This is the situation which is holding a crowd of spectators at Twelfth street and the completion of a strotch of electrified railroad. The company believes that it owns the land upon which the poles are to be erected, and Mrs. Pellicoff believes that her husband owns a particular piece of land upon which the company has designs. Mrs. Pellicoff is sitting in the hole; she has had her lunch and says that she is looking forward to enjoying a nice chicken supper tonight. Of course it is rather awkward, in having the food brought out to her, but then it isn't so bad when you consider what would happen if she got out. Employes of the railroad say that Mrs. Pellicoff can sit there, if she feels that way about it, until the courts have decided who owns the land. They have tried every possible means to dislodge her and are now resigned to a judicial settlement of the affair.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 .- The Admin-LAWYER MUST TELL ABOUT istration's emergency war tax bill was introduced in the House today by Representative Underwood, chairman of the District Attorney to Go Deeper Into Ways and Means Committee.

The bill is a close imitation of the Spanish war tax of 1898 except for the tax on beer, wines and gasoline. The stamp tax on checks is not included in the present bill. The telephone and telegraph companies are to keep account of their taxable messages and remit for them.

The principal taxes will be levied on beer, domestic sweet wines and dry wines; gasoline and naphtha and other products used in motors. Amusements will be taxed in cities of more than 5000 where theatres will be taxed $160. This includes moving picture houses,

The bill has a provision whereby retail cigar dealers will be taxed $4.80.

Bonds of the United States or those of any State, county or town are exempt from taxation. Bonds and stocks of cooperative building and loan associations with a capital stock of not more than $10,000, and building and loan associations making loans only to shareholders are exempt. The taxes under the so-called 'stamp tax' section of the bill, borrowed largely from the Spanish war bill, are: Bonds, 5 cents for each $100 or fraction; stock certificates, 5 cents per $100; bills of sale on stock and bond transfers, 2 cents. Bill of sale of merchandise, 1 cent for each $100 or fraction. Promissory notes, the Juvenile Court.

Making Too Much Noise. Arthur Hotaling, 25 years old, 2227 North Franklin street, was held under $2000 bail for court by Magistrate Emely, at the Park and Lehigh avenues station, this morning. He was accused of complicity in trying to break open a sate in the office of the Rising Sun Ice and Coal Company, 1016 Dauphin street, yesterday.

Hotaling was arrested by Policeman Nickels, of the Park and Lehigh avenues station, who, attracted by a noise in the office of the company, heard voices inside. A peep through a break in the shutters convinced him that there were two men in the office who had no business there. Drawing his revolver, Nickels darted around to the rear of the building. Hearing footsteps, the two men made a dash to escape through the rear door, whereupon Nickels fired, hitting Hotaling in the elbow and bringing him to, a stop. The other man, who, Hotaling says, is Clar-ence Mutchler, a former fireman, succeed-ed in making his escape. His arrest, however, is expected, After investigation of the company's premises this morning, policemen found, in an adjoining stable, a check protectograph valued at $40, and a small sum of money which the burgiars, in their flight, whose name was mentioned in the latest ball scandal, involving Magistrate "Joe" Call's office, will be invited by District Attorney Rotan to tell anything he may know of the alleged forging of the name of Isaac Friedman, of 1120 Girard eft behind.

Mrs. John Hotaling, the prisoner's mother, said that her son was undoubtedly influenced in attempting the robbery by a man named Lawrence. This man, she asterted, was well known to the police. "My son worked," said Mrs. Hotaling, "whenever he could obtain em-ployment. He went out with me on Saturday night to see about a position. He left me finally and met Lawrence, who I know coaxed him into entering the oulding. I am glad that he is alive for understand the policeman who arrested him fired five shots although the shooting was all unnecessary."
