FARMERS' MARKET IN SIGHT AT 69TH STREET TERMINAL

Stalls to Be Let to Producers Only and Saving in Price Promised.

Pricos to the West Philadelphia consumer of farm products may be considerably reduced by the opening of a farmers' market in the 69th street terminal. According to plans announced by the Philadelphia and Western Railway Company and the Lehigh Valley Transit Company, the market will be in operation before Thanksgiving.

By renting stalls at a nominal figure to producers only, the traction officials hope to encourage a large number of farmers from Montgomery, Bucks and other ter company and members of the Internearby counties to sell their fruit, vegetastate Commerce Commission these yeables and poultry direct to the consumer. The middleman will be eliminated and his sets have been compelled to lie ldle, profits divided between the producer and

The farmers expect to charge slightly higher prices than would be paid for commission houses, as the expense of put-ting up their products for the retail trade and maintaining the stall must be met, but they hope to have the consumer reap build a spur line to bring freight and passengers into Portland from interlor the larger part of the direct sale saving. Tutty was walking along Broadway in Brooklyn, boasting about having a big gun in his possession. Edward McGuin, who is said to have been threatened with the gun, told Policemen Finn and Nick about it. They reported to Detective George Patten, who recognized Tutty and walked up to him. "Let's see that gun," said Patten.

"Surrat thing you know," answered Tutty, pulling out the revolver and firing point blank at Patten. He missed. Then he started to run, firing as he went. The officers whipped out their revolvers and shot at Tutty, who reloaded his revolver and continued to fire.

and continued to free Finally one of the officer's bullets struck Tutty and he dropped dead. Twenty-six shots were exchanged, Tutty firing 12 and the officers 14.

Many in the throngs upon the street thought that firing was actually going en. But it was only the explosion of sewer gases. The missiles were pieces of asplialt pavement and manhole covers

Eight persons were struck and injured. Forty covers were blown up, Hundreds of windows were shattered. There was alarm among the patients of two hospitals as huge pieces of steel crashed through the panes. A street car was hit by a manhole cover and every window broken. Terminal arrangements for the new line have been completed with the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Com-Philadelphia and Reading Ratiway Com-pany. The vessels will load and dis-charge cargoes at Pler A, Port Rich-mond. The pioneer vessel of the new line will reach here about September 30. One week after the Harry Luckenbach sails the steamship Carolyn is expected to reach here with a cargo of canned goods, wines and general merchandise from Pacific Coast ports. The new line intends to operate a monthly service. It is expected that the run between this port and the Pacific will take about 19 days. The new service will augment the inward service recently established by the American-Hawalian Line, which is now conducting a passenger and freight serv-ice from San Francisco to Philadelphia.

IMPORTANT ADVANCE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Wanamaker Stores of Philadelphia and New York have acquired more than $100,000 worth of famous BIGELOW RUGS.

One-half of this great quantity is now being unloaded off the freight cars in this city; some of the rugs are already opened up in our stock room.

The purchase includes all the famous BIGELOW brands in all sizes.

The rugs will be put on sale THURSDAY morning, September 24th, in the Rug Store, on the Fourth Floor, Market.

The prices throughout the sale will be EXACTLY 25 PER CENT. LESS than the standard prices of BIGELOW RUGS known all over America.

It is the year's great event in domestic rugs and it is the year's great opportunity for all householders of Philadelphia and vicinity.
