Clayton Antitrust Measure.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.-Senator Reed,

"The section as reported by the con-ferees does not provide that such a contract in itself shall be void, because i is against public policy. It merely pro-vides that the contract shall be void in case it tends substantially to lessen cometition.

Senator Reed insisted that this proviion would be ineffective and would result in opening up a new field of litiga-tion. The Senator also pointed out that the penalty clause attached to this sec-tion in both Senate and House had been eliminated by the conferees.

Bill May Be Held in Senate Committee for a Week.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.-The Demo rats of the Senate Finance Committee went to work in earnest today on the war tax bill. Senator Simmons, chairman, announced that no hearings would be given by the committee, but that any written briefs submitted by persons interested in the various items of the bill would be given consideration by the committee. He said that the bill would be divided among subcommittees of one Senator each for consideration.

The prospects are that the committee will not be ready to report the bill to the Senate for another week. Many amendments have already been suggested by Senators.

MANIN MA lated today at a meeting of the Republican City Committee in their headquarters, Eleventh and Chesinut streets. It has been arranged to have Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, candidate for Governor, and Senator Holes Penrose, caudi-date for re-election, as well as all can-didates for Congresional offices, among the speakers.

Before the mass meeting, it is expected a parade will take place which will be participated in by loyal supporters of the party from all sections of the city. This, however, has not been finally decided Prior to the meeting of the City Committee, which was an executive session, there were meetings of the Campaign Committee, the Speakers Committee and chairmen of all the Ward Committees. was decided to arrange for rallys to be held at stated intervals in all congressional districts. After the executive session former Attorney General of Pennsylvania Hampton L. Carson addressed those assembled at an absence of five months. "I cannot say, however," he continued, "whether he will do more than pray for world-wide
