cides to Use New Scheme for Benefit of Spectators in Game With Gettysburg.

Despite the sultry weather, the varsity candidates for the University of Pennsylvania football team were given a light drill on Franklin Field this morning. The two elevens, without done ning their moleskins and playing in their street clothes, were lined up in differ-ent zones of the gridiron, and instructed by Head Coach Brooke as to how to play the ball on defense. The different signal formations were given by Brooke, and the men were asked various ques-tions pertaining to the plays.

tions pertaining to the plays.

Before the short practice, the players were given a blackboard talk in the training house. Formations were chalked up on the board by Brooke and the players received thorough instruction. Coach Brooke announced that the players will be numbered in the coming game with Gettysburg on Saturday. The mem-bers of the visiting eleven will also wear numerals upon their backs. It has been the opinion of coaches, newspapermen and the geenral public that the players on the teams could not otherwise be intelligently followed while in action. The first trial of using numbers occurred last year in the Indian-Dartmouth game in New York. Reports stated that the different plays and the men could be fol-lowed easily during the contest. At Franklin Field on Saturday the players will wear numbers in a prominent players will wear numbers in a prominent place. The signal man will flash the num-ber to the scoreboard, there to be recorded in plain view of the spectators. With but four days remaining before the first game is played by the Red and Blue, a probable line-up of the cieven is not out of place. To be sure, a change is likely to be made, due to an accident or improvement shown by a second varor improvement shown by a second varsity man. As it looks at the present Captain Journeay will be found at the plyot position when the referee's whistle

For the past week Journeay has improved in passing back the pigskin and getting down the field. Mike Dorizas, the Greek athlete, is almost sure of a position at guard. His running mate looks at the present to be Russell. Both men are improving and should come along well by the middle of the senson. At the tackles it is a toss-up between Pepper, Witherow and Harris. At the ends Scel-bach and Koons appear to have first choice, with Vreeland and Murdock fightrear-old cloice, with Vreeiand and Murdock ught-ing hard. Mike Avery, who returned to-day, may get in at end during part of Norrise the game. "Doe" Irwin appears to be the likely choice for quarterback. Hallon Holly-Francis.

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 21.—Play started today in the women's tennis championship tournament for Philadel-phia and district honors on the courts of the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, with many of the leading racket wellders in line for the title in singles, doubles and mixed doubles. Ideal weather conditions favored the players in the opening competitions, and many exciting matches re-nilted.

Forty-four players, a new high record in number of entries, started play this afternoon in the preliminary and first rounds. The draw was rather top heavy, with such stara as Miss Sarah Myers.

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 21.—About 26 snuries have been received for the first annual Junior Championship Tournament given by the Golf Association of Philadelphis. The qualifying round of 18 holes was started this morning over the east course of the Merion Cricket Club, Haver ford, and this round can be played at any time today. Match play rounds will follow at 2 p. m., on following days. H. B. Swope, Merchantville, is low scorer among the early returns, with a card of 83; D. Rhoads, Springhaven, is next with 84, closely followed by M. M. Jack, Merion, with 85.

Jack. Merion, with 85.

Two of the best golfers in Philadelphia are numbered among the juniors entered in this tuornament. They are C. R. Webster, Jr., and L. M. Washburn, Merion. A fair idea of their golfing prowess can be gathered from the fact that they have been chosen for the team t orepresent. Pennsylvania in the Legist Cin. sent Pennsylvania in the Lesley Cup matches at Baltussol netx week. Great interest is being taken in the tournament, which fact is exemplified by the large number of entries. Considering the fact that this is purely local, 30 entries is a very good showing. In the Western Golf Association's annual junior tournament, for which entries are received from all parts of the West, only 70 odd were received. This comparison speaks very well for the interest taken in golf by the local juniors. Prizes will be given to the winner and rdunner up of the tournament, and a medal is up of the tournament, and a medal is offered for the best score in today's quali-fying round.

George Sayres, the Merion professional, has offered two additional prizes for to-day's round, one prize for the best score on the first nine holes, and th eother prize for the best score on the last nine.

GRIDIRON NEWS GLEANED FROM LEADING COLLEGE CAMPS

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL

The Carlisle Indians ushered in the 1914 football season on Saturday in their usual vigorous manner when they heat Albright College by the score of 20 to 0. After having had nearly two weeks of cool, bracing weather for their preliminary practice they had to endure a hot, sultry afternoon for their first game, conditionts which were most unsatisfactory for good football. The Indians' score was five points less than they made against this barne team last year, but the Redmen fumbled away an opportunity for another sidered, together with the statement that the visitors had as much weight as the are no weaker than they were last year

The coming week will see the first foot-all games by all the members of the Big Six." All look to have fairly easy opponents for the first games, though Cornell men are living in some trepidation over the outcome of Saturday's gam-with the University of Pittsburgh. Cornell will have a warming-up for this con-test by playing Ursinus on Wednesday, their only mid-week game of the 1914 seatheir or son. Last year Pittsburgh beat Cornell by the score of 29-7, this game being the sixth on the Cornell schedule. A year ago Cornell opened with Ursinus and heat the men from College-ville. Pa., by the score of 41-9, and there is apparently no reason why Cor pell shouldn't score a similarly east victory this year. But the game with Pittsburgh threatens to be a contest of ther character. Cornell blames most Pittsburgh's 20 points last year in the prowess of ex-Captain Wagner a man who was fit for an end posi-tion on any all-American team. Pittsburgh has just as good a team this year. sithough Cornell ought to be even stronger for this initial game than in 1913. Pittsburgh is still being conched by Joe Duff, the old Princeton and sil-American guard, and his friends say he has lost none of his cunning. Likehe has lost none of his cunning. Law-wise Pittsburgh has the advantage of an early start, and although Cornell has done more preliminary work this year than usual, the Ithacans will find Pittaburgh a tough proposition.

If last year's score could be taken as criterion the game between Yale and Maine should be a near championship affair, because the Maine cleven last year had the distinction of holding Yale to a 0-0 tie. But it should be said that Yale played an in and out game last fall and the brand of football displayed against Maine indicated a slump more than unusual strength on Maine's part. The Elis are never humiliated at the small college twice in sucwill strive for a decisive victory at

It is a notable fact that Yale does not open the season this year with Wesleyan, which from time immemorial has been the Ells' initial opponent. Bu this year the Middletown collegians decided that the Vale game, particularly this early, did them more harm than good, because they their more harm than good, secause they never had a chance to win and had to endure a good deal of battering just to afford practice for Vale. Some other small colleges have awakened to this truth, and all the big universities have had more difficulty this year in scheduling minor colleges of sufficient strength for the preliminary game.

Harvard, Princeton, Dartmouth and

Pennsylvania all have what ought to be easy games. Harvard plays Bates, a team which the Crimson beat last year rather easily by the score of 14 to 9. Inrather easily by the score of it to 0. In-asmuch as Harward has a veteran team the chances are that the Crimson can roll up a score of whatever magnitude it desires, though Bates has been known to The Rutgers eleven, which had the honor of drawing first blood on the Prince-ton Tigers last year, when the score was It to 3 in Princeton's favor, place

Darimouth found the Massachusetts as end candidates and vice versa. Dr. Carl Williams pronounces to be one of the best in the country,

The game on Franklin Field will be the first of the season, not only for Pennsylvania, but for Gettysburg as well. Last year Penn beat the men from the famous battlefield by the score of 51 to 6. There will be a goodly number of experiments in the Quaker eleven this year, and for that reason it need not be expected that Saturday's score will he expected that Saturday's score will equal the 1913 figures. Gettysburg has the same coach as last year, the man in charge being Mauthe, the old Penn State fullback. If Mauthe has the material and can develop it to play as well he played himself -actysburg would much feared, for Mauthe was one of best fullbacks that ever stepped on

There will be a lot of speculation all this week to learn what men Head Coach Brooke will pick for his initial line-up. Probably Brooke hinself won't know un-til the day before the game. The sifting process is still going on, and the merits and demerits of every player are being carefully analyzed, not only by Brooke, but by his assistants. But the chances are that the first eleven men to line up are that the first eleven men to line up for Pennsylvania will be last year'd There are some new men who in practice promise to be much better than the 1913 regulars, but for the most part they will not get into the fray until the game is well under way.

The Quaker coaches have reason to feel plished more than any one thought pos-sible in so short a time. Not only have they taught the rudiments of the game fairly well to a big squad of candidates. but they have carefully studied and tested the merits of all the men and sorted them out until they have gotten all the can-didates working for the positions for which they seem best fitted.

From tackle to tackle Pennsylvania has available a line which will average close to 200 pounds per man. As far as weight and strength are concerned, the men ferred to are about all that could be de-sired. But these qualifications are only about one-half of what will be required. In addition to weight and strength, they must display speed and football sense Some of the men who how look big enough and strong enough to push a house over may have to be discarded yet for men weighing 30 or 40 pounds less because modern football requires men of epeed and cleverness. About all that can be said of most of this squad of linemer is that they are making progress. It is impossible to be much more specific now. An odd situation exists as far as the ends and backs are concerned. The qual-lities necessary to play on the ends or in the backfield are much the same. Even the backfield are much the same. Ever since the practice opened the coaches have been in doubt concerning some of the men, whether they would be better on the ends or in the back field. At any time they might be shifted back and forth, and it is to be hoped that when these shifts are made they will be made with the same intaition or luck as when Roy Mercer first came out for football. When he arrived the coaches resolved to make an end out of him, but a train of make an end out of him, but a train of make an end out of him, but a train of back field injuries made it necessary to put him in the back field. He almost instantly became a star in his new position whom was George Foster Sanford, the and by this accidental substitution a Dart-mouth has the same coach this year, team, was one of the best freshman Frank Cavanaugh, the old end, a man backs he had ever seen. Matthews weighs about 190 pounds, but he to be the fastest man for his weight on the squad.

The Penn coaches are still working on the problem of quarterback. Irwin, Ballou and Merrill are the favorites now, but it is a toss up which one will be the final selection. The coaches are giving Irwin every chance in the world to make good. Ballou has had the most experience of the three and may develop into the best man when the critical games come.

With the return today of Avery and Bolger, last year's halfbacks, the list of varsity candidates at Pennsylvania is completed. These men will be a strong addi-tion to the squad. Avery, while a little inconsistent last year, showed great stuff at times. With the advantage of his year of experience he should be more dependable this year. BETTER BASKETBALL SPORT IS PROMISED DURING THE SEASON

Merchantville Golfer Leads Working Agreement Between Eastern League and New York State Organizations Will Help.

> Basketball followers are assured of better sport both in this city and State and New York, as the managers of the six clubs of the Eastern League and the leaders of the clubs of the New York State League have formed a National Commission. The commission came as the direct result of the New York State League having its players algned by Eastern League magnates and by the jumping of contracts. Both leagues signed an agreement yesterday in New York.

After a short discussion it was decided to play a world's series between the winners of both leagues, provided the managers and players feel so inelined. The schedule will be arranged by the two presidents, namely, William Jacob Scheffer, of the Eastern League, and A. Stack, of the New York State League. Another agreement was that any club of either league violating any part of the agreement would be fined $100, which will go to the league not at fault.

There was some little discussion over the players who have been signed by the Eastern League clubs. New York the Eastern League clubs. New York agreed to let Reading retain Bogglo, who formerly played a forward position on the Gloverville five. Frankel, who had been released by a club from New York and signed by Trenton, was allowed to remain with the Bengals, who in return turned back Clinton and Henschel to the New York League. Henschel to the New York League. Roy Steele, who jumped to the Camden team, was allowed to remain in the Eastern organization. Sedran, who had signed with Greystock and who was on signed with Greystock and who was on the reserve list of the Utica five, will be allowed until September 25 by the commission to decide with which team he will play. Grimstead, of Utica, and signed by Reading, will also be allowed to decide by letter on September 25. Sugerman, who was signed by Grey-stock, was the cause of a wordy tilt. The Cohoes decided that if Sugerman wanted to enter the Dental School of wanted to enter the Dental School of turning up about 1800 revolutions a min-the University of Pennsylvania they would not waive a claim, but if he did not enter college would demand his new boat is to be built this winter and will he ready for reading early reverse.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC OFFICIALS ARE IN

Workout Details This Afternoon and Will Elect Officers at the Evening Session at Engineers' Club.

ALL-DAY SESSION

Middle Atlantic Association Amateur Athletic Union officials have been in session all this afternoon, and, save for a respite at 7 o'clock when dinner will be enjoyed, will have been occupied with matters of importance up until mid-night tonight. The annual meeting is night tonight. The annual meeting is being held at the Engineers' Club, 1317 Spruce street, and does not bid fair to be as lively as some other sessions.

It is understood there will be no opposition to President George F. Pawling, nor to Herman Meyer, secretary-treasurer; to Frederick E. Bauer, vice president, or to Peter P. Carney, official handicapper, but there is likely to be a change in the names on the Registration Committee.

Committee.

Peter P. Carney, official handicapper, had the following to say when approached on the subject of prosperity in the district this year: "The handicapping this year has been less than in preceding years amounting. ping this year has been less than in preceding years, amounting to less than $500. There is one point that I will speak of at the annual session today, and that is the matter of non-payment of fees for handicapping purposes. I have claims against promoting organizations in this district arrounting to about $150. in this district amounting to about $150."

It is very likely a swimming handle-capper will be an office specially created for some one. Fred A. Cady is the man for the position, in the opinion of followers of that sport.

TO BUILD NEW SPEED BOAT

Owner of Ruined Arvis Deep Plans Another Craft.

NEW YORK, Sept. It —count Casimir Mankowski, whose motor yacht Ankle Deep was scriously damaged by fire while racing for the Gold Challenge Cup, is to have another high speed boat, which he hopes will attain a speed locat, which he hopes will attain a speed of 60 miles an hour. The old hull was injured too much to be repaired, but the motors may be rebuilt. It is probable, though, that the Count will sell the old motors and have two new Sterling motors installed in his new boat. in his new boat.

It will be about 28 feet long, and will be driven by two motors of high power, will be ready for racing early next spring.

A story from Cleveland, Ohio, indicates

When Smith or Green or Brown or | than likely to again fill the handicapper's Jones piles up a couple hundred bones chair, by good hard work an' pluck, some neighbor's always on the job to wield a hammer on his knob an' talk about his luck. But Smith or Green or Brown or Jones can keep his couple hundred bones an' let the neighbor spout. It's just that way with Whitey Doak. His knockers knock until they choke, but Whitey still holds out. Bill doesn't always last nine frames, but what's the diff? He wins his games. He's pushed the Cards up top. He pitches sirtight long enough to let his pals put on the stuff—make runs enough to cop. When Huggins has to derrick Bill a rescue man can take the hill with one swell working lead. However Whitey does the trick, he does it. It's results that stick. It's plants that count, not seed.

Bill's bush league was the O. & P., which busted 'fore on-nine-one-three. He played with Akron's gang. He tried out once a week or so with Cincy's Reds. They let him go. Then Huggins' siren sank. Last year Bill pitched a couple time, but didn't jangle any chimes or even ring the bell. Look at him now, though. Sufferin' ham! He sure makes good that epigram: "One never quite can tell."-Copyrighted by A. M. Corrigan.

The following contributed bit of poetry as handed in by H. C. B., and is right timely, so here goes:

But whoever plays in the series to come.
To beat Connie Mack, they will have to "go some."

They're off again today in the scramble into the stretch for the National League pennant and a slice of the world's series swag. With only 15 more playing days left and 19 games to play, the Giants face the task of their lives to shake the Braves from their three-game lead. Stallings continues to hold his men the pace they have shown since July 6. the Giants can't afford to lose a single one of the remaining battles. The Braves have 20 more games to play and show no signs of letting up from the .776 gait cut out for themselves when they started their wonderful dash for the top. It is not likely the Braves will slow down to a .500 clip, but, getting down to the "ifs" of the matter, if they should win only ten of their remaining 20 games, Giants must win 13 out of their remaining 19 to win. Should Boston win 12 of the remaining 20 and lose eight, the Giants have stiff work ahead, as then they must return the winner in 15 of their remaining games, dropping only four. Fourteen vitories for the Braves will mean that the Giants must stack up 19.
