1000 TRAIL HITTERS FROM SCRANTON WILL Word From the Front Bears Message AID SUNDAY'S WORK

Ministerial Union Hears Plans to Carry on the Campaign Here-Slap at Senator Penrose.

An indirect thrust at Senator Penrose was made today at a meeting of the Min-Interial Union, held at the Central Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, Arch street above Broad. The meeting, attended by several hundred elergymen of all denominations, was called primarily to indorse the "Billy" Sunday campaign.

The proceedings had been under way but a short time when the Rev. Dr. H. C. Woolston presented a report of the Executime Committee, which urged all to unite for the cause of temperance in the coming campaign. The report recommended that a committee be appointed of two members of each church to enlist voters to support the union's anti-saloon platform. The platform urges the people not to support any candidate who will not come out in the open for county local option. nor any national candidate who will not favor a national prohibition law. The report, adopted without a dissent-ing vote, was greeted with prolonged ap-

The Rev. George D. Dowey, secretary of the "Billy" Sunday Scranton meeting, told of the work in Scranton, and said there had been 17,000 real conversions as a result of the energetic evangelist's

"By way of arousing enthusiasm we will hring down a thousand trail hitters from Scranton to occupy 500 Philadelphia pulpits on the last Sunday in October. These men are sincere, and they will lose their jobs, if it's necessary, to be here. We will have 20 mass-meetings that day and there will be 50 speakers at each."

The speaker asked the ministers to co-operate and endeavor to have 50,000 men organized in Bible classes in advance, so that the movement would get a good

Mr. Dowey then introduced A. L. Faunders "as an Illustration of a Scranton trail hitter." Faunders made a hit. "I thought Billy Sunday was a faker." he said, "before he came to Scranton. I said I would not go hear him, and I would not let my families go. But, regardless of all I said, something seemed to draw me there, so I drifted in. That was the night that Sunday preached on 'Chickens Come Home to Roost.' That settled me; I stopped trying to drink all the beer in town, I stopped going to cock fights, and I got down to real business. Thousands others did the same. An entire block In Scranton, once known as the block of the beer hoisters, now is known as the block of the beer fighters. The saloon where lock fights used to be held is now a mission.

An appeal for peace was made by the Rev. Dr. William Bamford, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal Church. Led by the Rev. Dr. John Newman, of the Chambers-Wylie Presbyterian Church, the ministers then sang "I Love to Teli the Story," the hymn used as the battle ery at the Sunday campaign in Scranton. The Rev. Dr. W. A. Myers, paster of the Pilgrims' Congregational Church, pre-

ENGLISH SOLDIER WRITES ON POSTCARDS READY-MADE to the Friends at Home. is added the post card will be destroyed. order that English soldiers may e to relatives and friends, even under trying difficulties, the English Govern-ment has provided postal cards on which are printed sentences applying to almost any condition of the writer.

One of these cards was received to-day by Mrs. Norman Jefferles, of Narberth, from her brother, Harry Pinches, who is an officer in the crack Grenadier Guards now at the front. The card was sent from a battlefield on August 20. At the top of the card it is stated that nothing must be written on it but the date and signature of the sender and that sentences not required may be crased. The sentences from which the writer must choose his message are: "I am quite well. I have been admitted into hospital. I am sick, wounded and getting on well, and hope to be discharged soon. I am being sent down to the base. I have received your letter, telegram, par-cel. Letter follows at first opportunity. I have received no letter from you—

Vately—for a long time."

Every sentence in the message sent here was crossed out but these two: "I am quite well; letter follows at first opportunity."

OCTOBER 3 LAST DAY FOR VOTERS TO REGISTER

Nearly 200,000 City Electors Must Qualify Then or Lose Privilege.

October 3 will be the last opportunity for nearly 200,000 unregistered citizens in Philadelphia to qualify for the Novem-per election. The division registrars' re-turns show that there are 379,577 citizens qualified to vote. In the two registra-tion days already held this year only 182,510 qualified, leaving 197,067 who will lose their right of franchise unless they register October 3,

An urgent appeal for every independent citizen to register and come to the polls in order that Penrose may be defeated has been sent out from the Washington party headquarters. Two hundred thousand cards pointing out the importance of registration on October 3 have been printed, and these will be distributed in every election division in the city.

Several ministers in the city took occasion casion yesterday to urge every man if their congregations to vote and take a stand for the candidates pledged to the advancement of the people. Among these ministers were the Rev. Peter C. Wright, of the Gethsemane Baptist Church, Eighteenth street and Columbia avenue, and the Rev. John Wiley, of the Oxford Presbyterian Church, Broad and Oxford Streets. ford streets.

FORMER LEWIS SUPPORTER COMES OUT FOR BRUMBAUGH

Forsakes Washington Party as Result of Flinn Deal.

An indication of the attitude of the Washington Party advocates since the withdrawal of William Draper Lewis, the Progressive nominee for Governor, and the subsequent indorsement by the State Committee of Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic nominee, is indicated in a letter written by Dr. James N. Perry, Jr., of 113 West Logan street, Germantown, and made public today by the Brumbaugh Citizens' Committee.

Dr. Perry's letter, which was addressed to Frank S. Harrison, of Wayne avenue, Germantown, reads:-"As a staunch Republican I know it rould interest you to know that I have forsaken the Washington party since the Flinn deal and changed strongly in favor of Dr. Brumbaugh and Senator Penrose and intend to vote the straight ticket and do all in my power to make this election a walkover for the Grand Old Party." DR. BRUMBAUGH WILL SPEAK Father's Condition Permits Him to Word was received today from Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican candidate for Governor, that his father, the Rev. George Boyer Brumbaugh, whose illness yesterday occasioned considerable alarm, was much improved. Doctor Brumbaugh wired from his parents' home that he would leave this afternoon for Du Bois, Pa, where he will speak tonight.

SEEK DUM-DUM BULLET

Physicians to X-Ray Hand of Tony Palluci.

Physicians at the Mt. Sinai Hospital will take an X-ray picture today of the hand of Tony Palluci, of 746 Sears street, in an attempt to locate what is believed to be a dum-dum bullet. Examination of the hand showed that the bullet struck a bone, mushroomed and split into four

Palluci was struggling with Tony Pasquall, of South Eighth street, yesterday morning for the possession of a revolver when the weapon exploded and the supposed dum-dum struck him in the hand. Both men say the struggle was in fun, but Pasquali is being held for a hearing at the Third and Dickinson streets staNew Yorkers, in Patriotic Parade, Pray for War's End.

POLICEMAN'S PERSISTENCE RESULTS IN FOUR ARRESTS

Latest Victim of Brutal Attack, He Finds Alleged Assailants. Bravery and persistence displayed by Policeman Charles Muth, of the Twentieth and Federal streets police station, resulted early today in the arrest of four men who are alleged to have participated in the fourth attack made the last week on policemen of the district. Muth, the latest victim of brutal assaults, although left lying bleeding and unconscious on the street, recovered sufficiently to drag himself to a hospital, them at a hearing in central station

The four defendants are Robert Alcorn, 2014 Dickinson street; William Byrnes, 1904 Morris street; Donald Me-Hhenny, 1516 South Ringgold street, and Samuel Kelly, 2021 Reed street. Alcorn and McIlhenny are said to be frequent law breakers in the district. According to Policeman Muth, he was attacked after arresting Alcorn, who refused to vacate a ! 't corner when ordered from the place. Muth fought vallently, but was no match for his four antagonists, three of whom attacked him from behind, He was besten into unconsciousness and left lying in the street. Recovering later, he went to the Polyelinic Hospital, had his injuries dressed and, with Lieutenant Bennett, of the Twentieth and Federal streets station, returned to the scene and arrested three of the men. Alcorn, who at that time could not be found, was arrested later.
