It is a notable fact that Vale does not open the season this year with Wesleyan, which from time immemorial has been the Ellis' initial opponent. By this year the Middletown collegians decided that the Yale game, particularly this early, did them more harm than good, because they never had a chance to win and had to endure a good deal of buttering just to afford practice for Vale. The Penn coaches are still working on the problem of quarterback. Irwin, Ballou and Merrill are the favorites now, but it is a toss up which one will be the final selection. While last week was spent chiefly in conditioning work, the really heavy prac-tice will start this week, with plenty of scrimmage and tackling drill. The num ber of men out for each position arouses some bitter scrimmages.

No very good line on the make-up of the team can be gained yet. It is all de-pendent upon the men under fire. A man may be whiriwind in signal practice but yet lack the stuff in scrimmage. The scrubs under Coach Harold Gas-

Basketball followers are assured of better sport both in this city and State and New York, as the managers of the six clubs of the Eastern League and the leaders of the clubs of the New York State League have formed a National Commission. The commission scame as the direct result of the New York State League having its players signed by Eastern League magnates and by the jumping of contracts. Both series which began here yesterday releagues signed an agreement yesterday in New York.

After a short discussion it was decided to play a world's series between the world-beaters do not in the feast fear the winners of both leagues, provided the managers and players feel so inclined. The schedule will be arranged by the two presidents, namely, William Jacob Scheffer, of the Eastern League, and A. Stack, of the New York State League. Another agreement was that any club of either league violating any part of the agreement would be fined 100, which will go to the league not at fault. There was some little discussion over the players who have been signed by the Eastern League clubs. New York agreed to let Reading retain Boggio, who formerly played a forward posi-tion on the Gloverville five. Franket, who had been released by a club from New York and signed by Trenton, was allowed to remain with the Bengals. who in return turned back Clinton and Henschel to the New York League, Roy Steele, who jumped to the Camden team, was allowed to remain in the Eastern organization. Sedran, who had signed with Greystock and who was on the reserve list of the Utica five, be allowed until September 26 by commission to decide with which team he will play. Grimstead, of Utica, and signed by Reading, will also be allowed to decide by letter on September 28. Sugarman, who was signed by Greystock, was the cause of a wordy tilt. The Cohoes decided that if Sugerman wanted to enter the Dental School of the University of Pennsylvania they would not waive a claim, but if he did not enter college would demand his services.

ATHLETICS PLAY CLEVELAND TODAY; RIVALS IN DETROIT

Virtually Won-Red Sox Gained One Full Game on Leaders Last Week.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 21.-While the National League race is being waged so flercely in the East the Athletics are doing little more than playing out the schedule. While it is still mathematically possible for the Red Sox to overtake the Mackmen, the games of the American League are not being played on a crayoned blackboard, but on the dlamond, and there the champions are supreme. The sulted in a victory for Connie Mack's team, and despite the fact that the Red Sox took a double-header from Detroit that their present lead will be materially cut down before the close of the season. One week ago the Athletics were leading the Boston club seven and a half games, while today they are leading by six and a half. The loss of one game in the "won" and "lost" column, however, is too small an item to even be considered dangerous, according to the way the White Elephant players feel about the matter.

The American League clubs in the West are dated to meet the same opponents this afternoon that they played yesterday. The Athletics will put their time in today giving the Naps an exhibition of the pastime, while their rivals, the Red Sex, will again endeavor to beat the

If there is any one who thinks that the mighty Bender is going back they should have seen him yesterday working against the Clevelanders. His control, speed and curves were of that same disconcerting type that broke the hearts of thousands of New York followers last fall. It is, therefore, more than reasonable to sup-pose that when the batteries are announced for the first world's series game of 1914 Connie Mack will pass over to the umpire a slip of paper with the names of Bender and Schang written thereon, to oppose James and Gowdy, or Mathewson and Myers.

PERSONAL TOUCHES IN SPORT

Jones piles up a couple hundred bones | chair. by good hard work an pluck, some neighbor's always on the job to wield a hammer on his knob an' talk about his luck. But Smith or Green or Brown or Jones can keep his couple hundred bones an' let the neighbor spout. It's just that way with Whitey Doak. His knockers knock until they choke, but Whitey still holds out.

Bill doesn't always last nine frames, but what's the diff? He wins his games. He's pushed the Cards up top. He pitches sirtignt long enough to let his pals put on the stuff-make runs enough to cop. When Huggins has to derrick Bill a rescue man can take the nill with one swell working lead. However Whitey does the trick, he does it. It's results that stick. It's plants that count, not seed.

Bill's bush league was the O, & P., which busted 'fore on-nine-one-three. He played with Akron's gang. He tried out once a week or so with Cincy's Reds.

They let him go. Then Huggins' siren sank Last year Bill altabation. sank Last year Bill pitched a couple time, but didn't jangle any chimes or even ring the hell. Look at him now, though, Sufferin' ham! He sure makes good that enjarge "One counter." good that epigram: "One never quite can tell."-Copyrighted by A. M. Corrigan

The following contributed bit of poetry was handed in by H. C. B., and is right timely, so here goes:

While the Giants and the Braves are fighting it out. The "A's" have the pennant, of that there's no doubt.

And whoever they meet, we expect something soft.

But there's no telling what those Braves
may pull off:

They're a new combination and look But whoever plays in the series to come, To beat Connie Mack, they will have to "go some." pretty big:

They're off again today in the scramble into the stretch for the National League pennant and a slice of the world's series With only 15 more playing days left and 19 games to play, the Giants face the task of their lives to shake the Brayes from their three-game lead. If Stallings continues to hold his men o the pace they have shown since July 6, the Giants can't afford to lose a single one of the remaining battles. The Braves have 20 more games to play and show no signs of letting up from the .776 guit cut out for themselves when they started cut out for themselves when the top. It is their wonderful dash for the top. It is their wonderful dash for the top. not likely the Braves will slow down to a 500 clip, but, getting down to the "ifs" of the matter, if they should win only ten of their remaining 29 games, the Giants must win 13 out of their remaining 19 to win. Should Boston win 12 of the remaining 20 and lose cight, the Glants have stiff work ahead, as then they must return the winner in 15 of their remaining games, dropping only four. Fourteen vic-Glants must stack up 19.

Here's the answer as to why the Athletics persist in leading the American League: For this season they head the league in club batting, fielding, savrifice hitting, base running and runs.

The annual meeting of the Middle Atlantic Association of the Amateur Ath-letic Union at the Engineers' Club tonight bids fair to be a very mild occazion ed pared with sessions of the past. So far pared with sessions of the past. So far as can be learned there is no opposition in the field for the chief offices. A story from Cleveland, Ohio, indicates that very nearly the entire populace was on hand to witness an amateur baseball game yesterday. The item contained the information that 83,733 persons were in the Natural Ampitheatre stands in Brookside Park. Such tremendous crowd reports have been received from England where occer fans have gathered above the 100. 600 mark but not in this country at a ball game. If the figures are correct it is very likely a new amateur attendance record has been created.

The agreement of the New York State Basketball League and the Eastern League should be about the best bit of news received by the advocates for many days. Surely such a working agreement will be beneficial not only to players but Abe Attell, once peer of them all in the ring, is by no means an old man, as might be supposed. The "foxy one" is folia to try and regain his lost laurels in a battle with Johnny Kilbane, world's eatherweight champion, at Vernon, Cal., October 15. Since he lost the champion ship Attell has never displayed any those wonderful powers that neited him the title, and it does not seem at all pos-sible for him to regain the laurels now, Stranger things, though, have happened.

John McGraw in recent interviews stated that the position of the Giants in the race was due to the jealousy of the opposing managers, who always saved their best pitchers to work against his mon. But in his signed syndicate article he states that the players themselves are responsible for being in second instead of first place. Which goes to show that it all depends on who is writing one's material.
