

ATHLETICS TO ENJOY ROMP WITH BROWNS TODAY—MACKMEN SURE OF PENNANT NOW

PHILADELPHIANS ARE IN LINE FOR CHALMERS TROPHY

Eddie Collins, Alexander and Magee Have Wrought Nobly This Year—Phils Play Reds Today.

When the committee appointed for that purpose awards the Chalmers trophies for 1914 the names of Philadelphians are apt to stand at the top in both the American and National Leagues.

High Chalmers, the donor of the automobile, suggested that the committee award the prizes not to the man who, in their opinion, was the most finished performer in each league, but to the player who had been most valuable to his team.

No matter what details are to be considered, it is difficult to see how Eddie Collins could be overlooked. He is not only recognized by most experts as the world's greatest ball player, but he has been this season the most valuable man on the Athletics team.

That Connie Mack realized fully the value of his great second sacker was shown when he permitted him recently to sign a contract at his (Collins') own terms.

While not equalling the actual baseball ability of Collins, both Alexander and Captain Magee, of the Phils, have surpassed the Athletics' star in relative utility.

Incidentally, the Evening Ledger is eager to announce that it has secured the services of this great player as a writer of the world's great play, Eddie is going to play, of course, and it is going to write the news himself.

MACK'S ATHLETICS LEAGUE CHAMPIONS FOR SIXTH TIME

Flag of 1914 Won When Bender Shut-out Browns and Red Sox Lost One Game of Double-header.

WHAT CONNIE MACK HAS DONE SINCE 1901

Won pennants in the American League in 1902, 1906, 1909, 1911, 1912, 1914. Won world's championship in 1909, defeating the Chicago Cubs under Frank Chance in four out of five games.

Won world's championship in 1911 from New York Giants under John J. McGraw in four out of six games. Won world's championship in 1913 from New York Giants under John J. McGraw in four out of five games.

Has established major league record for winning pennants. Has won more world's championships than any other manager.

Last winter Connie Mack had a new steel flag pole constructed and placed in the northeast corner of Shibe Park. The pole cost the Athletics approximately $100.

When Connie Mack glanced over the percentage columns yesterday morning at his hotel in St. Louis, he must have easily noted the fact that if his team won from the Browns, and the Red Sox were beaten once in their afternoon's double-header, that he would clinch the championship.

By capturing the pennant in 1914, Connie Mack has established a world's managerial record, having won six flags in ten seasons since the inception of the league in 1901.

Gridiron News Gleaned From Leading Colleges

Football Players Enter Upon Another Hard Week of Training in Preparation for Big Games Next Saturday.

BY EDWARD B. BUSHNELL

Whether or not Pennsylvania will have a football team of championship proportions or one of only mediocre strength was not disclosed by Saturday's game against Gettysburg.

to have their men in a position where they could properly judge the work of the players.

Virtually all of the faults evident in the work of the Red and Blue were due to lack of practice, an entirely new back field and lack of unity between the back field and the line.

After all the publicity that has been given to the new rule barring coaches from the side lines there was a good deal of surprise in the stands and the press box over the fact that both sides ignored the rule.

Attention should be called to the fact that neither side properly interpreted the rule. Each assumed that the rule distinctly barred coaches from the side line and seemed to feel that a trainer might remain there with propriety.

By any fair interpretation of this rule neither Dwyer nor O'Brien had any right on the side line. But since the whole rulebook has no official standing, but is accepted by common consent, any rule may be suspended or changed by the captain of the two teams.

There were no surprises on other gridirons, unless Cornell's defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh could be so classed.

PLAN 1915 LESLEY CUP MATCHES TO BE MORE INTERESTING

Representatives at Dinner in New York Decide to Have Four Picked Men From Each State.

There is a possibility that the tri-state matches for the Robert W. Lesley Cup will be far more interesting another year.

The plan is to have four men selected from each district, preferably those who have played in past Lesley Cup matches.

Yale's eleven astonished its supporters by a wide open offensive attack, which brought out many sensational forward passes.
