been perfected to call the first witness be made by a Federal Grand Jury into the alleged criminal aspects of the development of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Ralifond system. Accord-ing to the Government, the various steam, trolley and steamship lines owned by the company were acquired in vio-lation of the Sherman anti-trust law. The inquiry will be in charge of Frank M. Swacker, special Assistant United States Attorney General, and Robert Stephenson, Assistant United States Attorney General. They will be assisted by James W. Osborne and R. L. Betts

DAUGHTER OF RICH MAN VANISHES FROM FAST EXPRESS TRAIN

Disappears at South Framingham While En Route With Father, Who Was Taking Her to School.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 29.-Disapgearing mysteriously between Boston and Worcester, while on the way to Peekskill, N. Y., on a Boston and Albany express train Sunday afternoon, no trace as yet has been found of Miss Katharine Keating, 16 years old, daughter of H. S. Keating, a wealthy Dallas, Tex., attorney.

The father was taking the girl from Boston to a private school in Peekskill. He says she had about $125 in her pockatbook and looked 20 instead of 16. Miss Keating and her father started from Boston for Albany, where they were to change cars for Peckskill. Just previous to the train pulling into South Framingham Mr. Keating left his parlor seat to smoke, returning as the train was possibly 15 or 2) miles fro city to find his daughter gone. miles from this Believing she had gone to the women's washroom, the father waited a few minutes, but when the train approached Worcester became worried and started a search of all cars with the aid of the conductor. No trace of the girl could be found and the father alighted in Worcester and wired South Framingham and then notified the local police.

The police of Worcester and South Framingham traced the girl to the lat-ter city, where it was said she boarded a trolley car for Worcester. No reason for leaving the train is given by the wealthy Dallas attorney, other than the fact that his daughter was unwilling to return to the Peekskill school. He was naked if it was not possible that a ro-mance was responsible, and he answered that as far as he knew there was none.

U. S. EMBASSY SPLENDORS

Americans in London Amazed by

Magnifience of New Quarters. LONDON, Sept. 29 .- The American Embassy has opened for business with all comers in the new offices, at 4 Grosvenor Gardens. Naturalized Americans and refugees from the Continent who called there thought they had visited Buckingham Palace by mistake, so magnificent are the embassy's present quarters. Jeffersonian simplicity is noticeable only in the rooms where carpets are not yet laid, owing to the haste in moving. The house is a skyscraper, according to London ideas, there being five stories and a sort of roof garden above. Each secretary has a room big enough to play tennis in, and the Ambassador's sanc-tum is so spacious that it is necessary to use a megaphone in speaking across it. The top floor has slightly smaller rooms, which the unmarried attaches are regarding covetously as possible bachelor apartments

American residents of London who called to inspect the new embassy were speechiess at the splendor, and respect for the United States, which has increased tremendously since the war began, took another upward leap.

89 SAVED FROM TAHOMA Revenue Cutter on Rocks Probably a Total Loss.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 .- All aboard he United States revenue cutter Tahoma when she ran aground in Alaskan waters, a total of 39 officers and men, have been saved, according to a wireless message received today by Captain Commandant Bertholf, of the revenue cutter service, from Captain W. E. Reynolds, commander of the revenue cutter fleet in the Pacific The message gave no details of the rescue, but it is believed the men were taken on boats from the United States coast survey steamer Patterson.

Captain Commandant Bertholf believes the Tahoma will be a total loss, but ef-forts will be made to get her off the rocks if she has not already foundered.

SHIP PURCHASE BILL

Cabinet Discusses Project and Signs Point to Compromise. WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 .- Whether the Administration shall insist upon passage of the Government $30,000,000 ship purchase bill, bitterly opposed by many Democrats in Congress, was one of the important subjects today before the President and his Cabinet.

Signs pointed to a compromise by which the bill may be sent through the House and postponed in the Senate un-til the December session of Congress. Democrats opposing the legislation pointed out that the Federal insurance bill, appropriating $5,000,000; the ship pur-chase measure of $10,000,000, and the rivers and harbor "pork barrel" bill of $20,000,-000-all aggregating more than half of the additional "war tax" proposed-might be used by Republicans as an argument in the Congressional campalgns.

LIQUOR QUESTION STIRS DELAWARE AS LEADING ISSUE

Lower Portion of State Especially Interested in Subject of License and Party Lines

Disregarded. WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 29.-Politicians of all parties are worried over the prohibition question. In this county they are of the opinion that the "wets" will be in a majority, and that the question of license will not figure largely in the campaign, but in the lower portion of the State the situation is mixed, and no one can tell what the effect is going to be. It is said the "wet" and "dry" lines are closer drawn in the lower part of the State than ever before and that residents are aligning themselves on this issue more than with the political partles. In one district a Democrat has been nominated who is a "dry" man and the Republicans there say that they will support him because he is "dry." In another district a Republican nominated for office may be "dry" and the "dry' Democrats are apparently with him to a man. The same division is being made on men who are "wet."

The Progressives by declaring for State-wide prohibition expect to get all of the "dry" votes, but this they will not do. The "wet" and "dry" people will not do. The "wet" and "dry" people will vote for the men who favor them regardless of party lines, because they consider this the most important question which is to come before the Legislature. Two years ago the question was not so strongly drawn in respect to legislative candidates, because there was a United States Senator to be elected, and the "wets" and "drys" put aside their dif-ferences in order to assist in the election of a man of their own party to the Senate, but this year there is no Sen-ator to be elected. It is therefore regarded as important by those interested in the liquor question that they should elect men of their own views.

WHITMAN AND GLYNN NOMINATED IN N. Y.; WM. SULZER LOSES

Progressives Give Davenport About 2255 Majority. Gerard Democrats' Choice For Senator — Republican Outcome in Doubt.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 .- The three party machines apparently were successful in the first popular State-wide primarles held in New York yesterday, according to latest returns today

The three regular candidates for the Democratic, Republican and Progressive gubernatorial nominations were named as expected. They are:

Democrat-Governor Martin H. Glynn, with an estimated plurality of more than 100,000 and a probable majority of $5,000 over John A. Hennessy, the anti-Murphy candidate.

Republican-District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, with an estimated plurality of about 45,000 or 50,000, a margin that his campaign managers say is surprisingly large over Harvey D. Hinman and Job E. Hedges, who ran second and third respectively. Progressive-Frederick M. Davenport. with a majority of about 2250 over ex-Governor Sulzer. The former executive was uncontested for the Prohibition nomination and will be a candidate at the regular election. Sulzer today refused to admit defeat, saying he would win "If there is an honest count."

James W. Gerard appears to have won the Democratic senatorial nomination by approximately 115,000 with six countles still missing. Franklin D. Roosevelt ran a fair second and James S. McDonough The Republican Senatorial nomination may be decided only when the complete returns are in. Ballots tallied up to 7 o'clock this morning seemed to indicate, however, that unless up-State returns show a reversal James W. Wadsworth will beat William M. Calder, of Brooklyn, by a very small margin. Calder's great atrength in Brooklyn and New York, re-sulting from the regular organization backing in those places, is chiefly re-sponsible for the closeness of the race. Bainbridge Colby, Progressive, had no rival for the Senatorial nomination in

Aged Prelate Back From Rome With style. Sulzer says she has no claim on in sharp contrast to the old-time shout-Vivid War Experience.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.-Cardinal Far-ey arrived last night from Rome on the Sant' Anna with a vivid description of his war experiences and his impressions of the new Pope.

The big delegation of 300, who intend-ed to go down the harbor on the Highlander and take the Cardinal off the liner at Quarantine, decided at the last moment to remain at the Battery. The the last Highlander was tied up there, and the Cardinal, who arrived at Quarantine at 9:45, was brought up the bay on the cutter Manhattan.

During the trip up the harbor the fireboat New Yorker played her search-lights on the deck of the cutter, and in the sharp circle of light the aged prelate stood, bareheaded, acknowledging the salutes of various craft. Once abcard the Highlander the Becer
