MACKMEN ENTER UPON THEIR SECOND TRAINING PERIOD-PENN OARSMEN REPORT

ATHLETICS WILL BEGIN ANOTHER TRAINING SIEGE

Collins and Baker Arrived at Noon-Others Will Follow Later - Macks and Phillies Idle Today.

Following a highly successful but not a close and exciting campaign against the American League allies, Connie Mack's six-time champions, are on the verge of their second training season of the year. At noon today Eddle Collins and Frank Baker arrived. Other members of the squad who will be coming into Philadelphia within the next 21 hours are Bender, Plank, Davis, Schang, Barry, Oldring, and possibly Strunk and Mc-

All of these players will take a few days' rest while the Athletics are playing out their schedule in Washington. Baker is going to take a day or so off for the purpose of visiting his farm at Trappe, Md., where he will keep the edge on his batting eye by using the shotgun. Eddin Collins will ensuge chiefly in rest at his home in Lansdowne, with a little literary work thrown in. He is gains to write a few advance stories for the Even-ING LEDGER with reference to the world's

Mack himself will probably be in Washington tomorrow. He will, as usual, leave all of the business details of the series to John Shibe and his corps of assistants, while he devotes his entire time to planning for the series' battles.
There are several youngsters on Connie's string who will be worked against

Today the main body of the Atheries is advancing Eastward. Those players who are sentenced to the Washington series will switch off at Harrisburg, while the others will come through to this city. No game is on the schodule, hence the Mackmen took their time and boarded a comparatively late train out of St. Louis yesterlay.

bridges behind them in their determination to play nothing but open, advanced football. Both Coach Pendleton, of Frinceton, and Coach Hinkey, of Yale, declare that they have abandoned the conservative game and intend to stand or fall by the open game. This is indeed welcome news, because it can't be denied that in the past the games be tween these two teams have been frequently about as dull as most Army-Navy games, with the two teams afraid to open up;

"A coach has not time to convince any one. The man who heads to be comprised to the man who heads to be comprise There is no longer any doubt that "Ted" Merrill has the inside track for the quarterback position on the Pennsylvania eleven. In yesterday afternoon's practice he played this position most of the time, and his work was a continuation of what he did on Saturday against Gettysburg. Merrill is about the only member of the back field who possesses a change of pace back field who possesses a change of pace and who can straight-arm tacklers. Like-wise, he catches punts with some cer-tainty. Merrill's running in the open field is very much like that of Miller, the for-mer Penn State quarterback. Adding a little confidence to Merrill is making a different player of him.

Assistant Coach "By" Dickson is seriously worried over the dearth of first-class ends. The quality of the ends will make or break a team. Speed is not the only regulate, for if it were Pennsyl-

Pennsylvania system requires that the ends shall be heavy men to play against the opposing tackle. This requirement is what makes Murdock's effort to win a position here so difficult. Murdock is willing enough and a born fighter, but throw-ing his 150 pounds against a 150-pound tackle doesn't worry the opposing tackle

PRINCETON, Sept. 28.—A week of Individual coaching for the Princeton footbal candidates was inaugurated yesterday. Some of the regulars, including Captain Ballin Shenk and E. Trenkmann, bas a day off, but he rest of the squad had a long individua preliminary drill. The varsity and scrub mixed it for half an hour and the first-string men won, 21 to 6.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 29.—The Yale football team had its first practice by moonlight last night. The moon shone over the field before Carch Frank Hinkey shouled "All in" to members of the squad. Signal drill for the var-ity and scrimmage for the second and third leams marked the practice. Pumpelly at fullback and Duryea at half played a smashing same for the second team.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 29.—With the Army's opening game less than a week off the football coaches are hard at work. Some of the veterans have forgotten how to catch a punt and the fumiling so much in evidence of late was the zerious theme. Wednasday will sound the death knell to daily paradies for the cadets, and this will give the squad another hour's practice each day.

CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 29. New formations were handed to the varsity Indian players last aight by Chach Warner during Carlisle's experimentation with a much-changed backfield. The coaches desire to save the first team as much as possible, and gave the whole squad only an extended rudimentary drill. The rew plays are for use against Lehigh on Saturday.

NEW VORK, Sept. 25.—Owing to the Ford-ham Varsity's fine showing in holding George-town scoreless in a tie game at Washington on Saturday, a day of rest was granted to the squad yesterday. Coach Wymard was greatly pleased with the result of the contest and the condition of the eleven. Schwab being the only player on the sick list.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Sept. 29.—Coach Daily dismissed most of the Williams regulars after an easy forty minutes signal drill yesterday afternoon. An injury to his knee, received in the R. P. Loss of Young and Kerr Severely Felt by Coach Howell, Who Is Shaping Team for Opening Game.

ELEVEN WEAK AT

Coach Howell, of the Central High School football team, is working his men hard in order to get them in shape for the first game of the season next Friday. The centre of the line and backfield are composed of veterans, and he is not givng as much of his time to these positions as he is to the ends. Last year C. H. S. had the best pair of scholastic ends in Philadelphia in Young and Kerr, but neither man is now in school, and the material for the wing positions is not very good.

The most likely of the candidates are DeLong, Brenner and Goodell, and it is WILLIAMS PROVED probable that the first two of these will make the regular berths, although the latter, who is from Villanova, is very fast and may make a place on the team

Coach Dickens, the new man in charge of football and other athletics at Chestnut Hill Academy, has been working since last Wednesday with a promising squad of youngsters to get them in shape for the first game of the season with Frankford High School, to be played next Saturday at Chestnut Hill.

The squad consists of about 25 candidates, including only five veterans from last year, Captain Gaillard, Ellison and Heberton, backfield men, and Wray and Flood, ends. There are some good men from last year's second team, Felin, a tackle and one of the heaviest men on the squad; Strawbridge, a centre; Wharton, a guard; Elias, a halfback, and Kitson, quarterback. Among the new men out are Loranger, a back; Richards, an end, and Bally, a halfback.

Manager P. F. Cabell announces the following schedule: October 3, Frankford High School, at home; October 9, Bang Charles, at home; October 9, Penn Charter, at home; October 16, De Lancey, at home; October 23, Episcopal Academy, away; October 30, German-town, away; November 6, Cheltenham High School, at home, and November 13, St. Lukes, at home.

Tennis and hot weather make their exit hand-in-hand, but instead of going out together this year there has been a parting-tennis is still here, but the weather is cold. A few club titles still remain to be decided and a number of tournaments are now in progress. Wish the temperature around the 55 and 60 degree mark tennis is hardly a pleasure.

The country club courts are still much in demand late afternoons. Still there is a decrease in the number of players taking part in the game. Students have turned their athletic prowess to other directions. Kenneth Kennedy, the Merion Cricket Club star, is now busy with University work. J. S. Disaton, Jr., Philadelphia Cricket Club, has stored his tensis rackets away for the winter. He will engage in seccer at Pennsylvania, and finds no time for tensis.

The plea for more inter-city tennis macao is a good one. The inter-sit on the part of the Philment Country Club racket whelever in the annual matches with flatimore is commendable. RECORD NUMBER OF OARSMEN REPORTED TO COACH NICKALLS

University of Pennsylvania's Rowing Authority Much Pleased With the Turnout of 160 Men.

Two very promising track athletes start their intercollegiate career with the University of Pennsylvania in this year's freshman class. They are C. Cory, of the University High School, Chicago, and Albert Crane, of the Tacoma, Wash., High School. Cory is a low hurdler with a record of 24 2-5 seconds, which he made in the University of Michigan interscholastic meet at Ann Arbor on May 24, 1913. Crane is a high jumper, who was credited with doing 6 feet 2% inches in the Washington State interscholastic meet at Tacoma on June 7, 1913.

Coach Vivian Nickalls has reason to feel elated over a first-day attendance of 169 candidates for his freshman and varsity crews. The size of the squad sounds very much like Cornell. It is certainly the biggest turnout that this institution ever had. Curiously enough, the equad just equals that which reported for work at Cornell last week.

In a letter from the President of the International Olympic Committee, Baron Pierre de Couberlin, from Havre, France, dated Sept. 4, and addressed to the late James E. Sullivan, who was Secretary of the American Olympic Committee, states on behalf of the International Olympic Committee that the question of a change in the location of the games. Olympic Committee that the question of a change in the location of the games of 1916 is not even to be discussed. He says in his letter: "The seat of the VI. Olympiad remains what it was, and, contrary to what the American papers say, I will not personally make any proposel in favor of a change. We never thought the Olympic games would stop wars, and the olympic games would stop wars, and the olympic games would stop wars, and I feel perfectly sure that when the present war is over the Olympic movement will begin again as strong and fruitful as ever."

The fight for the club banner at the Metropolitan Schlor Track and Field Championships, which will be held at Celtic Park, New York, October 3, will be between the New York Athletic Club and the Irish American A. C. Both have entered their strongest teams and the fight this year promises to be nearly as close as it was last, when the Irish American A. C. won by three points. The New York A. C, have sixty men and the Irish-American A. C. have fifty-two men entered for the different events.

F. W. Rubien, Chairman of the Senior Metropolitan Track and Field Championship Committee, has received the entry of R. B. Gifford, McCaddin Lyceum, for the one-mile walk, to be held at the senior championship at Celtic Park, L. L. next Saturday afternoon.

Cornell will hold its annual interscholastic cross country run on October 31. The race will be over a four-mile course. Two prizes wil be awarded. The bronze Marathon trophy, the gift of the class of 1908, will be awarded to the in-dividual winner. The team prize will be a silver shield. Bronze medals, showing Jones making his mile record at Cambridge, will be awarded to each starter in the race. Permanent possession of the trophies will be awarded to the school or individual winning three Rugged "Kid" Herman, of Pekin, Ill., Managed to Stay Four Rounds at Olympia Last Night.

To the surprise of many experts who thought they saw in "Kid" Herman, of Pekin, Ill., a future champion, Kid Wills iams, of Baltimore, holder of the world's championship title, easily outboxed, outslugged and finally knocked out the little westerner in four rounds at the Olympia

The boys were to have weighed in at 116 pounds, but the champion was a quarter of A pound overweight. Herman entered the ring first, and took the corner which Williams has always occupied in all his contests before the Olympia Club, Wills iams wanted Herman to give him his favorite corner, but Herman was obdurate and after a ten-minute wrangle Williams took the other corner.

The preliminaries were all good. In the first one "Eddie" Rivers won a hot session from "Jack" Campbell; Charlie Rear had a shade on "Young" Wilson in six rounds, and "Kid" Goodman, of New York, substituting for "Young" Diggins, who had an injured hand, outfought "Jimmy" Murray, a tough New York bey who has been doing good work in local rings lately. The semiwind-up was between "Eddic" O'Kcefe, of this city, and "Dutch" Brandt, of New York. O'Keefe won all the way, although Brandt outweighed him five pounds. O'Keefe was far too clever for his opponent and won easily on points.
