SOCIAL LIFE IN AND ABOUT PHILADELPHIA

A NUMBER of persons socially prominent are much interested in the St. Francis Home for Convalescents at Lansdowne, and it has been decided to hold a Country Fair and Market Day on Saturday, October 3, from morning until night on the grounds.

The home was started a little over a year ago and has already accomplished a great work. Over 600 patients were cared for this summer. The property on which the house stands was originally the Lansdowne Country Club. Among those who are interested in the affair are Miss Frances L. Sullvan and Miss Leta Livingaton Sullivan, Miss Emille M. M. Rivinus, Miss Mary M. Rivinus, Miss Mary E. Sinnott, Miss Matilda L. Jenkins, Mrs. James Mundy, Mrs. M. McMichen, Mise Jean Rowland Levis, Miss Agnes R. Levis, Mrs. Francis Patterson, Miss Gertrude Fetterman and very many others.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Williamson Roberts, who have been spending the summer in York Harber, closed their house yesterday and will return to town by motor, reaching here Saturday. They will occupy the Craig Biddle house at 1713 Locust street for the winter. The Roberts are building a new house on the old Garrett property, which they purchased last year. It is expected that the house will be ready for occupancy about next May.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Horstmann, who spent July cruising with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lippincott, on their yacht Lady Betty, have returned from Northeast Harbor, Me., where they were visiting their daughter and son-inlaw, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Fraley, Dr. and Mrs. Fraley will close Haleyon Monday, and will spend two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Horstman at Norwynden, Overbrook.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Reginald Allen will reture Saturday from Lake George, where they have spent the summer.

Miss Placid Vogt is at present the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Norris.

Dr. C. H. Harbaugh, of this city, is staying in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for a few

SOME SHORTHAND BLUNDERS

Many Mistakes Due To Use of Wrong Vowels A volume could be filled with amusing stories of shorthand mistakes, the greater number of them due to mistaken vowels. For instance, "This day is big with fate" was transcribed "This day is big with fat," while "Do not indulge in spite" came out "Do not indulge in spit," and "A house of many gables" was transcribed into "A house of many gabbles."

The use of the wrong vowel may have the most amusing result, as in the phrase, "Man know thyself," which was once converted in the report of a sermon into "Man, gnaw thyself." To misplace a vowel is in shorthand the ensiest thing in the world, T. A. Reed, the well-known reporter, tells of a pupil who by this means turned "mighty acta" into "mighty cats." and another report of a sermon was spoiled by the advice, "Return a blow with an ax." instead of "a kiss."

The reporting style, in which the vowels are omitted altogether for the sake of rapidity, is responsible for the famous American story of the shorthand clerk who took down a note of his wife's instruction to "he sure to remember to bring home some castile soap," and, as a result, returned home with a tin of extail soup!-London Strand Magazine.

In a Hole

Uncle Joe Cannon said at a Danville political pienic last month: Finance such as that, gentlemen, will land the country in the hole wherein Mrs. Bill Smith found herself.
"Mrs. Bill Smith spent with her husband a two-week vacation at Atlantic City. It was an extravagant vacation. It cleaned them 'As they rode back home on the train, sunburned and fatigued, their pockethooks emply and the next payday two weeks off, Mrs. Smith sighed and said:

"Well, anyhow, Bill, we'll be all right as oon as we get home. The morning we ed off I hid a ten-dollar bill under the pink plush album in the parlor.'
"'Yes.' said Bill, grimly, 'yes, I know you did. I found it.'"—Washington Star.

A Broken Pledge

There used to be in Albany an eccentric haracter named Pete, who pledged himself to be neither shaved nor shorn until 8 A. Douglas came to the Presidency. I not keep his resolution, however. On John Morgan, a Negro, who had acted as barper for many Governors and who described nimself on a sign over his shop door in Greens street as a "tonsorial operator and capillary abridger," had a slip pasted on the mirror in abridger," had a slip pasted on the mirror in front of his "operating chair" on which he had written, "Douglas not elected, but Pete's hair is off,"—Exchange.

FEW CANARIES COMING HERE

Blockade of German Ports Keeps Birds In Fatherland

Those who may have been under the impression that canary birds imported into this country come from the Canary Islands will suffer a severe disillusionment at this time, especially if the family thinks that a canary bird is needed, and someone proceeds to "buy" a canary. The fact is, that in times of peace canary birds come from the Hartz Mountains, in Germany, where they are bred by the peasants in garrets and spare rooms of their cottages. One New York firm alone imports 100,000 canaries annually.

At present no canaries can be bought in the bird stores because of the blockade of German ports. Ordinarily, these birds sell for $35 to $50 per dozen. The individual bird is sold on his merits, as indicated by his looks and his voice. The female canary is a poor singer and sells for half the price of the male. The birds sing best between the ages of a half-year and six years. Frequently they live to be 12 years old.

The bird dealers also suffer from lack of cages for other birds. The canaries are shipped in individual wooden cages made in Germany have to be fed dally on canary seed and hard bolled eggs as well as given fresh water. A skilled attendant has to accompany them on the voyage and frequently a young peasant earns his traveling expenses to this country in

QUICKSILVER PRODUCTION

Slight Decrease Shown In World's Aggregate Last Year

The quicksilver production of the world during 19t3 is estimated at 4171 metric tons, against 4262 tons in 1912 and 4683 tons in 1911. The countries of production last year were: United States, 688 tons; Austria-Hungary, 855 tons; Italy, 988 tons; Spain. 1490 tons; Mexico and others, 150 tons. These figures were gathered by the United States Geological Survey.

Quicksilver is used mainly in the manufacture of fulminate for explosive caps, of drugs, of of plays were no less brief!" lectric appliances and scientific apparatus, and in the recovery of precious metals, especially gold, by amalgamation. A new use in Scotland. is the floating of lights of lighthouses upon a body of quickstiver. A use in England, in the United States and possibly elsewhere, is the coating of ships' bottoms with a paint containing quicksilver to prevent organic growth. Mercuric oxide (red oxide of mercury) is the active notson in anti-fouling paint successfully used on ships' bottoms. The metal appears to be little employed in silvering mirrors, as nitrate of silver is now chiefly used for the purpose. Increasing use of quickstiver is probably to be expected in the manufacture of electrical appliances and of fulminates, and tossibly of paints for protective coatings on metals. The demand for quickstiver for amalgamating gold and silver has greatly decreased, as is well known, with the decreased supply of free milling ores and the increased application of cyanidation to gold and silver ores. Industrial chemistry and inventive genius are to be looked to for increasing the demand.

FLASHES FROM "STARS" A. F. MacCollin, who plays the genial and delightful stage driver, Jeremiah Cobb, in Kate Douglas Wiggin and Charlotte Thompson's comedy, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," at the Walnut Street Theatre, is one of the oldest living actors. Mr. MacCollin was one of the organizers of the Wheatley Dramatic Association in Philadelphia in 1865, which enrolled such names as John McCullough, E. H. Hearn and D. W. Farrell. He was a member of the famous Ford Company, producers of standard operas, and originated the part of Rainh Rakestraw, the leading tenor role in Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, "Pinafore," in this country. After several years with this organization he joined D'Oyley Carte at the Fifth Avenue Theatre in New York for the production of the "Pirates of Penzance." and played the principal comedy role. When "The Mikado" was produced, the part of Koko was assigned to the late Roland Reed, who opened, but after two performances was compelled to give it up on account of illness. Mr. MacCollin succeeded him, and was accredited as the originator of this role. For five years he was a member of the Stetson Company, playing a repertoire of the light operas. In the last few years Mr. MacCollin has been identified with the Savage. Frohman and Shubert forces, playing principally dramatic comedy roles. He is now succeeding the late Archie Boyd in the part of Jeremiah Cobb in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," a most congenial role.

Helen Ware, star of "The Revolt," the current attraction at the Adelphi Theatre, says she once owned a pet Egyptian scarab, an inand are sent in lots of 100 to 500. These birds | sect resembling the cricket. "Above all things else," said Miss Ware, "the scarab is noted for its longevity, often living as long as 300 years. My scarab died a year ago in its infancy-it was only 100 years old. I had it for only three years of its life. It was the most unique pet I ever had, and I got terribly attached to it. It lived in a little cage, and I fed it on sugarwater. Once I gave it sugar diluted in champagne, and you should have seen that beetleit got quite tipsy. Its antics were terribly funny. Sometimes I were the scarab attached to a thin gold chain. I called it 'Amenoteph.' The Egyptians used to worship the scarab, you know. I adored my pet, and wept at its demise. I'd thought of having a little tombstone made over a tiny urn; but I lost the dead pet in traveling. On the tombstone I would have had, 'Here lies Amenoteph, who died in his infancy -he was only a hundred."

"Alas," sighed Miss Ware, "if only the youth

In Lawrence Eyre's play, "The Things That Count," presented last season at William A. Brady's New York Playhouse, one of the personal successes was made by Violet de Biccarl, a child of 12. George T. Brennan, managing director of "Pilate's Daughter," to open at the Chestnut Street Opera House next week, was one of the thousands who admired the work of the child. When it came time for organizing the cast of "Pilate's Daughter" Mr. Brennan sought Miss de Biccari, and, fortunately, was able to place her under contract for the production. She will play the leading role in the first act of the play. Violet is proud of the fact that she has the famous prima donna, Marcella Sembrich, as godmother and that Caruso, Scotti and Andreas Dippel are among her friends. Violet's father is a boyhood friend of Caruso and a fellow countryman. Like other talented children of the stage, Miss de Eliccari has made a success in posing in motion pictures and she has also a number of stage successes to her credit. She played in "The Top of the Morning" and "Hop o' My Thumb." Her ambition is to become a great singer.
