REVOLT AGAINST VAN VALKENBURG AND FLINN SPREADS

Bossism in Washington Party Which Dictated Lewis Withdrawal Swings Independents to Brumbaugh.

Opposition to the Flinn-Van Valkenburg "bossism" in the Washington party. particularly to the arrangement whereby William Draper Lewis was prevalled upon to withdraw from the Gubernatorial race in favor of Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate, continues to grow through the city and

The 25th Ward Washington Party Committee in this city, meeting at 2823 Frankford avenue, last night denounced the withdrawal of Mr. Lewis, repudlated the Washington party and reorganized itself into the Progressive Republican League, Following this action Dr. Martin G. Brombaugh was indorsed as their candidate for Governor.

In Montgomery County C. Tyzon Kratz, the only delegate to the Anti-saloon League Convention at Harrisburg last week who openty opposed the indorse-gent of Mr. McCormick by the convention, is urging his political friends to re-voit against the leadership of Flinn and Van Valkenburg. In an open letter yesterday to William Flinn, E. A. Van Valkenburg, Gifford Plnchot and Wil-liam Draper Lewis, Mr. Kratz charges them with being the worst enemies Colonel Roosevelt has in Pennsylvania. Mr. Kratz, who in 1912, as a delegate Mr. Kraiz, who in 1912, as a delegate to the Chicago Republican Convention, battled for Roosevelt, declared that Colonel Roosevelt will come into Pennsylvania this fall to fly in the face of 90 per cent, of his own friends in order to support a Democratic candidate for Governor. Mr. Kraiz also speaks in high praise of Dr. Brumbaugh.

Gevernor. Mr. Kratz also speaks in high praise of Dr. Brumbaugh.
In the Western end of the State prominent Washington party men are fast rallying to the support of R. R. Quay who last week openly denounced the deals of the Flinn-Van Valkenburg "machine." Charles Kerler, editor of the Blairsville (Pa.) Courier, one of the main Progressive standings for Roosevelt in 1912 in a two-standing for Roosevelt in 1912 in a twostandbys for Roosevelt in 1912, in a two column editorial yesterday urges Progressives to desert the Washington party sees" and vote the Republican ticket.

H. D. W. English, of Pittsburgh, one of the State leaders in 1912, who returned from Europe Sunday, is expected to take a stand with Mr. Quay within a day or

DR. BRUMBAUGH AT RENOVO

Parade Escorts Him to Y. M. C. A. Building for Address.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 22.—Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh. Republican candidate for dovernor, was given a cordial welcome at Renove this morning. He arrived early and was met at the station by a reception mittee of leading citizens, who escorted bim about the city. He visited the the students. Following his usual cus-tom, he did not mention politics, but spoke along educational lines. From it to 12 a public reception was held in the pariors of the Hotel Clinton, where he shook hands with several hundred people noon a parade was formed at the band, the gubernatorial candidate was exercised to the Y. M. C. A. Building, where he spoke to a large crowd. He discussed good roads and other State issues. 1:30 he left for Lock Haven, where he

HEAVY VOTE IN MERCER

Twelve Candidates for Sheriff, of Whom Ten Are Republicans.

TRENTON, Sept. 22.—The vote in to-day's primaries is heavy, because of the great interest in the various contests, particularly that for Sheriff, in which there are ten candidates on the Republi-can side and two on the Democratic. The sary indications rought to can side and two on the Democratic. The early indications point to the nomination of Page or Fleming by the Republicans. Fleming is the organization candidate, but is not as popular as Page or as some of the other Republican candidates. Hervey S. Moore, a Republican Assemblyman, was polling a good vote early, but it is scarcely expected that he can win the nomination.

The committee yesterday issued a state-ment which strongly set forth their confidence in Doctor Brumbaugh to give an unspotted administration of the Highway Bureau, to use all his power for the passage of a local option bill and laws for the betterment of workers, and to bring about more equitable taxation.

PALMER AND M'CORMICK IN SCHUYLKILL COUNTY

Large Audiences Hear Democratic Candidates in Anthracite Region. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 22.-Enthuslastic receptions were given the Demo-cratic State candidates, who swept through Schuyikili County today. Chaperoned by Congressman R. E. Lee, who came home from Washington for the purpose, and the county executive offcials, the itinerary was taken up at Ashland, speeches being made at that town. Girardville and Shenandoah during the morning hours. At noon the State can-didates addressed a large assemblage of miners and working people in general at Mahanoy City. This afternoon was occupied with mass meetings at Frackville, St. Clair, Schuyl-kill Haven, Orwigsburg and Minersville, The Schuylkill trip will conclude at Pottsville tonight with a mass-meeting at the Academy of Music, which will open what will prove one of the hottest campaigns of years.

Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer and Vance McCormick will discuss State issues. Judge H. O. Bechtel, president of the Schuylkill County Courts, will preside.

ITALIAN VOTERS ENLISTED TO END AGAINST PENROSE

League Adopts Resolution to Oppose His Re-election.

Despite the threats of the Republican Organization leaders of South Philadel phia to break up a meeting of the Italian Political League, which was held last night at 721 Carpenter street, several hundred Italians attended the meeting and adopted a resolution, unanimously pledg-ing themselves to work and fight to the end against the re-election of Senator Joseph Persichetti, chairman of league, presided over the meeting and urgently pleaded for the elimination of Penroseism and Vareism. Upon his suggestion a resolution was carried to the effect that no parties be indorsed until the next meeting, which will take place

M. Marello urged that voters unite in full force for good government. Other speakers were Joseph Tumolill, Thomas S. Russo and Henry dl Berarbini.

WARM FIGHT FOR SHERIFF

Four-Cornered Contest Among Camden Republicans Today.

A four-cornered fight for the Republican nomination for Sheriff is arousing the principal interest in the primary election in Camden today, Joshua C. Haines, a former Councilman, who has the backing of the Republican organization, and H. S. Stovel, formerly proseouter, are making the strongest fight. Other candidates are Henry H. Marter and Willard T. Gibbs

John T. Kates and Garfield Pancoast are Assemblymen seeking renomination. They will probably secupre two of the places on the ticket and will have as their running mate either John H. Fort or Charles A. Wolverton. Dean Pressey is also seeking an Assemblyman nomination.

There are 16 candidates for the five Excise Commissioners, among whom are the present members of the board. E. J. Alf and Howard Lee will probably be elected, with the other three uncertain On the Democratic ticket there is little contest for any of the places except for those on the County Excise Committee. With the support of the Andrew Jackson Club there is a strong movement to oust Joseph E. Nowrey from control, by a refusal to support his candidates.

On the Bull Moose ticket there is no opposition of any sort, as is the case with he Socialists. The latter are nominat-ng for all offices except Congressman. The vote this morning was light, but nasmuch as the polis are open until 9 o'clock, it is expected to jump at the close of the working hours.

CARRIES WILSON TO VOTE IN PRINCETON

President Spent But a Bare Hour at His Former Home. Start Back Is Made Early This Afternoon.

President Wilson passed through Philadelphia at 11:15 this morning on his way to Princeton to vote in the New Jersey primaries today. His private car, attached to the 8 o'clock express from Washington, was a sort of "primaries special." Senator William Hughes, of Paterson; Secretary Tumulty and four other New Jersey residents attached to the White House were in the car. Most of them left at Trenton on their way to their homes to vote,

The trip was a brief one for the President. His car was dropped off at Princeton Junction and reached Prince ton at 12:15. The schedule gave him hardly more than an hour to cast his ballot and see his friends. The start back to Washington was made at 1:55.

:55. The President would not even take time to have luncheon in Princeton. It was served in his car on the return trip.

The journey from Washington was a busy one for the President, Tomorrow he will meet a delegation of Colorado coal operators and strikers to discuss the labor situation there. He was work-ing all morning with Secretary Tumulty on papers relating to the case.

Through Secretary Tumulty, the President pleaded business when asked to discuss the New Jerzey situation and the new phases of the campaign in Penusylvania. It was said that the President's party was optimistic as to the chances of the Administration's candidates in the New Jersey primary fight today.

Talk in the "Primaries Special" dwelt on the report tint he President was pleased with the proposed cut in the rivers and harbors bill. It was said he showed its return to the committee as viewed its return to the committee as gratifying, in view of the decime in revenue in this country arising from the Enopean situation. It was reported that the President would vote for Representative Allen B. Walsh for the Democratic nomination for Rep-resentative. Walsh was expected to meet the President's special at Princeton Junction to talk over the local candidates qualifications with the President. Senator William Hughes was said to be optimistic of a victory for Congressman Eugene H. Kinkead in his fight for the nomination for Sheriff of Hudson County against John H. Crosby, supported by the Wittpenn forces, who are regarded as unfriendly to the Administration, Secfrom Princeton to cast his vote for Kinkead.

Prof. Stockton Axon, the President's brother-in-law, was with the party going home to vote today. He voted in Princeton with the President, Warren Johnson, secretary to Secretary Tumulty. dropped off at Trenton to cast his ballot and Charles Dwemton, the President's stenographer, got off with him to vote for the first time. He is the youngest stenographer ever employed at the White President Wilson will reach Washington

PRESIDENT CASTS HIS VOTE

His Arrival at Princeton Unmarked by Demonstration

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 22.—President Wilson cast his ballot in the New Jersey primaries at Princeton today without creating any of the usual excitement accompanying a return of the President to his former home.

Accompanied by two Secret Service men and his brother-in-law, Professor Stockton Axson, until recently a men ber of the Princeton faculty, the President walked directly to the polls in the Mercer Engine House, No. 3, on Cham-bers street and voted for Allan Walsh for renomination to Congress.

Accompanied by Professor Axson and the Secret Service men he walked lelsurely about town past his two old homes, the one on Library place, where he lived when he was a professor, and then past the Cleveland lane house, where he resided when Governor. He left for Washington at 1.55 p. m. left for Washington at 1:55 p. m.

JERSEY'S HOT PRIMARY FIGHT

Gov. Fielder's Supremacy Disputed

in Hudson-Contest in Atlantic. TRENTON, Sept. 22.-New Jersey today is deciding a primary election devoid of contests for State-wide offices, but full of local fights which have engrossed the attention of the people during the last few weeks.

The two chief battlogrounds in these contests are Hudson County, where a bitter battle for the supremacy of the Democratic party is in progress, with Governor Fielder's followers arrayed on one side and those of Navai Officer Wittpenn on the other; and in the Second Congressional District, where a hot fight is no for the Republican nomination, and is on for the Republican nomination, and in which one aspirant—Emerson Richards, of Atlantic City-some days ago took re-course to the courts to prevent an oppo-nent-Isaac Bacharach, also of Atlantic City-from having his name on the ballot. Richards lost the contest.

POLICEMEN ASK COURT TO HAVE JOBS BACK

First Convicted, Then Exonerated, Now Want Reinstatement.

A conflict of authority between Direc-tor of Public Safety George D. Porter and the Police Board of Inquiry on one side and the Civil Service Commission-era was aired in court today before Judges Sulzberger, Barratt and Dough-erty in mandamys suits beought by Mererty in mandamus suits brought by Hugh Gallagher and Thomas T. Jones for their reinstatement as policemen.

Gallagher and Jones were found guilty of intoxication and dereliction of duty by the Police Board at their first trial and ordered dismissed. At a subsequent trial before the same board they were exonerated and their reinstatement was recommended. In spite of Director Por-ter's acquiesence the Civil Sarvice Com-missioners declined to reinstate the men after going over the testimony of both

The court reserved decision at the conclusion of the argument today. Assistant City Solicitor Gordon defended the action of the Civil Service Commissioners. In the midst of his argument that the recommendations of the Police Board and of Director Porter are but advisory, and that the Commossioners are not required to follow them, Judge Sulzberger interrupted with the remark:

"Then policemen accused of derelictions have a right to a fair trial, but all subsection! appeals and rehearings and recommendations are in the nature of extended huxuries."

Lined up against him in active support of the Bacharachs, who have been open enemies of the ex-boss for years, are many of Kuchnle's once most servile henchmen. Against him also are the 2000 Negro voters, whom the "Commodore" a few years back voted by battalions under the leadership of precinct bosses, some of whom were sent to prison. Practically the entire Negro voting population is in a state of nsurrection against Kuchnic because Richards, his candidate for Congress, opposed the seating of James Bourne, a Negro druggist, in the Board of Education. Kuehnle has an anchor to windward, however, in the fact that Joseph R. Barlett, one of his most loyal supporters during a dozen years, is virtually certain of the Republican nomination for

PROGRESSIVES MEET FOR NOMINATIONS TO DELAWARE'S TICKET

State-wide Prohibition and Modified Single Tax System Advocated as Planks in Platform.

DOVER, Del., Sept. 22.-Eighty-five delegates answered to the rollcall in the State Progressive Convention, which met here today. The delegates will nominate candidates for Congress, State Treasurer and State Auditor. Dr. George Edward Reed. of Wilmington, former president of Dickinson College, has the support of New Castle County delegates for the Congressional nomination.

Progressives said there would be no contest, and each nomination would be made by acclamation. A State-wide prohibition and a modified single tax system are advocated as planks in the platform. The latter plank was drafted by Francis I. duPont, of the duPont family of powder-makers, of Wilmington. The Progressives also favor a suffrage plank, which has been frafted and may be incorporated into the platform. Suffragists falled to persuade Republicans and Democrats to support equal franchise in the party platforms.

This is also the first time that any party has come out openly for Statewide prohibition, and shows that the Progressives are seeking the temperance votes, with both the Democrats and Re-
