PROGRESSIVES MEET FOR NOMINATIONS TO DELAWARE'S TICKET

State-wide Prohibition and Modified Single Tax System Advocated as Planks in Platform.

DOVER, Del., Sept. 22,-Eighty-five delegates answered to the rollcall in the State Progressive Convention, which met here teday. The delegates will nominate candidates for Congress, State Treasurer and State Auditor. Dr. George Edward Reed, of Wilmington, former president of Dick-inson College, has the support of New Castle County delegates for the Congressional nomination.
Progressives said there would be

Progressives said there would be no contest, and each nomination would be made by acclamation.

A State-wide prohibition and a modified seingle tax system are advocated as planks in the platform. The latter plank was drafted by Francis I. du Pont, of the du Pont family of powder makers, of Wilmington. The Progressives also favor a suffrage plank, which has been drafted and may be incorpated into the drafted and may be incorpated into the platform. Suffragiats falled to persuade Republicans and Democrats to support and 1907 respectively. Republicans and Delinetations and equal franchise in the party platforms.
This is also the first time that any party has come out openly for State-wide prohibition, and shows that the Progressives are seeking the temperance votes, with both the Democrats and Republicans nominating "wet" Legislative andidates.

WARM FIGHT FOR SHERIFF

Four-Cornered Contest Among Cam den Republicans Today.

A four-cornered fight for the Republi-esn nomination for Sheriff is arousing the principal interest in the primary election in Camden today. Joshua C. Haines, a former Councilman, who has the backing of the Republican organization and H. S. Stovel, formerly prose entor, are making the strongest fight. Other candidates are Henry H. Marter and Williard T. Gibbs.

and Williard T. Gloos.

John T. Kates and Garfield Pancoast are Assemblymen seeking renomination, they will probably secure two of the places on the ticket and will have as their running mate either John H. Fort or Charles A. Wolverton. Dean Pressey a also seeking an Assemblyman pomina-

There are 16 candidates for the five Excise Commissioners, among whom are the present members of the board. E. J. Alf and Howard Lee will probably be elected with the other three uncertain. On the Democratic ticket there is little contest for any of the places except for these on the County Excise Committee. With the support of the Andrew Jack-son Club there is a strong movement to oust Joseph E. Nowrey from control, by a refusal to support his candidates. On the Bull Moose ticket there is no epposition of any sort, as is the case with the Socialists. The latter are nominat-ing for all offices except Congressman. The vote this morning was light, but inasmuch as the polls are open until 9 o'cleck, it is expected to jump at the

CITY RHODES SCHOLAR TO LEAVE FOR OXFORD

Morrison C. Boyd to Continue His Studies Abroad for Three Years. Morrison C. Boyd, Philadelphia's sole Rhodes scholar, will sail from New York tomorrow to take up his studies at Ox-ford University. In New York Boyd will Join a party of 30 other Rhodes scholars. Boyd will not return to his native city for three years, as during his vacations he intends to travel through Europe. He will devote his time in Oxford to a study of the classics, specializing in Latin and Greek. He will also study music. His ambition is to be an organist as well as a scholar. After graduation from Ox-ford he will teach Latin and Greek.

Mr. Boyd is a product of Philadelphia's school system. He was educated in the Philadelphia public schools and graduated from the Central High School in 1909. He won a city scholarship and entered the University of Pennsylvania. He received his bachelor of arts degree from the University in 1913. He not only grad-uated with honors, but was awarded a Harrison scholarship in the Graduate School. He received his master's degree last June. Boyd won the Latin and Greek prizes for the sophomore, junior and se-

As an undergraduate he took an active interest in the literary and dramatic so-cieties. He was the head of the Philomathean Society in his senior year. He was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Fraternity. Boyd is also well known in the local music circles and has given number of organ recitals. He is the third Pennsylvanian to win a Rhodes scholarship. The other two men were Thomas E. Robbins and Richard Schellens, who won the prize in 1904

ISAAC H. CLOTHIER STRONGLY INDORSES BRUMBAUGH

His Name With Those of Other Independents Added to List.

Brumbaugh's Citizen Committee Is daily reporting strong additions to their number. Notable among those who yesterday joined the committee was Issac H. Clothier. He expressed himself as op-posed to the re-election of Senator Penrose, preferring Palmer in the senatorial contest. Other new members of the committee are Bayard Henry, of Germantown: Theodore C. Search, president of the Pennsylvania Museum and School for Industrial Art: Andrew P. Maloney, president of the Hygeia Ice and Cold Company; Dr. Eugene S. Hay, of Wyoming, Pa.; George H. Lysle, Mayor of Mc-Keesport, Pa.; Joseph B. McCall, presi-dent of the Philadelphia Electric Company; Dr. Paul Volgt, of 529 West Olney avenue, and J. A. Ross, of 2917 North Broad street.

The committee yesterday issued a statement which strongly set forth their confidence in Doctor Brumbaugh to give an unspotted administration of the Highway Bureau, to use all his power for the passage of a local option bill and laws for the betterment of workers, and to bring about more equitable taxation.

RHEIMS ARCHBISHOP WEEPS AS HE VIEWS SACRED RUINS

Avers God's Vengeance Will Be Terrible for Sacrilege.

PARIS, Sept. 22. In compliance with a request from Pope Benedict XV. Cardinal Lucon, the arch-bishop of Rheims, today sent to the Vatlcan a report on the bombardment of Racims by the Germans and the damage inflicted upon the famous old Cathedral of Notre Dame. Cardinal Lucon had just returned from Rome, where he had been attending the conclave which elected Pope Benedict XV to the chair of St.

Standing in the smoke-filled interior of the cathedral, with tears streaming down his cheeks, Cardinal Lucon said: "The barbarians have shelled and The barbarians have shelled and burned France's most glorious cathedral. This is a worthy pendant to the destruc-tion of Louvain. Any ancient home of Christianity seems to excite German fury. God's vengeance on these sacri-ligious barbarians will be terrible."

GOOD HEAVENS!

An elderly gentleman living in the north of England was passionately fond of parrots, says London Ideas.

Having both time and money at his disposal he organized a parrot show, a five-pound note to be given to the owner of the bird which on the most auspicious day said the most appropriate thing. The show day arrived. All sorts and conditions of parrots were arriving. Just at the last moment a beautiful gray bird was brought in. Gazing around in amazement, it gave a shrill whistle and exclaimed:
"Good heavens, what a thundering let of parrots!"

Needless to say, its owner got the coveted five-pound note.

IMPORTANT ADVANCE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Wanamaker Stores of Philadelphia and New York have acquired more than $100,000 worth of famous BIGELOW RUGS.

One-half of this great quantity is now being unloaded off the freight cars in this city; some of the rugs are already opened up in our stock room.

The purchase includes all the famous BIGELOW brands in all sizes.

The rugs will be put on sale THURSDAY morning, September 24th, in the Rug Store, on the Fourth Floor, Market.

The prices throughout the sale will be EXACTLY 25 PER CENT. LESS than the standard prices of BIGELOW RUGS known all over America.

It is the year's great event in domestic rugs and it is the year's great opportunity for all householders of Philadelphia and vicinity.
