WHAT EVERY WOMAN WANTS TO KNOW—THINGS THAT INTEREST MAID AND MATRO

ELLEN ADAIR SEES KNIGHTLY CHIVALRY IN ICE MAN'S ACT

Her Gallant Atentions Surprise While They Sustain Her in New Disappointment - Seeking Employment.

Is still alive, I think, though people often suffragrettes at home have onded it, with their wild made and strange destructive schemes. I do not think that is the case-

I know the spirit of a Galahad shoor In that weman's kindly race. He draye meto the hearest boarding house and rangbination he and I. The woman at the been thrown on me! Ones at my London boarding school that actually did hap-ned, and I had the same sensation now as their. It was the furniest thins, that ancient episode. On Sunday meetings we were piloted to church in one long crocethe windows of Chrys Hospital. Among the medical students there was one gay youth who from afar cast amorous eyes upon the prettiest scholar in the school-Nay, more he wrote her daily tender. mental notes, until one sad day our man fredlein intercepted them. Exit the prettiest girl from that prim boarding

The would-be medico was sadly daunted by this sudden strange reverse, this fortunes twist from tender dalliance to tragedy. He plotted cold revenge upon that placed Teuton's bead. Beneath the windows of Guy's Hospital we once more marched, our footsteps churchward bent. He had the bucket ready filled with lee-cold water. On Frankein's military tonne he cast an angry, vengeful eve. But disappointed love made his hand tremble; he missed aim! Upon my innocent head the floods from heaven broke. For Germany's misleeds poor England suffered:

THE GALLANT ICEMAN. I had the same sensation once again that evening when the door slammed shut upon the gullant iceman and myself.

We clambered on his wagon once again and tried another boarding house-also in vaint I must sign an agreement to stay there one week at least and pay $5 in thought it was a dreary looking place, but glad I was to ust there.

I thunked my kindly deeman, and he stood there fumbling with his hat He was a well-dressed, etylish youth, so different from that class of workingman at home. "Gre-white" said he as I leid out my hand to bid him thanks and an adlen, "maybe I wouldn't like to have a date with you! Maybe I wouldn't like to ley your steady! I suppose you wouldn't think of me as a steady fellow."

To "have a date"—what could he mean? He must be affering some fruit to me. And "steady fellow"—why, of course he

He must be offering some fruit to me. And "steady fellow"—why, of course he was! One saw it in his face.
"I know you are a steady man," I said. "I'm sure you're splended at your work. I won't take anythink to wit though, thank you. They'll get me supper when I so inside Good night." He gazed at me in mank astonishment. "Good—night!" he said, with a strange pulse between each word, and a strange emphasis on each. It sounded like a new slang word to me. "Good—night! Ain't girls the oddest, funniest things."

I entered the hotel and ordered tea.

girls the ordest furnish though I entered the hotel and ordered tea. The negro waitings seemed to think that strange. She brought at last a grimy strange. She brought at last a grimy tray, and I poured out that tea so experive. I was so tired and thirsty, and at such times an Englishweman's standby is a cup of tea. Alas, alas! for rosy hopes of the cup that cheers but not inchriates." Its villainous taste still lingua

That night I slept my soundest sleep for many a day, for I was quite worn out. I think that disappointments bring a greater physical exhaustion in their train than any mers bodily effort ever could. THE NEXT MOUNTNO.

Next morning, I woke early to a blasing day. I used to love the sunlight as it gently shope on English woods and fields. It made the little weakly things-people and plants-grow big and strong. The and folks at the cottage doors sat in the santight all day long. But this fleron glaring sun harts and destroys the weakly things. The poor old people in the streets are overcome, while great strong men mop their wet foreheads wearily Strange Insects barried bround my room in that hotel, for I had drawn the wine dow down from the tap, I soon found sit what a mosquite blie is like!

I breakfasted, then sat wrapped in deep thought, reviewing my position. My assets now were but $7 in the world, good health and a courageous heart-and if that failed? It must not fail, it should rot tail.

"I am the Master of art Pato
I am the Castain of my Soults.

endd f courageously. The tide must surely turn for me, and I shall work so and I t must."

Next, I then planned a sort of working scheme. A private secretaryship to me seemed most attractive. Such hosts must be quite plentful in this great city. I fondly pictured a nice residential post.

fondly pictured a nice residential post, with pleasant occuration, pleasant bours. My letter saon must reach my mode, and, anyhow, I would request his new address be given me at the general post-office. Thither I set off honefully. Another disamointment awalled me there. "Gene off, with no present address given," was all that they could tell me I asked them to direct me to the marrest employment agency—and there another and disillusionment awaited me.

AT THE EMPLOYMENT AGENCY. It was a lorge low room; and at a desk a stern-faced woman sat, with two andstants close belitted. On a long row of chairs were tired women workers of all since, all with a shift and anathetic look. To me there was a pathon in that room, in their strained, anxious faces. Would I over grow to be like one of these? Ah.

quired what I course eye which strangely clear and penetrating eye which strangely disconcerted me. I know she summed me disconcerted me. I know she summed me.

MRS. RUDOLPH BLANKENBURG Who discusses the question of the woman worker, hold? How many years of experience as a stenographer lie behind you? None? Dear, dear? What machines van you operate The usual ones, I suppose, such as the Remington, Monarch, Underwood? What! You can't typewrite at all! What shorthand speed have you. Oh, none at all! Can you keep books? You know the routine of office work, of course? Well, well, you'll never get a secretarial position here! Take my advice and go into a store—or be a cook, it pays quite well.

"I cannot cook," I murmured faintly,
"If I were you I'd so right home and learn something useful before I came out looking for employment here", said the stern-faced woman sharply, as she turned to the next applicant in that long, tired

A great ioneliness came over me and seemed to swamp all my embarrasument. Depetedly, I turned and left that dreary

She is not fair to outward view.
As many midden be:
Her loveliness I never knew Until she smiled on me.
O then I saw her eye was bright
A well of love, a string of light.

Hit now her looks are cov and cold.
To mine they no or reply.
And yet I coake not to behold.
The love-limit in her eve.
Her very frowns are fairer far.
Than amiles of other maidens are.
H. COLERISM

PRESBYTERY PLANS MISSION HERE FOR JEWS' CONVERSION

The Rev. Henry L. Hellyer, idea of warfare. When women have a should worry."

the Jewish residents. The project has be well, and have a fine physique, is Hard times has struck our house and the indersement of some of the most being killed, while the lame and the my father and oldest brother are out prominent clergymen of the Presbyterian enomination here. The mission is to erian Church. This body intends to folow the work and watch results here with a view to extending Christian miswark among the Jews in other tios of the country. The Rev. Henry L. Hellyer, a Christian ew, of New York City, and a graduate f the Princeton Theological Seminary, is that he believes much can be aclahed for the Christian Church by establishment of such a mission. He idrewood the meeting of presbytery in his city last Monday, urging the Chris-ian mission work among the Philadel-Jews, and was warmly received, v. Mr. Hellyer has been called, by leading Preabyterian clergymen, the best informed Christian minister on the anditions of the Jawish people. has he made an extensive study of Jewish people and their religions in ourts of the United States, but during the fast year he traveled through works tussia and made an extensive survey of he Jewish conditions there, and pur-cularly investigated the success of Jew-

LEWS RESPOND FREELY.

The Rev. Mr. Hellyer told the Presbybemple have responded freely in mans yes to the work of the Christian misthe Hoard of Home Missions of the I le terlan Church, with a view to mis-work in American cities among the in his talk to the clergyn In we Jewish residents in this city and that there is not a single effort on the part of the Presbyterians to give these Jews the Christian gospel. In closing the Rev Mr Hellver made an earnest gipeal that the work he started and ofvanced rapidly, declaring that he wanted to see the people of his rame here We an opportunity to become Chris-

Rev. Mr. Heliyer declared he has found but many of the younger generation of level are fast drifting away from the kinds of religion and becoming infidels. Because of this, he insisted, it is important that the Christian people offer them, the rhance to become followers of their helps before it is too late.

Although no definite action was taken regarding the founding of the Presbyte-rian mission for Jewish work, assurance was given by leaders of Prescytery that the suburban municipality expects to the plans are to establish such work here move its offices to the large stone house before many mean's Attention was called about next May. disconcerted me. I know she summed me up as "needle-bett" at a glaine. Her the support the work is to have from up as "needle-bett" at a glaine. Her the Board of Home Missions. These plans were like her eye, most penetrating, and raing through that long room.

"A private secretaryship," said she.

"I'pon my word, you don't mind aiming highly the Board of Home Missions. These plans were amounteed by men of such promisence in the denomination, and were half-builded on the property. As Lower Meriod's needs have increased many fold with such general approval by the clargymen that there remains little doubt about the establishment of the mission.

MRS. BLANKENBURG DEPLORES THE WAR AS IRREPARABLE EVIL

of Race — Women Conthe Key to Happiness.

the Mayor of Philadelphia, has returned don't like my teacher,' was the answer to town after two months spent at her of a plump, snub-nosed little girl, "She country home in Pocono Pines, followed Siways had a spite on me and she knows by a fertnight in September at Atlantic it, too. When anything went wrong she anti-suffragists that women cannot fight. to pick at. I have a job as a cash girl." ut the anti-suffragists overlook the "I should worry," exclaimed a more war," continued Mrs. Blankenburg earn- mill." The Presbytery of Philadelphia plans eatly, "Is that the hale and hearty young o establish a mission in this city for man, who, before he is accepted by the the purpose of teaching Christianity to army authorities, must see well, and uel T., 'but I'll have to go to work, blind and the feeble stay at home to of work. So I guess I have a right to be the fathers of the next generation, earn something for the family. I'm fare weakens a nation so much."

Mrs. Blankenburg has just given up the vice presidency of the General Fed-eration of Women Workers, as she finds cannot devote the necessary time you think the woman worker is

I think that every man and woman, no Mayor's wife. "It gives them a wider outlook in every way, too. No matter who earns their own living, it is hard work. It is a difficult thing to get started into a way of comfortably earning a making it easier for them to be prophome to work they cannot be too well equipped."

"In you think the very rich weman works as hard as the average middle-ciass worker, who same her own liv-ticularly investigated the success of Jew- Thore are a great many kinds of ish evangelization on the European con- work," said Mrs. Blankenburg, "A great many rien women who are supposed to than many a poor woman. You cannot five in locary and elegance without having a good dead of care along with it?

"Do you think there is as much hapis among the poor as among the

I think," said Mrs. Blankenburg, "that for people, provided they are not togils hungry or in want, have as much cance to be suppy as the rich. In fact, think the man or woman who has a unfortable home and a little money IS should like," she continued, "as a suffragist, to express my gratification that the Endisc Home Journal had so sing an elitorial in its September would be well for women to get ready for the ballot."

teachings of their amosstors and leaving the City Hall For Lower Merion the City Hall For Lower Merion to the Commissioners Buy Site Township Commissioners Buy Site for $47,000.

Lower Merion Township is to have a chused for somewhere around $17,000 the Nobley A. Warner property and a portion of the Knochs estate property adjoining on the Lancaster pike, at Ardmore, and

WHIMS AND NEEDS PROMPT CHILDREN IN QUITTING SCHOOL

35 Seek Sanction to Terminate Education—"I Should Worry," Girl Explains. "Father Dead." Another.

Eighteen boys and seventeen girls apolfed today at the headquarters of the Bureau of Compulsory Education, 1522 Cherry street, for legal permission to terminate their school careers and begin work in the stores or factories. Several of the children were questioned as to the causes which made them ask for labor certificates. The answers were re-

The first applicant was a little girl, whose wan face indicated she had never known any other condition than poverty and that heavy responsibilities had checked her normal development.

"My father was killed in a railroad accident," she stammered, "and ever garten, since that time my mother has had a hard time of it. She worked last year as a scrublady in an office building, but want to die and leave us kids all alone she's better give up that job. So she brotner, who always made good money half time, and it's up to me to go to

Edward G., a robust lad of 16, apparently was delighted over his prospects. Either I was dumb or else I was lazy," ie confessed, "Anyway, I never was any good in school. Half the time I didn't get promoted, and my father thinks I'd be better off at work. My mother thinks so, too, and my uncle says I'll make a good mechanic. I was always handy with nails and hammers and things like that. I can make furniture, and Men Killed in Battle Flower nobody ever taught me, either,

"When anything gets broken around the house I can fix it. So I'm going to work as a carpenter's apprentice. I'm servators of Peace—Work soing to get $1 a week and I am going to pay a dollar board every week, too. Maybe I ain't glad,"

"TEACHER A "TYRANT."

'I am going to quit school because always blamed it on me. She said I On the devastation and suffering of didn't tell the truth and I was stupid warfare Mrs. Blankenburg holds decid- and I was always coming to school late ed views. "I think this war, as war, and I had dirty hands and that I never s a terrible thing," said she, "and I studled, and, oh, you ought to hear all kno wthat, when the women of the the nasty things she use to say about peace. It is a stock argument of the quit, and now I wonder who she's going net that it is the women who produce optimistic girl. "I got a job in a ribthe fighters. I know many mothers bon factory, and maybe they'll like me the want their children to go and fight and give me a raise and maybe they for their country, but I believe that won't. Maybe I won't like them and then the majority of women hate the very I'll quit. I'm going to take a chance. I voice in the Government it will be far Pop says if I want spending money a Christian Jew, Coming more difficult to have war! Personally, I'll have to work for it," was the reason when I think of the widows and orphans given by M-year-old Charles L. "He says Here to Take Up the left I can find no excure nor apology the time and if I want to go to movies

HARD TIMES BOY'S REASON.

"I ain't got a job yet," confided Samhe established with the support of the Board of Home Missions of the Fresby- fare weakens a nation so much." half glad I'm going to quit school, because when I'm working I can go out cause when I'm working I can go out at nights, but I'm sorry that I'll have to quit my education. They say you can't ever amount to anything without an education. Anyway, the teacher gave me some old books to keep and when I get time after I have a job I am going Henry R. had decided upon an experi-I am going to gult school for a while, anyway," he said, "and I think I'll go to work as an office boy. If I like it I'll stick and if I don't I'll go back to school. I'm young yet and I got plenty time to try things out. When 'm a man I want to be a prize fighter. for that yet.'

All of the applicants were between the nges of 14 and 16. Children younger than that cannot leave school and chil-Children younger dren who have attained their 18th birth-day are not required to obtain labor certificates. Remarkable differences were noted in the height of the various hildren. One boy was six feet tall and other who stood near him, measured but little more than the average child

OPEN-AIR WINTER SCHOOL TO BEGIN SECOND YEAR

Students in Eskimo Garb to Study and Live Outdoors. The Phebe Anna Thorne Open Air Model

School, the Bryn Mawr College institution which is expected to revolutionize elementary education, will reopen for its second year September 30, with two classes of fifteen students each. There will be two additional studies, modeling and nature study, which will broaden the aiready advanced courses.

This year a second class of fifteen girls will be included. Dr. Castro will continue as head of the school. She will each English. Other instructors are: Dr. Eunice M. Schenek, teacher of French Dr. Swindler, Latin; Miss Virginia Garber, modeling and drawing; Placido Montoliu, Jacques-Dalcroze, curgh-cs; Miss Constance M. K. Applebee, ector of athletics and symnastics at Bryn Mawr College, directing athletics in the open-air school; Miss Anna W. Clark, bature study; Miss Frances Brown, geog-raphy and history; Dr. Kate Gordon, rithmetic and mechanical drawing.
During the school year the students, ndled in Eskimo sults, live and stud in the open air. Last year's class, which returns for second-year work, was wonderfully healthy and developed a prizing capability for advanced study.

Connecticut Methodists Celebrate HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 26. - Metho dists of Connecticut today celebrated the anniversary of the founding of Methodism in this State at Stratford in 1759

KAISERIN SOOTHES PANGS OF WOUNDED, VISITING EACH COT

'Kinder, Kirche Und Kuchen" Replaced by Practical Hospital Service—Example Inspires Berlin Women to Fortitude.

BERLIN, Sept. 26. No small part of the fortitude with which the women of Germany are bearing the hardships of war is due to the inspiring example of the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, who is practically giving her whole time to the work of visiting the sick and wounded soldiers.

She has given up her residence at Potsdam Palace, where she usually spends this time of the year when in town, and is living with her daughter-in-law, Princess Eitel Friedrich, in the quiet little Bellevue Palace, just off the Tier-

Every morning a severely plain, gray motorcar, not bearing the Imperial standard which usually flutters from automothe doctor told her that if she didn't biles occupied by members of the Imperial family, draws up before the palace door, and the Kaiserin steps in with one did. And now Jimmle, that's my oldest of her ladles in waiting. Frequently she is accompanied either by Crown Princess working in a silk mill, is only working Cecilie, Princess August Wilhelm, Princess Eitel Friedrich, or her daughter, Princess Victoria Louise, now Duchess of Brunswick.

FLOWERS FOR SOLDIERS The car is filled with huge baskets of ut flowers, intended for distribution among the soldiers.

The military hospitals in Berlin are widely scattered over the large area from the garrisons at Doeberitz in the northwest to hospital sheds which have been rected on Tempelhofer Feld. To visit even a part of them in the course of a week would be impossible, but the Kalserin is untiring and conscientiously endeavors to visit not only every hospital, but every cot.

When there is not time to finish with a hospital in the morning, she comes back the next day, beginning her visit where it left off, in order that no single soldier will be disappointed. No soldier falls to receive a keepsake in the form of a flower, and it is pathetic to see the care with which the wounded men treasure with which the wounded men treasure these souvenirs of her coming. However busy the day, she usually finds time for a few words with every

Another member of the royal family ho is indefatigable in helping the Red Cros and the work of other relief organizations is the Crown Princess Cecille, whose immense popularity among all classes has been immeasurably increased by her hard, self-sacrificing work in be-half of the poor and relatives of the men in the field. PRINCESS BENEFICENT.

Just as the Kaiserin has devoted herself especially to the wounded soldiers. the Crown Princess has made the fatherless families the subject of her special care, and people's kitchens opened in cess in no small measure to the energy with which she has thrown herself into the work. She often soup and bread, distributed in generous portions at the price of 10 pfennings a plate; not infrequently on busy days she various parts of Berlin owe their suchas made her own midday meal upon the regular kitchen fare. Following her example, many of the richest and most fashionable women of German society have gone to work with a will to help the relief societies, and the spectacle of a lady of high title, with her sleeves rolled up, ladling out bowls of soup for hours at a time, is no longer a

ACROSS THE COUNTER

The output of inexpensive gloves that are, nevertheless, very good looking, appears to increase to meet an increasing demand.

There is a glove of a woven material called leatherette that requires very close inspection to distinguish it from doeskin or suede.

These leatherette gloves in greys and tans are sold for 50 cents a pair.

A chamoisette glove that clesely resembles white suede is sold in the 12button length for $1. Children's chamoisette gloves in chamois color and gray and tan cost 50 cents a

These gloves wash very well, and it is advised by the dealers to use cold or tepid water rather than hot and to let them lie in soapsuds instead of rubbing them too vigorously.

So far there seems to be no very great increase in price in the staple kid gloves.

A very good quality of street glove with one clasp sells for $1 now. This is the many shades of tan. Another good glove at the same price a doeskin in the different shades of gray. Capeskin gloves for women and children are selling for $1.25 a pair. These are a sensible glove for shopping and for school wear in the case of children. The very smart doxskin glove, hand-sewn and of English make, costs $1.50. At the same price there is a heavy dogskin glove with one clasp and with utseams. Whether or not the price of gloves will rise as the supply dimishes is a matter of conscience on the one hand and conecture on the other.

But even if the price remains stationary, there may come a time when kid gloves will be out of the market alto-gether, if the European war lasts for several years, as it is predicted that it will by many military men.

Showing a collection of smart Tailored Suits, Gowns and Afternoon Frocks for the ultra-fash-

> 1603 Walnut Street Philadelphia

Child's frock of striped material with sash and plaiting of silk.

PLUCKY AMERICAN GIRL EARNS MONEY TO FLEE WAR ZONE

Safe in London, Art Student Refuses Aid After Helping Refugees on the Conti-

LONDON, Sept. 26. Miss Samilla L. Jameson, a young girl who has been studying art in Vienna, has arrived in London from The Haguepenniless and alone-but in every other respect unique among the thousands of American refugees who have arrived in London during the last two months. For Miss Jameson not only does no demand that the American Relief Com mittee supply her with means to reach her home in Logansport, Ind., but re-fuses to accept assistance from any

"I shall earn my way home or stay here until I have done so," she said. She earned her way from Vienna to Berlin, from Berlin to The Hague and from The Hague to London.

"There were enough people who really couldn't do anything in Vienna," she added, "without able-bodied and intelligent Americans taking advantage of the whole-hearted generosity of volunjust told them I'd for the committee until I had carned enough to get me out of Europe. "After I'd earned my passage to Ber-lin I went there and offered my services to Major Ryan, in charge of the Amer-lean Committee. He was very short-handed especially in the lost baggage department, so I jumped in and helped try to locate thousands of trunks that were scattered from one end of the German Empire to the other. "After two weeks in Berlin things had cleared up sufficiently to warrant my leaving and paying my fare to The Hague, where I found the American Committee even worse off for assistants.

"Assistant Secretary of War Breckerridge gave me a job for three days.
I worked from 8 a. m. till 10 at night.

My chief job was doing 'scoring' work.
"A great many wealthy Americans in Vienna refused to believe conditions were going to become very serious so far as they were concerned, and had settled down to stay until the war was over. "Secretary Breckenridge had urgent orders to force every American to get away. He made me a deputy to convince these scoffers that they'd better 'get.' "Consequently I had to stay at The Hague ten days helping the committee. This fixed me so I could get to London Miss Jameson, however, is confident that "something will turn up," and de-clares she can earn steerage passage to New York without difficulty. She man aged to save her baggage in her circuitous travels.

Feather Shop.

Fashion bespeaks the revival of feathers for fall and winter, and plumes, feather novelties and Paradise will be the premier factoring. favorites.

Bring us your discarded feathers, Paradlae or fancies; our art of reconstruction saves you expense—and we will make them into any of the correct styles. Old feathers made like new.

Call and inspect our feather fancies.

New plumes and French feather designs at moderate prices.

Feathers curled on your hat while you wait.

Mailhot chestnut (2d Floor) Take Elev. Street Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention

@mmings@al

Stands Either Test, Scale or Fire

Yards-Main Office 413 N. 13th

NOVELTY PREVAILS IN JUVENILE MODES FOR AUTUMN WEAR

Variety Sought From Norfolk and "Middy" Suits, Plaited Skirts and Appropriate Trimming Mark New Styles.

To dress a child suitably and becomingly requires careful thought and planning. There are one or two styles, such as the Norfolk suit and the sailor mit that year after year still fold their plants as both "smart" and practical.

Children desire variety, however, as much as their elders, and they are very much inclined to rebel if they are limited to these set styles, though certainly it is better to be on the side of dressing them too plainly, rather than have them them too plainly, rather than have the appear in clothes that are too elabora over-trimmed At present the fashion magazines and the shops show many new ideas for dresses for little girls. These are very charming, and a number are both pretty

It is almost criminal to dress a chiffin something that is distasteful to he when there is so much from which choose. The stripes and plaids that find suc a conspicuous place in the costume showing are usually favorites with little and quaint.

girls, perhaps because they are brigi and gay.

They are both more effective when the are treated simply than in any other manner, and there are various ways of using plaids and stripes without very much in the way of trimming. The little dress in the illustration h made of striped gabardine, with a dul gray-blue as the foundation color. This with a darker blue stripe and a line canary color, makes a very harmon

The long waist of the dress, cut on the bias, fastens under the tucks in front The sleeves are set into a rather long shoulder and are cut with the stripe ru shoulder and are cut with the stripe running lengthwise.

The sailor collar and turned-backed cuffs are finished with a narrow accordion plaiting of a soft silk that just matches in tone the gray blue of the foundation color of the stripe.

The skirt is knife-plaited and is set on quite full, and the little sash is cut on the bias of the silk and is fastened at the back under a bow which has a silk-covered buckle at its centre instead of covered buckle at its centre instead Knife-plaited and accordion-plaited skirts are being used again to a great extent, and in the shops that cater to the juvenile trade the platted skirts are used for school frocks as well as for oth Striped materials, unless they are in t very heavy weaves, lend themselves par ticularly well to plaiting of any kind but the knife plaiting is particularly de sirable, as it seems to stay in place a least a reasonable length of time. And the short skirts that children we seem to stay in place longer than if full-length ones that grown-up peop

HOUSEWIVES' EQUILIBRIUM MAY PREVENT RISE IN SUGAR

Wholesalers Attribute Price Advance To Unusual Volume of Purchases. Housewives of Philadelphia may pr vent a further rise in the cost of suga according to wholesale grocery men. refusing to listen to advices to buy he and veiled predictions of a rise in the near future. There will be no advanta in the prices unless it is forced by consumers, the wholesale men say.

Sugar yesterday was selling at a drop of a half cent in the last three days. The recent spectacular advance in the price of the commodity have been The recent spectacular advance due largely to the housewives, according to the wholesale men. Consume follow advice to buy in large quantities and thus cause a demand that force up the price.

Francis B. Reeves, Jr., of Reeves, Par vin & Co., wholesale grocers, of 116 South Delaware avenue, and Comley, Flanigan & Co., 118 South Delaware avenue, sub-scribed to the suggestions. At the ofscribed to the suggestions. At the of-fice of the latter firm the opinion was expressed that there is no danger any appreciable rise in the near future

WEDDING Invitations Innouncements. At Home Cards

Very distinctive effects, fin-ished in form, and correct in detail. Hand engraved by masters of the craft on finest Hurd's Steel White Suede Stock SPECIAL OFFER As an extra special induce-ment we will engrave 50 cards in script for $1.25. Copper plate becomes your property, but will be held for future orders, if you wish.

WM. H. HOSKINS CO.

904 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa

DANCING

PALACE BALLROOM 39th and Market OPENS WEDNESDAY NIGHT SEPTEMBER 30

Receptions every Monday, Wednesday Saturday evening, with largest orches Admission, ladies, 25c; gentlemen, 35 ce MODERN DANCE CLASSES eith largest orchestra.
Admission, 25 Cents

A courteous staff of good a CHAS. J. COLL'S Corner 38th and Market Street Beginners' and Dancers' Class in the Modern Dances Tuesday & Friday, $1 Per Mont Polite Assemblies, Mon. and Sal

Opening of Our Branch School 40th and Market Streets Two Thousand People Wante PALACE BALLROO

Watch This Column for the 39th and Market Streets Wednesday Night, Sept. 30th