Stalls to Be Let to Producers Only and Saving in Price Promised.

Prices to the West Philadelphia con-Prices to the West Philadelphia consumer of farm products may be considerably reduced by the opening of a farmere' market in the 67th atreet terminal.
According to plans announced by the Philadelphia and Western Rallway Company and the Lehigh Valley Transit Company, the market will be in operation before Thanksgiving.

By renting stalls at a nominal figure to producers only, the traction officials hope to encourase a large number of farmers from Montgomery, Bucks and other pearby counties to sell their fruit, vegetahies and poultry direct to the consumer.
The middleman will be eliminated and his

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Wanamaker Stores of Philadelphia and New York have acquired more than $100,000 worth of famous BIGELOW RUGS.

One-half of this great quantity is now being unloaded off the freight cars in this city; some of the rugs are already opened up in our stock room.

The purchase includes all the famous BIGELOW brands in all sizes.

The rugs will be put on sale THURSDAY morning, September 24th, in the Rug Store, on the Fourth Floor, Market.

The prices throughout the sale will be EXACTLY 25 PER CENT, LESS than the standard prices of BIGELOW RUGS known all over America.

It is the year's great event in domestic rugs and it is the year's great opportunity for all householders of Philadelphia and vicinity.

JOHN WANAMAKER
