REVOLT AGAINST VAN VALKENBURG AND FLINN SPREADS

Bossism in Washington Party Which Dictated Lewis' Withdrawal Swings Independents to Brumbaugh.

Opposition to the Flinn-Van Valkenburg "bossism" in the Washington party, and particularly to the arrangement whereby William Draper Lewis was prevailed upon to withdraw from the Gubernatorial race in favor of Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate, continues to grow through the city and

The 25th Ward Washington Party Committee in this city, meeting at 2523 Frankford avenue, last night denounced the withdrawal of Mr. Lewis, repudiated the Washington party and reorganized itself Into the Progressive Republican League. Following this action Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh was indorsed as their candidate for Governor.

In Montgomery County C. Tyson Kratz, the only delegate to the Anti-saloon League Convention at Harrisburg last week who openly opposed the indorse-ment of Mr. McCormick by the conven-tion, is urging his political friends to re-yelt against the leadership of Flinn and Val Against the leadership of Flinn and Van Valkenburg. In an open letter yesterday to William Flinn, E. A. Van Valkenburg, Gifford Pinchot and William Draper Lewis, Mr. Kratz charges them with being the worst enemies Colonel Roosevelt has in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Kratz, who in 1912, as a delegate to the Chicaga, Republican Con-to the Chicago Republican Convention, battled for Roosevelt, declared that Colonel Roosevelt will come into Pennsylper cent. of his own friends in order to support a Democratic candidate for Governor. Mr. Kratz also speaks in high praise of Dr. Brumbaugh high praise of Dr. Brumbaugh.

In the Western end of the State prominent Washington party men are fast rallying to the support of R. R. Quay who last week openly denounced the deals of the Flinn-Van Valkenburg "machine." Charles Kerler, editor of the Blairsville (Pa.) Courier, one of the main Progressive standbys for Roosevelt in 1912, in a twocolumn editorial yesterday urges Progressives to desert the Washington party gaes" and vote the Republican ticket.

D. W. English, of Pittsburgh, one of the State leaders in 1912, who returned from Europe Sunday, is expected to take a stand with Mr. Quay within a day or

DR. BRUMBAUGH AT RENOVO

Parade Escorts Him to Y. M. C. A. Building for Address.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 22.—Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for Governor, was given a cordial welcome at Renovo this morning. He arrived early and was met at the station by a reception committee of leading citizens, who es-corted him about the city. He visited the public schools and made a brief speech to the students. Following his usual cus-tom, he did not mention politics, but spoke along educational lines. From 11 to 12 a public reception was held in the parlors of the Hotel Clinton, where he hook hands with several hundred people At noon a parade was formed at the otel. Led by the Pennsylvania Railroad band, the gubernatorial candidate was escorted to the Y. M. C. A. Building, where he spoke to a large crowd. He discussed good roads and other State issner At 1.30 he left for Lock Haven, where he

HEAVY VOTE IN MERCER

Twelve Candidates for Sheriff, of Whom Ten Are Republicans.

Whom Ten Are Republicans.

TRENTON, Sept. 22.—The vote in today's primaries is heavy, because of the great interest in the various contests, particularly that for Sheriff, in which there are ten candidates on the Republican side and two on the Democratic. The early indications point to the nomination of Page or Fleming by the Republicans. Fleming is the organization candidate, but is not as popular as Page or as some of the other Republican candidates. Hervey S. Moore, a Republican Assemblyman, was polling a good vote Assemblyman, was polling a good vote early, but it is scarcely expected that he can win the nomination.

On the Democratic side of the Sheriff's fight J. G. Coleman, a prominent undertaker, is getting a large vote against Parker, who has the support of many of the Democratic leaders. It is believed that Coleman will be nominated.

Representative Allan B. Walsh, who is representative and respection.

running for renomination and re-election to Congress on the Democratic ticket, will have an easy time defeating C. J. Blake, his Democratic opponent for the nomination, according to the early voting. Walsh s running on a purely Wilson platform On the Republican side there are four candidates—Hutchinson and Blackman, of Trenton, and Pope and Anderson, of Somerset County. Hutchinson, who is a former State Senator and a former State Road Commissioner, seemed to be getting the early vote. Blackman is giving him a close race.

There is no primary contest for Surro-gate, and there is little interest displayed in the Assembly contests in this county.

COLONEL OFF TO NEBRASKA

Will Preach Progressive Doctrine Tonight in W. J. Bryan's Home City. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 22.—After calling upon the voters of Kansas and Missouri to stand by the Progressive ticket in the fall election, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt left here for Lincoln, Neb., where he will speak tonight. Owing to the advice of physicians not to put too much strain on his voice if he wished to preserve it in good condition for the remainder of his trip, it is not likely that the Colonel will speak en route to the home city of William Jennings Bryan. "If you conscientiously believe in the principles of either of the old parties I do not expect you to vote the Progressive ticket," said Colonel Roosevelt in his message to the voters of Kansas and Missiuri, "but if you believe in the doctrines of the Progressive party I shall expect you to vote according to the dictates of your conscience." ore Roosevelt left here for Lincoln, Neb.

didacies of Palmer and McCormick.

Magistrate E. K. Borie, well known in the northeast section of the city, is a recent convert of the reorganization element in the Democratic party. He resently made known his political standing by offering a resolution at a point meeting of the Twenty-third Ward Democratic Society and the members of the ward committee "approving of the State Democracy and the candidacies of Representative A. ITALIAN VOTERS ENLISTED TO END AGAINST PENROSE League Adopts Resolution to Oppose His Re-election.

Despite the threats of the Republican Organization leaders of South Philadelphia to break up a meeting of the Italian Political League, which was held last night at 721 Carpenter street, several hundred Italians attended the meeting and adopted a resolution, unanimously pledging themselves to work and fight to the end against the re-election of Senator

Joseph Persichetti, chairman of the league, presided over the meeting and urgently pleaded for the elimination of Penroseism and Vareism. Upon his suggestion a resolution was carried to the effect that no parties be indorsed until the next meeting, which will take place next Friday.

B. M. Marello urged that voters unite in full force for good government. Other speakers were Joseph Tumolili, Thomas S. Russo and Henry di Berarbini.

WARM FIGHT FOR SHERIFF

Four-Cornered Contest Among Camden Republicans Today.

A four-cornered fight for the Republican nomination for Sheriff is arousing the principal interest in the primary election in Camden today. Joshua C. Haines, a former Councilman, who has the backing of the Republican organization, and H. S. Stovel, formerly prosecutor, are making the strongest fight. Other candidates are Henry H. Marter and Willard T. Gibbs.

John T. Kates and Garfield Pancoast are Assemblymen seeking renomination. They will probably secupre two of the places on the ticket and will have as their running mate either John H. Fort or Charles A. Wolverton, Dean Pressey is also seeking an Assemblyman nomina-

There are 16 candidates for the five Excise Commissioners, among whom are the present members of the board. E. J. Alf and Howard Lee will probably be elected, with the other three uncertain.
On the Democratic ticket there is little contest for any of the places except for hose on the County Excise Committee With the support of the Andrew Jack-son Club there is a strong movement to oust Joseph E. Nowrey from control, by a refusal to support his candidates. On the Bull Moose ticket there is no opposition of any sort, as is the case with the Socialists. The latter are nominat-ing for all offices except Congressman. The vote this morning was light, but Inasmuch as the polls are open until 9 o'clock, it is expected to jump at the close of the working hours,

CARRIES WILSON TO VOTE IN PRINCETON

President Spent But a Bare Hour at His Former Home. Start Back Is Made Early This Afternoon.

President Wilson passed through Philadelphia at 11:15 this morning on his way to Princeton to vote in the New Jersey primaries today. His private car, attached to the 8 o'clock express from Washington, was a sort of "primaries special." Senator William Hughes, of Paterson; Secretary Tumulty and four other New Jersey residents attached to the White House were in the car. Most of them left at Trenton on their way to their homes to vote.

The trip was a brief one for the President. His car was dropped off at Princeton Junction and reached Prince ton at 12:15. The schedule gave him hardly more than an hour to cast his hallot and see his friends start back to Washington was made at 1:55.

The President would not even take time to have luncheon in Princeton. It was served in his car on the return trip.

The journey from Washington was a busy one for the President. Tomorrow he will meet a delegation of Colorado coal operators and strikers to discuss the labor situation there. He was working all morning with Secretary Tumulty on papers relating to the case.

Through Secretary Tumulty, the President pleaded business when asked to discuss the New Jersey situation and the new phases of the campaign in Pennsyl-vania. It was said that the President's party was optimistic as to the chances of the Administration's candidates in the New Jersey primary fight today.

Talk in the "Primaries Special" dwelt on the report that the President was pleased with the proposed cut in the rivers and harbors bill. It was said he viewed its return to the committee as gratifying, in view of the decline in reve nue in this country arising from the Eu-ropean situation. It was reported that the President would vote for Representative Allen B. Walsh for the Democratic nomination for Representative. Walsh was expected to meet the President's special at Princeton Junc-tion to talk over the local candidates' qualifications with the President.

Senator William Hughes was said to be optimistic of a victory for Congressman Eugene H. Kinkead in his fight for the nomination for Sheriff of Hudson County against John H. Crosby, supported by the Wittpenn forces, who are regarded as unfriendly to the Administration. Sec-retary Tumulty will go to Jersey City from Princeton to cast his vote for

Prof. Stockton Axon, the President's brother-in-law, was with the party going home to vote today. He voted in Princeton with the President. Warren Johnson, secretary to Secretary Tumulty dropped off at Trenton to cast his ballot, and Charles Dwemton, the President's stenographer, got off with him to vote for the first time. He is the youngest stenographer ever employed at the White President Wilson will reach Washington

PRESIDENT CASTS HIS VOTE

His Arrival at Princeton Unmarked by Demonstration

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 23.-President Wilson cast his ballot in the New Jersey primaries at Princeton today without creating any of the usual excitement accompanying a return of the men and his brother-in-law, Professor Stockton Axson, until recently a mem ber of the Princeton faculty, the President walked directly to the polls in the Mercer Engine House, No. 3, on Cham-bers street and voted for Allan Walsh or renomination to Congress.

Accompanied by Professor Axson and the Secret Service men he walked leisurely about town past his two old homes, the one on Library place, where he lived when he was a professor, and then past the Cleveland lane house, where he resided when Governor. He left for Washington at 1:55 p. m.

JERSEY'S HOT PRIMARY FIGHT

Gov. Fielder's Supremacy Disputed in Hudson-Contest in Atlantic.

TRENTON, Sept. 22.-New Jersey today is deciding a primary election devoid of centests for. State-wide offices, but full of local fights which have engrossed the attention of the people during the last ew weeks.

The two chief battlegrounds in these contests are Hudson County, where a bitter battle for the supremacy of the Democratic party is in progress, with Governor Fielder's followers arrayed on one side and those of Naval Officer Wittpenn on the other; and in the Second Congressional District, where a hot fight is on for the Republican nomination, and in which one aspirant-Emerson Richards of Atlantic City-some days ago took re-course to the courts to prevent an opponent-Isaac Bacharach, also of Atlantic City-from having his name on the ballot. Richards lost the contest.

POLICEMEN ASK COURT TO HAVE JOBS BACK

First Convicted, Then Exonerated, Now Want Reinstatement.

A conflict of authority between Direc-or of Public Safety George D. Porter and the Police Board of Inquiry on one side and the Civil Service Commission-ers was aired in court today before Judges Sulzberger, Barratt and Dougherty in mandamus suits brought by Hugh Gallagher and Thomas T. Jones for their reinstatement as policemen.

Gallagher and Jones were found guilty of intoxication and dereliction of duty by the Police Board at their first trial and ordered dismissed. At a subsequent trial before the same board they were exonerated and their reinstance. exonerated and their reinstatement was recommended. In spite of Director Por-ter's acquiesence the Civil Service Com-missioners declined to reinstate the men after going over the testimony of both

The court reserved decision at the condusion of the argument today. Assistant City Solicitor Gordon defended the action of the Civil Service Commissioners. In the midst of his argument that the recom-mendations of the Police Board and of Director Porter are but advisory, and that the Commossioners are not required to follow them. Judge Sulzberger interrupted with the remark:
"Then policemen accused of derelictions have a right to a fair trial, but all subsequent appeals and rehearings and recommendations are in the nature of extended luxuries."

EX-BOSS KUEHNLE FACES OLD HENCHMEN IN BATTLE

2000 Negro Voters Among Those Swinging to the Bacharachs.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 22 .- "Commodore" Louis Kuehnle, once Atlantic City's political dictator, has his back to the wall in one of the strangest battles of his political career here today. Lined up against him in active support of the Bacharachs, who have been open enemies of the ex-boss for years, are many of Kuehnle's once most servile henchmen. Against him also are the 2000 Negro voters whom the "Commodore" a few years back voted by battallons under the leadership of precinct bosses, some of whom were sent to prison. Practically the entire Negro voting population is in a state of insurrection against Kuchnie because Richards, his candidate for Congress, opposed the seating of James Bourne, a Negro druggist, in the Board of Education. Kuehnle has an anchor to windward, however, in the fact that Joseph R. Barlett, one of his most loyal supporters during a dozen years, is virtually certain of the Republican nomination for Sheriff. There are picturesque figures in the primary battle, A. M. Heston. Comptroller for 16 years, whom Kuehnla pulled out of office for insubordination, is running for City Treasurer. Dave Barrett, whom Kuchnie made Heston's successor, and who was in turn sum-marily removed by the City Commission for insubordination, is a candidate for freeholder, a $300 job. PROGRESSIVES MEET FOR NOMINATIONS TO DELAWARE'S TICKET

State-wide Prohibition and Modified Single Tax System Advocated as Planks in Platform.

DOVER, Del., Sept. 22.-Eighty-five delegates answered to the rollcall in the State Progressive Convention, which met here today. The delegates will nominate candidates for Congress, State Treasurer and State Auditor. Dr. George Edward Reed. of Wilmington, former president of Dickinson College, has the support of New Castle County delegates for the Congressional nomination.

Progressives said there would be no contest, and each nomination would be made by acclamation.

A State-wide prohibition and a modified A State-wide prohibition and a modified single tax system are advocated as planks in the platform. The latter plank was drafted by Francis I. duPont, of the duPont family of powder-makers, of Wilmington. The Progressives also favor a suffrage plank, which has been drafted and may be incorporated into the platform. Suffragists failed to persuade Republicans and Democrats to support Republicans and Democrats to support equal franchise in the party platforms. This is also the first time that any party has come out openly for State-wide prohibition, and shows that the Progressives are seeking the temperance votes, with both the Democrats and Republicans nominating "wet" Legislative candidates.

George B. Hynson, of Milford, Progressive candidate for Governor two years ago, was elected chairman of the convention and told the delegates that "any man nominated today will get a good licking in November."

A significant feature of the convention was the number of forms lightenants of

MINISTERS BACK OF FIGHT TO PUT LID ON SAILORS' CLUB

Officers and Employes on Trial for Alleged Liquor Selling. A determined fight by ministers of churches in the southern part of the city to close the Petty Officers' Club, located in the Plaza Building, Thirteenth street and Mayamensing avenue, developed in Quarter Sessions Court today, when officers and employes of the club ware placed on trial on charges of selling liquor without a license and on Sunday. The club is chartered, but, it is alleged, liquer was sold to non-members.

Policemen and vice squad officers testified that they had no difficulty in gaining admittance to the club and purchasing liquor. Special Policeman Tieman said that he visited the place last September. The club occupies the second and third floors of the building, the second floor being used for dancing. After the dances, Tieman said, young women and their sailor escorts went to a room on the third floor fitted up as a bar. On one occasion he saw sailors and girls drinking at tables. Tieman also testified that he saw two poker games in progress

J. Meagher, counsel for the defendants, tried to show that liquor was not inten-tionally sold to non-members and that the police gained entrance by subterfuge.
