STATE GOLF SQUAD MEETS DEFEAT IN LESLEY GOLF PLAY

Three Matches to Two in Foursomes — Test Was Held at Short Hills, N. J.

SHORT HILLS, N. J., Sept. 25. Pennsylvania and metropolitan golfers to the number of 10 on a side clashed today on the links of the Baltusrol Golf Club in the first of the tristate matches for the Robert W. Lesley Cup. Five foursomes teams fought it out first and later on ten singles. The district winning the most matches will meet the Massachusetts combination, holding the Lesley Cup, in the decisive test tomorrow.

Pennsylvania presented its teams for the foursomes as follows:

George A. Ormiston, Allegheny; Eben M. Byers, Allegheny, and Cameron B. Buxton, Huntingdon Valley; Reginald S. Worthington, Shawnee, and J. B. Crookston, Philadelphia; Howard W. Perrin, Merlon, and W. P. Smith, Huntingdon Valley: J. Brendt Rose, Philadelphia and Louis M. Washburn, Philadelphia Opposing these in the order named were the following Metropolitan players:
Oswald Kirkby, Englewood, and Fred Herreshoff, Garden City; Jerome D.
Travers, Upper Montolair, and Gilman
P. Tiffany, Powelton: Cornelius J. Sullivan, Baltusrol, and Roy D. Webb, Englewood: Max R. Marston, Baltusrol, and Gardiner W. White, Flushing: Archie M. Reid, St. Andrews, and Findlay S.

Douglas, Nassau. Every one looked for a keen match between Byers and Buxton, for Penn-sylvania, and Travers and Tiffany, rep-resenting New York. That Travers had decided to abandon his driver for the time being at least, was evidenced at ence, for he drove with his driving iron from the first tee. The hole went to the Pennsylvania pair, 5 to 6. The last named couple would have had a four, but for taking three putts.

Tiffany almost missed his drive for the second tee, the ball not going more than 50 yards. On the other hand, Byers hit a fine ball and when Buxtom laid the next on the green, the Pittsburgh-Phila-delphia combination won in 4 to 6, thereby throwing 2 up.

Both Travers and Buxton drove the third green. Travers' effort getting him much nearer the flag. On this approach putt Byers failed to get up, and, when Buxton missed his try for a three, the hole went to the Metropolitan pair, 3 to 4.
At the fourth hole Travers brought off a 20-foot putt for a four, good enough to win there and square the match. The Metropolitan pair became one up when Buxton schlaffed his drive and his partner failed to carry the bunker on the second shot.

The Pennsylvania couple won the sixth when the opposition took three putts. They halved the long seventh in five and the eighth up the hill in similar figures. Both sides failed to make the green on the approaches.

Had Travers been able to bring off a putt for a club's length on the ninth green his side would have won there, but as it was, they halved in four, which left the rivals all square at the turn, the strokes reading 42 to 43 in favor of Pennsylvania. They halved the tenth, or Island hole in four, but Travers had a bad tee shot going to No. 12. That mistake enabled the Pennsylvania couple to win the hole in four twelfth was balved in four. From the thirteenth tee Travers showed a drive to the trap and as the opposite got a 3. Penn sylvania became 2 up. To the fourteenth Tiffany pulled his drive to a trap and Trayers failed to got "the trap and the play."

sylvania became 2 up. To the fourteenth Tiffany pulled his drive to a trap and Travers failed to get clear of the sand on his effort. Byers topped his drive, but even so his side won the hole in 5 to 5. New 3 up it looked like a certainty for the Pennsylvania pair and such proved to be the case, for after losing the fif-teenth they halved the next two holes, thereby winning the match 2 up and 1 to The card:

Findiay Douglas, the Metropolitan cap-tain, and Archie Reid defeated the col-legians, J. B. Rose and L. M. Washburn, 5 up and 3 to play. At the 14th Pouglas brought off a sensational mashie shot out of the long grass for a 3.

Fownes and Ormiston made a hash of the home hole. Ormiston first putting his drive to the rocks. They took six.

To the nineteenth Fownes drove the rough and after Ormiston had got out short, Fownes made the green on his third. Kirkby putted his second shot to the rough and thus halved in five. To the twentieth hole both sot on in 2, but after Ormiston falled to lay the approach putt dead, Fownes missed the next and that amplied Kirkby and Herselle ?. that enabled Kirkby and Herceshoff to win in 4 to 5. That gave the Metropolitans the odd match in the foursomes.

Fitler, Merion Cricket Club, continued her good work by defeating Mrs. Club, 3 up and 2 to play, and Mrs. C. H. Fox, Huntington Valley, won from Mrs. Milton Herold, Philmont, 4 up and 2 to

The first three holes in the Mrs. Fitter-Mrs. Vanderbeck match were halved, but Mrs. Vanderbeck should have won the third, a missed putt resulting in a half in seven. She broke the lie by winning the fourth, but overran the cup on her third on the sixth green, and then missed coming back. Mrs. Filler was down in par 4 and the match was squared.

Mrs. Fitier was handed the seventh hole, one could almost say, on a gold platter. Both were on the green in four, and well up with their approach putts. It looked like a sure half in six, but Mrs. Vanderbeck missed a ten-inch putt and Mrs. Fitler was one up.

Mrs. Vanderbeck secured par 5 to 6 for Mrs. Fitler on the eighth, and again the match was even. The ninth was halved n 6, and both were out in 47.

Mrs. Fitler became one up by running lown a twenty-foot putt for a 3 on the tenth and lost the eleventh after driving out of bounds. She was one up again after playing the twelfth, as Mrs. Vanderbeck drove into the creek. The thirteenth and fourteenth were halved, but Fitler should have won the fourteenth, as she was on the green in two and took four putts.

Mrs. Vanderbeck missed a short putt for a half on the fifteenth and Mrs. Fit-ler became two up. The match ended on the sixteenth green, where Mrs. Fitter was down in 6 to 7 for Mrs. Vanderbeck. Their cards:

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 25 -Play in the women's tennis championship tourna-ment for the Philadelphia and District titles in singles, doubles and mixed doubles, continued here this afternoon. The first matches were in the semi-nal rounds of the singles, in which Mrs. H. Harrison Smith, of Merion, met Miss Marion Cresswell, of the Philadelphia Ticket Club, in the upper division of the iraw, while in the lower bracket the process of elimination brought together Mrs. L. Carey Potter, Merion Cricket Club champion, and Mrs. V. N. Rieg, also of

Mrs. S. C. Potter defeated Mrs. V. N. lies in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2 Although Mrs Bieg played a plucky game, Mrs. Potter's placing was too much for her. Long railles were practically impossible on account of the wetness of the grounds.

Miss Marion Cresswell defeated Mrs. H. .. I. Smith in straight sets. 6-2, 6-1. The ease with which Miss Creaswell won came somewhat as a surprise, since Mrs. Smith had been expected to make her play at her heat. Neither of the St. Martin's stars played at top speed, but Misa Cresswell won on her ability to cover the ground

The damp ground bothered Mrs. Smith. who slipped and fell once while trying to make a fairly easy backhand atroke. Miss Cresswell and Mrs. Potter will meet in the final round tomorrow, and a splendid match should result. The match will be an interclub affair. Miss Cresswell comes from the Philadelphia and Mrs. Potter from the Merion Cricket

Miss S. Myers defeated Miss C. Chase in atraight sets, 7-5, 6-4, in the final round of the consolation singles competition. The playing ranked among the best seen so far in the tournament. In the first match finished in the ladles' doubles. Miss Helen Alexander and Miss D. Disston defeated Miss M. Williams and Mrs. I. W. Roberts in straight sets. 6-4, 7-5. The playing in this match was the best that has been seen in any of the matches in doubles. The superior team work of the St. Mar-tin's girls secured for them a victory in both hard fought sets, but Miss Williams and Miss Roberts, although defeated, played some excellent tennis and made he winners show their best form. Summary: Championship Doubles.

Every day marks some development for the better in the making of Pennsylvania's backfield. First Head Coach Brooke brought about a decided improvement in the kicking. The return of Avery gave the Quakers a backfield man who could get distance and height ! other promising backfield men have shown decided improvement in the kicking line. They are Irwin and Ballou, rival candidates for the quarterback secret, as it has been all the week. position. Irwin has been used at quarter with more regularity than Ballou. and likewise has been used to do more kicking, but the latter has already made possible exception of Avery.

Yesterday Brooke concentrated his preliminary coaching on teaching all the backfield candidates to catch kicks and run them back through a broken field. In this work Merrill and Hughes have been showing the best form. Brooke used this kind of practice to teach his men the art of straight-arming oncoming tacklers and shifting the ball from arm to arm as they run, in order to better protect themselves. It was Mer-rill who starred at this work in Wednesday's scrimmage, but yesterday Hughes did quite as well, making several sensational runs, in both of which he outsprinted a field of tacklers and added to his effectiveness by his clever dedging and straight-aiming. A good open field runner must master this art, and it augurs well for the future of the Quaker backfield that so many of the men are doing it so well in prac-

The students were very much surprised to see a long string of algang posts at distances from five to ten yards apart on Whittier Field. This device he believes will train the men to change their direction at any instant at full speed and still retain their balance.

HAVERFORD COLLEGE, Haverford, Pa. Sept 25.—Light serimmaging and a good deal of punting and running signals, as well as brushing up some elementary points of the game occupied Coach Bennett's Haverford College squad yesterday afternoon. The men were in fine condition, owing to their trip to the Pocones, and were full of spirit in spite of the warmth of the weather.

AMHERST, Mass., Sept. 25.—With a squad of 35 men, including eight of last year's regulars, in daily practice and a team already rounding into early season form, Amherst is looking forward with confidence to the Amherst-Bowdoin game here Saturday. The new coach, Riley, who directed the University of Maine team, which hast year held Yale to a scoreless tie, has already gained the confidence of the student body, and it is believed that his first season here will be a successful one.

pep to make a livin' on their rep an' never do a tap. An' I don't blame 'em, understand. If he gets by I shake the hand o' that there sort o' chap. Take big Jim Thorpe, world's athlete champ. His work'd hardly tire a tramp. An' yet I'm strong for Jim. He's in his third year with McGraw an' I guess no one ever saw a full game played by him.

Perhaps two dozen times a year you'll see the Indian's name appear in some trots him out to run for some one or to clout when pitchers' arms go sore. An' when he does get in the fray he manages to get away with somethin' pretty good. He bats up near the ol' charmed line an' though he gets no chance to shine you sort o' b'lieve he could.

One baseball season's all he's played. An' that was 'fore his rep was made as athlete extra-ply. He played in Carolina's hills-down there where corn is fed to stills for fear folks might get dry. If have to play the game—his rep is safe right now. He copped off sportdom's Golden Fleece an' with it wandered back from Greece with laurels on his brow.-Copyrighted by A. M. Corrigan.

Fred Clarke will retire from baseball at the close of the present season. He will not manage the Pirates again until next spring.

Perchance you are enthusiastic over Jack Curley's plan to match Johnson and Willard. If so, pause and reflect on the fact that Curley once was a wrestling AUTUMN.

Allentown's fair is proving to be the greatest event in the history of that com-munity. The harness races have been real treats, and therefore from the sportsman's viewpoint all that could be de-sired. Splendidly trained animals scored down to the line, and fast time was made in all of the races. A good crowd is likely to be attracted to Franklin Field tomorrow as Penn will entertain Gettysburg's football band. The battle should be a merry spectacle, and not so one-sided, as the visitors have ne star players who will make the locals hustle. The Germans evidently have the interest of Americans at heart. They threw Stanislaus Cyganiewicz Zbyszko into jail just as he was about to visit us.

H. E. Nickerson received over 500 applications for world's series tickets. Mr. Nickerson is secretary of the Braves.
The tickets in Boston will be sold singly, in pairs or in lots of three. Those making applications will have the best chance to make their purchases by getting the lots of three, as the club management states that such applications will have the preference.

A system is said to have been devised by the Roston National League manage-ment which will practically leave the ticket scalper high and dry this year. Just what the plan is has not been made public, but the idea is certainly correct.

Last season, Harry Davis had over thousand applications from friends for world's sories tickets. Of that number

The preceding evening was also gaily spent by all the Indian wants is fame he doesn't Freddie in Philadelphia's most palatial undertaking establishment, situated only a short distance east of the Cubs' hotel on Chestnut street. When Freddle returned he was armed with photographs of satin-lined coffins, "couches beautiful" and mausoleums. On his trips to New York, Doc Hart returns to his hotel beaming with joy, for he visits Grant's tomb, the Morgue and friendly disposed hospitals. All things taken into con-sideration, Freddie is a unique sketch as to tastes, but the Cubs overlook these little peculiarities because the "Doc" is some rubber." From August 5 to September 2 inclusive, Bunny Brief, who was tried out by the St. Louis Browns last season, made a hit in every game. Bunny is now with the Kansas City club of the American Association. He made hits in 30 consecutive games, breaking the record for-merly held by Otis Clymer. Charley Herzog has been suspended again.
