1000 TRAIL HITTERS FROM SCRANTON WILL AID SUNDAY'S WORK

Ministerial Union Hears Plans to Carry on the Campaign Here-Slap at Senator Penrose.

An indirect thrust at Senator Penrose was made today at a meeting of the Min-Interial Union, held at the Central Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, Arch street above Broad. The meeting, attended by several hundred elergymen of all denominations, was called primarily to indorse the "Billy" Bunday campaign.

The proceedings had been under way but a short time when the Rev. Dr. H. C. Woolston presented a report of the Executime Committee, which urged all to unite for the cause of temperance in the coming campaign. The report recommended that a committee be appointed of two members of each church to enlist voters to support the union's anti-saloon platform. The platform urges the people not to support any candidate who will not come out in the open for county local option, nor any national candidate who will not favor a national prohibition law.

The report, adopted without a dissenting vote, was greeted with prolonged ap-The Rev. George D. Dowey, secretary of the "Billy" Sunday Scranton meeting told of the work in Scranton, and said there had been 17,000 real conversions as a result of the energetic evangelist's

By way of arousing enthusiasm we will bring down a thousand trail hitters from Scranton to occupy 500 Philadelphia pulpits on the last Sunday in October. These men are sincere, and they will lose their jobs, if it's necessary, to be here. We will have 20 mass-meetings that day and there will be 50 speakers at each." The speaker asked the ministers to cooperate and endeavor to have 50,000 men organized in Bible classes in advance, so that the movement would get a good

Mr. Dowey then introduced A. L. Faunders "as an illustration of a Scranton trail hitter." Faunders made a hit. "I thought Billy Sunday was a faker," he said, "before he came to Scranton. I said I would not go hear him, and I would not let my families go. But, regardless of all I said, something seemed to draw me there so I drifted in. That was the night that Sunday preached on 'Chickens Come Home to Roost.' That settled me; I stopped trying to drink all the beer in town, I stopped going to cock fights, and I got down to real business. Thousands of others did the same. An entire block n Scranton, once known as the block of the beer hoisters, now is known as the block of the beer fighters. The saloon where lock fights used to be held is now

An appeal for peace was made by the William Bamford, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal Church. Led by the Rev. Dr. John Newman, of the Chambers-Wylle Presbyterian Church, ministers then sang "I Love to Tell Story," the hymn used as the battle at the Sunday campaign in Scranton, le Rev. Dr. W. A. ENGLISH SOLDIER WRITES ON POSTCARDS READY-MADE

Word From the Front Bears Message to the Friends at Home.

In order that English soldiers may write to relatives and friends, even under trying difficulties, the English Govern-ment has provided postal cards on which are printed sentences applying to almost any condition of the writer. One of these cards was received today by Mrs. Norman Jefferles, of Nar-berth, from her brother, Harry Pinches, who is an officer in the crack Grenadler Guards now at the front. The card was sent from a battlefield on August 20. At the top of the card it is stated that nothing must be written on it but the date and signature of the sender and that sentences not required may be

The sentences from which the writer nust choose his message are: "I am quite well. I have been admitted into hospital. I am sick, wounded and getting on well, and hope to be discharged soon. I am being sent down to the base. I have received your letter, telegram, par-cel. Letter follows at first opportunity.

I have received no letter from you— lately—for a long time."

Every sentence in the message sent here was crossed out but these two: "I am quite well; letter follows at first opportunity."

President of Manufacturing Company

Accuses Vice President of Slander. Thomas M. Eynon, president of the Eynon-Evans Manufacturing Company, 15th and Clearfield streets, has brought suit against George J. Siedler, director IS22 N. The utterances of which Eynon complains are alleged to have been made by Siedler on July 29, within the hear-ing of Frank E. Emery, an employe of their company, and others. Siedler's re-marks imputed that the plaintiff had not acted properly as a trustee for a widow interested in the concern. Eynon emchatically resents the accusations and says there is absolutely no truth in them. He further declares that Siedler has been bent upon deposing him as head of the concern, which place he desires for himself.

In an effort to obtain the presidency, Siedler, the plaintiff asserts, got a creditor to file a bill in equity asking Eliner N. J.
