrs. Emma Banker, of 3118 Judson street, early Sunday morning took an overdose of aromatic spirits of ammonia in an effort to relieve a headache and narrowly escaped death. She was treated by Doctor Benedict at the Samaritan Hospital.

Advertisement for Hudson Cars. Features include: $930,000 Per Week Paid for Hudson Cars; $235,600 in One Day By Individual Buyers; Five Fold Increase an Amazing Thing; Come This Week—Sure Now's the Time to Choose; Six 40 HUDSON $1550; Five New-Style Bodies; GOMERY-SCHWARTZ MOTOR CAR COMPANY; 253 NORTH BROAD STREET, PHILADELPHIA; IMMEDIATE DELIVERY; Catalog on Request.