

BANKS URGE DEFEAT OF INTERLOCKING DIRECTORATE BILL

Clearing House Here Tells Congress Measure Would Be a Serious Blow to Financial Institutions.

Bankers in this city are urging defeat of Section 8 of the Clayton anti-trust bill, which would prohibit interlocking directorates. The bill is now before Congress. Urging that this section of the bill, as far as it affects banks and trust companies, be stricken out, telegrams were today sent by the Philadelphia Clearing House Association to the chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate and House, Senators Penrose and Oliver and members of the House of Representatives from Philadelphia.

Attention is called to the fact that if this section is incorporated into law it will cause an entire rearrangement of the directors of many banks and trust companies, and men who have a wide business experience will be barred from action as directors, thus causing a serious blow to the institutions. At a time when the new currency system is about to be placed in operation these men will be needed more than ever before, say the bankers.

The telegrams, signed by Joseph Moore, Jr., president of the Philadelphia Clearing House Association and of the National Bank of Northern Liberties, and Levi L. Rue, chairman of the Clearing House Committee and president of the Philadelphia National Bank, read as follows:

It is our opinion that if section 8, Clayton anti-trust bill, which would prohibit interlocking directorates, is adopted by Congress and becomes law, it will deal a serious blow to the banks and trust companies of this country, and the country, and while doubtless intended to conserve the powers of the banks, it is really most detrimental to those interests. The country has placed in the hands of the banks and trust companies the management of the country's money, and the country has placed in the hands of the banks and trust companies the management of the country's commerce and trade of the world. The bill as written will strip these institutions of many of the ablest men on their boards of directors.

We therefore most respectfully urge upon Congress that section 8, of the Clayton anti-trust bill, which would prohibit interlocking directorates, be stricken out.

GRAIN EXPORTS INCREASE

August-September Records This Year Better Than in 1913.

Grain exports for August and September of this year are in excess of the figures for the same months last year in spite of the war in Europe. Early next week a still further increase will be recorded when the British steamship Oakland Orange sails with 400,000 bushels of oats, believed to be the largest cargo of that commodity ever shipped from this port to Europe.

Cargoes totaling 1,500,000 bushels were shipped from this port in 20 vessels in August, 1913. This year but nine ships sailed with cargoes of 843,721 bushels, owing to the slump brought about by the war. Shipping for a time was virtually at a standstill and rates became almost prohibitive.

COCAINE FIEND IN CELL

BEGS POLICE FOR DRUG

Young Man, Caught in a Round-up, Sent to Hospital.

Denied his hourly doses of cocaine, James Lynch, who says he comes from a prominent family on Allegheny avenue and was once going to study for the ministry, is dangerously ill in his cell at the Tenth and Buttonwood streets police station, where he is held by Magistrate Hecher for $500 bail as a cocaine peddler.

Young Lynch was arrested early this morning at Eleventh and Vine streets during a round-up of drug sellers by Special Officers Haines and Vesecker. He will be taken to a hospital today and treated for the drug habit.

Lynch had a good-sized package of cocaine hidden under an elastic arm band when he was searched at the police station. He was in his shirt sleeves, and it is believed he sold his coat to buy the drug. Vice squad officers have been watching Lynch for several weeks in the belief that he was distributing drugs to Tenth and Vine street habitués.

Lynch told the police that he has been using drugs for two years. He began just after he was graduated from High School. He was in a Chinese restaurant in the Tenth and Vine street police station, where he was held by Magistrate Hecher for $500 bail as a cocaine peddler.

A month later he was a confirmed drug user. Eight months ago he was arrested by Special Officer Haines, who made the arrest this morning. This was just after he had buried his young wife. Since then the drug's inroads have been so marked that Haines hardly recognized the boy when he arrested him.

Lynch boy was in a pitiable condition when he was arraigned this morning before Magistrate Hecher. As soon as his case was disposed of he began begging the police for cocaine. Arrangements were made to take him to the Hahnemann Hospital.

WOULD GIVE AUTO FOR DRINK

Police Accuses Man of Attempting Theft to Satisfy Thirst.

Although the price of whisky has not increased in proportion to the high cost of living, the police say Philip McCullough, of 2315 Vine street, attempted to steal an automobile this morning and exchange it for a drink.

The man was seen tinkering around a car at Sixteenth and Market streets by a Special Policeman McCullough, of the Fifteenth and Vine street station. The policeman, it was said, saw McCullough try to drive the car off. He gave this up as a bad job on finding the machine locked. The man, according to the policeman, the other McCullough took a number of tools from the car and put them in his pocket.

While the two McCulloughs were talking the matter over, Robert M. Horton, the owner of the car, who has offices at 929 Land Title Building, appeared. Horton accompanied the prisoner to the Fifteenth and Vine street station, and McCullough was held in $500 bail by Magistrate Tracy.

PRISONER PUZZLE TO COURT

Then Magistrate Gives It Up and Sentences Sol Salm.

A trip via "blind baggage" from New York to Pittsburgh in order to borrow funds in the latter city with which to return to New York again, was interrupted by Magistrate Boyle this morning, when he sentenced the tourist, who gave his name as Sol Salm, 23 years old, and his home as Portland, Ore., to 10 days in the county prison.

Salm was arrested last night while riding "blind baggage" on a through New York to Pittsburgh train on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He told Magistrate Boyle this morning that he was on his way to Pittsburgh to see a man whom his father had made successful. He declared he wanted to borrow money from him so that he could get back to New York to start work. Magistrate Boyle sent Salm to jail.

Woman, 70, Recovering From Fall

Mrs. Mary Morrissey, 70 years old, of 2815 Terrace street, is at St. Thomas' Hospital today suffering from injuries to her scalp sustained when she was stricken with vertigo and fell on the stone steps in front of her home. Physicians thought at first that because of her age the injury would prove serious, but the woman was so far recovered today that they expect to send her home.

Typical Soldiers of Warring Nations In Sunday's Intaglio

PARKWAY HEARINGS SOON TO BE HELD BY BOARD OF VIEWERS

Property in 10th and 15th Wards, in Section Between 19th and 22d Streets, Will Be Considered.

The Board of Viewers will shortly begin hearings, under an ordinance approved July 2, to authorize the opening of the proposed portions of the Parkway between 19th street and 22d street.

Under the law three months' notice was served on owners of property on July 5, the damage to be settled by the viewers, after evidence has been presented by both sides, or failing to agree, there is an appeal to the courts.

In the portion of the 10th and 15th Wards covered by the ordinance, there are approximately 200 properties. For several years, the city, through a committee, of which the Mayor is chairman, has been purchasing property from any owners willing to sell, at 10 per cent. above the assessed value of the year 1909. Why that year was chosen is a mystery to many, as assessments were afterwards increased.

In this way, out of the 200 properties, the city has taken title to about one-half, leaving approximately 100 properties to be considered, and a proper price paid to the owners of same.

PROPERTIES ON PARKWAY LINE

As the plan before the Board of Viewers is not yet obtainable, the estimated list of properties can be given, the northwest boundary being the southeast line of the Parkway as laid out, and the southwest line of the proceeding runs along the south line of 23d West Logan square, and 27 North 20th street, then in a diagonal line to Wood street, taking in the northeast corner and thence to the north line of 63 North 23d street, where it meets the old Parkway.

Nos. 316-18-20-22-24-26-28-30-32... 15,900

Properties to be acquired show an approximate assessment of, say, $300,000, and represent a value of from $400,000 to $500,000. Eventually, there will be probably seven more properties taken on West Logan square to bring the south line straight to the west side of the street. They will include Nos. 218-220-222-224-226-228-230-232, the total assessment for this year being $109,000 and their value not far from $250,000. This, however, will not be taken under the present notice, but will come up at some future date.

OWNERS ASK PROMPT ACTION

The attitude of owners of property, included within the lines of the Parkway as plotted, is that of being perfectly willing to accept a fair price for their property, but they ask prompt action. On October 5 the city of Philadelphia becomes owner, and the taking is an easement made fast, which has really existed ever since the lines were put upon the city plan.

Losses of rent and low rental, because properties could not be improved, are under the total assessment for this year, considered any more than loss of business.

To show the hardship of delay caused by the City taking property so long ahead of payment on this week the estate of Theodore L. Harrison, Jr., were restrained by a decision of Judge Dickinson in the United States District Court from expending $150,000 in improving properties Nos. 1405-7 Filbert street in the eastern end of the Parkway. A proper return on the value of the property could not be realized in present condition. The Court held that the cost of such improvement on a paper street

At the Theatres

COLONIAL

A new policy will be inaugurated next week at the Nixon Colonial, Germantown, with two shows of entirely different character. For the first three days of next week the bill will include Pollard, of the music hands; the Omega Duo; in tangle talk; the Hamilton brothers; Gibbon; comedians; Bicknell and Gibbon; in a skit, "The Substitute," and the Sig Franz troupe of novelty cyclists.

Beginning Thursday afternoon there will appear Ah Ling Poo, an Oriental magician; Kennedy and Burt, comedy singers; the Masconys, in a dancing act; Evans and Vidocq, comedians, and "The Dream Pirates," in which a dozen Philadelphia lads will take part.

NIXON'S GRAND

"Princess Elizabeth," a remarkable child artist, will make her first appearance in songs and dances at Nixon's Grand Opera House next Monday, "Mother Goose," a favorite musical comedy in miniature, presented by G. C. Mock and company, will head the bill. Other features will be Lamb's Marking, an act to amuse children and grownups; the Montarch Comedy Four, a quartet of funmakers; and Mills and Moulton, with a merry melange of singing and talking.

PALACE

"Robert Bosworth is the real, three-dimensional Sea Wolf of my novel," declared Jack London, of the chief actor for the "movie" drama based upon his famous romance which will be shown at the Palace next week. London's story is one of adventure and love, the scene in lands unaccustomed to the average traveler.

The manufacturer of "The Sea Wolf," Bosworth, of Los Angeles, has just announced that Miss Lois Weber has been engaged at a salary of $50,000 a year as a scenario writer and actress. Phillips Smalley will assist Mr. Bosworth in directing as well as acting. Courtenay Foote, the celebrated English tenor, the English actor; Miss Adele Farrington, the comedienne; Miss Helen Wolcott, Miss Margaret Edwards, Marshall Stodman and Gordon Sackville have signed up to act for this film.

"CABIRIA" MOVES

"Cabiria," Gabrielle D'Annunzio's motion picture drama of the third century, will move from the Chestnut Street Opera House to the Academy of Music next Monday afternoon. It will be continued for two weeks, showing each afternoon and evening.

"QUO VADIS"—METROPOLITAN

George Kleine's original production of "Quo Vadis," one of the most magnificent motion picture plays ever produced, will be shown at the Metropolitan Monday, Tuesday, on Tuesday, Mary Pickford, in "Ramona," one of her best and prettiest plays, will be a feature. Klav and Erlanger's great dramatic success, "Strongheart," will be exhibited on Thursday, and on Friday Klav and Erlanger's comedy, "Seven Days."

LITTLE THEATRE

The sale of subscription seats for the coming season at the Little Theatre opened this week, and will continue until October 5, when the sale of seats for the performance of "Arms and the Man" will begin. H. Iden Payne, who will be stage director, will arrive from England next week and begin rehearsals for the first production. He will bring with him the rights to a number of clever one-act plays which will be included in the winter's plays.

THE WALNUT

A musical comedy, based on George McManus' cartoon series of "Bringing Up Father," by Gus Hill, will be given for the first time at the Walnut Street Theatre next week.

The Victim

It was a wizened little man who appeared before the Judge and charged his wife with cruel and abusive treatment. His better-half was a big, square-jawed woman, with a determined eye.

"In the first place, where did you meet this woman who has treated you so dreadfully?" asked the Judge.

"Well," replied the little man, making a brave attempt to glare defiantly at his wife, "I never did meet her. She just kind of overtook me."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.
