

PRINCE PILLAGED - CASTLE OF RELICS, BARONESS CHARGES

Kaiser's Son Personally Led Plunder of Archeological Collection of Baron de Baye, Is Accusation.

BORDEAUX, Sept. 28. The German Crown Prince personally pillaged a valuable archeological collection at the home of Baroness De Baye, during the two days that he made his headquarters at her chateau near Champ au Bert, according to a letter from the Baroness which was published in the Matin.

The collection was made by Baron De Baye during 23 years of his travels in the Caucasus. It included arms, jewels, medals and vases, and also presents from the Czar.

Baroness De Baye declares that the Prince himself destroyed portraits of the Czar and Czarina in the chapel of the chateau.

"My husband had a splendid archeological museum," said the Baroness. "When the Germans took possession of the estate, the Crown Prince smashed all the glass cases with the butt of his revolver. The jewels that suited him he put into his pocket. Gold cups and other rare and valuable articles were carried off. Soldiers were called in to pack vases, tapestries and other articles that took the fancy of the Crown Prince.

1,000,000 RUSSIANS MOVE ON GERMANY

It is now apparent that the movement of the Russian army, which numbered more than 1,000,000 men, is proceeding along the parallel lines of railway, are moving rapidly westward. With all the six Carpathian passes occupied by Russian troops and with strong forces on the Hungarian plains just south of these points all danger of a possible flanking movement has been avoided. Consequently there is now nothing to retard the movement.

The pursuit by the Russians of the Austrian army in Galicia is compared by the military experts here with General Kutsoff's pursuit of Napoleon's army from Moscow in 1812, and General Grant's harrying chase of Lee's army in the civil war in 1862.

TRENTON, Sept. 28.—The second day's racing at the annual Trenton State Fair resulted in another victory for the California entry, Ossary Maid, who experienced little or no opposition in the running race at 4 1/2 furlongs. Troublesome captured the 2 1/2 pace in straight heats, while Flying Feet's triumph in the 2 1/2 trot was almost a walk.

ONE OF AUTO BUSES PROPOSED FOR CONTEMPLATED BROAD STREET LINE

REPORT VILLA DEAD BY ASSASSIN'S HAND

Our dear brothers to cease the hostile attitude of the division of the north as soon as you, in an outburst of patriotism and self abnegation, turn over the supreme command to the incorruptible Liberal, Fernando Iglesias Calderon, who, by his talents, energy and clean antecedents, will be a guarantee for the fruits of our revolution. He will know how to lead the republic in the paths of honor and glory and will never prove a traitor to the ideals of real democracy.

"General Villa has declared categorically that the whole of this division (the army of the north) will uphold firmly Senator Iglesias, and in a burst of high patriotism General Villa has already announced to the world that none of his generals applies to the presidency of the republic, nor the vice-presidency. This is so in transitory or permanent sense."

The telegram was signed by 15 generals on the staff of General Villa, including General Felipe Angeles, Eusebio Benavides, Raoul Madero and Calixto Contreras.

The publication of this telegram here created a sensation.

General Alvaro Obregon and the other followers of Carranza, who were sent to treat at once with Villa's representatives, are believed to be in Acapulco, Caliente; but this conference is separate and distinct from the big convention called for next month. It will probably be held on October 5.

Military preparations are still going forward, and General Carranza now has a strong army in the field to oppose General Villa's division of the North.

PREDICT EARLY SETTLEMENT

Constitutionalists at Washington Think Carranza Will Yield to Villa.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Members of the Constitutional party here have information, it is stated today, upon which they base belief, amounting to conviction, that the Villa-Carranza split will be healed within 48 hours. Retirement of Carranza as first chief and also as a potential candidate for President, a complete capitulation to Villa's demands—will be the solution, it is understood.

"There will be no war," said one member high in Constitutional circles today. Postponement of the Torreon conference set for October 1, until Villa's and Carranza's "peace commissioners" settle the personal differences of their leaders, was rumored here today. All information pointed to selection of Fernando Iglesias Calderon, a Villalista, as Carranza's probable successor.

Zapata's protest to General Funston against surrendering Vera Cruz to a Carranza representative complicated peace plans. Officials also viewed with apprehension the warlike attitude to Zapata of the Carranza revolutionaries against both Carranza and Villa. Possibility of brigandage and sporadic revolutionary movements were the unfavorable surface indications.

FACTIONS PROPOSE TO FIGHT

Villa Brigade Occupies Point on Railroad between Torreon and Saltillo.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., Sept. 28.—The forces of the rival factions of the Mexican Constitutional party are rapidly closing in and an actual clash is said to be imminent, despite the fact that negotiations for an adjustment of the differences between General Villa and Chief Carranza are being pushed. Paredon, a junction point on the railroad between Torreon and Saltillo, has been occupied by a Villista brigade of 5000 men, commanded by General Miguel Herrera, and Zapata's headquarters of the central military zone, has surrendered to General Eugenio Aguirre Benavides without a fight. This closed the two armies within striking distance of Saltillo and Aguas Calientes, both strong Carranza positions.

DENOUNCE MEXICAN EVILS

Catholics Adopt Resolutions Protesting Against Outrages on Religion.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 28.—Denouncing in strong terms the alleged outrages perpetrated on the religious in Mexico, and appealing to the Government at Washington to do all it could to stop the cruel cruelties, a resolution was passed today by the Convention of American Federation of Catholics in session here.

A committee left here this afternoon to take the resolution to Washington, where it will be put up to the country's leaders, including President Wilson.

Twenty thousand Catholics, with Cardinal Gibbons as one of the chief figures, were in line in the big parade held this afternoon.

First of Medical Corps Lieutenant Now Considered Closed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.

The resignation of Lieutenant Louis Livingston Seaman, of the Army Medical Corps, one of the observers with the Red Cross ambulance passed today reached Secretary of War Garrison.

Because Doctor Seaman's resignation anti-dated President Wilson's demand for an explanation of his unneutral statements abroad, Secretary Garrison stated the resignation would be accepted and the incident closed.

This is the first time the Boston club has won the pennant in the National League since 1888. This being the case, the meeting between the Athletics and the Braves will be the first world's series in which a Boston National League ever competed under the present rules. Frank G. Salee was the leader of the Braves when they won the pennant in 1938.

During the 39 years of the National League's existence Boston has now won the pennant nine times. Chicago alone has outdistanced Boston in the number of pennants won. The Windy City club has captured the bunting 10 times.

The years in which Boston won the flag, with the managers of the winning clubs follow:

Before the formation of the National League in 1876, Boston had a club in the old National Association, which played from 1871 to 1875, inclusive. During those five years Boston won the pennant four times, coming forth victorious in 1872-73-74-75. Harry Wright was manager during each of those seasons.

HOPE OF PEACE IN COLORADO

Settlement of Great Coal Strike Believed to Be in Sight.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Settlement of the great coal strike in Colorado is in sight, it is believed. H. Davies, a representative of the coal mine owners, called at the White House today and had a long talk with President Wilson, the exact tenor of which neither the White House nor Mr. Davies would divulge. It was understood, however, that new overtures were made to the Administration, of such a nature that the President was inclined to yield his three years' truce plan to accept the proposal.

It was said that Mr. Davies insisted as a first move in the proposed program that the Federal cavalry be withdrawn from the district. This, it was reported, the President refused to do, fearing that a renewal of the civil war would be the result.

GERMANS EXPECT VICTORY WITHIN ONE MORE WEEK

Allies' Resistance Slowly is Weakening, Berlin Alleges.

BERLIN, Sept. 28 (via wireless through Sayville, L. I.). Reports received here directly from the front say the high German military officials directly in charge of the campaign in France predict the Germans will break through the allied lines within the next week. The resistance is said to be slowly slackening at several points.

That many of the wounded who might be saved are being sacrificed through the scarcity of doctors at the front was the statement made today by the surgeon in charge of a hospital train from Aix-la-chapelle.

Only at night is it possible to make any attempt to gather up the wounded, according to the stories told by soldiers. Then, if the slightest noise is made the rapid-fire guns immediately are trained on those who are carrying off the wounded, and many are themselves killed.

'BUS TO RUN ON CITY STREETS PLACED ON VIEW

Gasoline-propelled Vehicle May Fly on Broad and Market Thoroughfares. A big yellow 'bus, similar to that of the United Traction Improvement Company hopes to have running on the streets within a few months, was on exhibition today in City Hall Square and in the shopping districts.

The United Traction Improvement Company has asked Councils for a franchise to run its buses east and west on Market street and north and south on Broad street. No action has yet been taken by Councils.

The cars will seat 48 persons inside and on the roof. They are 21 feet long and are propelled by gasoline and lighted by electricity. The cars can reach a speed of 14 miles an hour.

Walter C. McIntire, president of the company, stated that if the franchise was granted, the fare would be six tickets for a quarter.

Italian Ambassador at Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Count Macehi di Celere, the new Ambassador to the United States from Italy, called at the State Department today to announce his arrival in the capital. He will visit the White House later in the day to pay his respects. The Ambassador and family came from New York last night.

EDISON'S TELESCIBE NOW SHOWN IN THIS CITY

New Invention Records Telephone Conversation of Both Parties. In his efforts to perfect the telephone by means of the phonograph, Thomas A. Edison has invented the telecribe, an instrument which records the conversation of both parties. Nelson C. Durand, of the Edison factories at Orange, N. J., was in Philadelphia this afternoon demonstrating the new machine at 825 Arch street. The telecribe is inclosed in a box with its own batteries, and operates in connection with a dictating machine.

To make a verbatim record of a telephone conversation, the telephone receiver is taken from the hook and placed in the socket of the telecribe. While the telecribe really becomes an extension of the telephone, none of the wires or connections are used.

The person using the telephone takes up a small receiver from the side of the telecribe, which acts as an earpiece, and talks in the usual manner. The wax record will give a phonographic record of the conversation. Mr. Edison's intention is to use the new instrument to raise the importance of a telephone call to that of a signed letter.
