HUNT CLUB RACES SATURDAY ARE TO BE BEST YET HELD

Whitemarsh Valley Country Club Plans Its Eleventh Annual Meeting to Be a Record-maker.

The eleventh annual race meeting of the Whitemarsh Valley Hunt Club, to

The eleventh annual race meeting of the Whitemarsh Valley Hunt Club, to be run Saturday over the Erdenheim track, will probably be the best series ever held about Philadelphia. All of the six events are well filled, and an unusual number of out-of-town entries, especially in the steeplechase events, will require the best of the local horses to keep the bonors in this city.

The most important event of the day, for the Whitemarsh challenge cup, three miles over the regulation brush course, will have two exceptionally strong entries in Conqueror, owned by A. J. A. Dexereux, and Mo, owned by Charles K. Harrison, Jr., of Baitmore. This is Conqueror's first year in the racing game, and in his first three starts on the Belmont Park track he finished third cash time. Last Saturday at Belmont, nowever, he inished first in the race for the first time, but comes with a big reputation and has won many races this season on various tracks.

In the dat races also there will be some exciting events, Major E. B. Cassatt has entered some of the best of his string, including Flying Fairy, Spearhead, Sand Bank and Springboard. These horses have all been winners on the big tracks during the current season. Archibald Karklie has entered Holiday, which won the six furlong race last year, when Spearhead was second. Philip Stevenson, of Long Island, will bring over Lad of Langdon and Charles Creamer, also of Long Island, will enter another horse new to local tracks, Miss Cavanaugh. The open steeplechase, a two and a half mile race over hunting country, including various kinds of jumps, has three especially good entries in Pagin, Kin and Wheel, owned by Victor C. Mather and Hopewell, an entry of George Brooke, 3rd.

The same prices will prevail at Fenway Park in Boston, except that a section of the bleachers in deep centre field will be filled with 50-cent seats, while the general admission will be $1. while the general admission will be $1. Every purchaser, whether in Boston or Philadelphia, will have to buy tickets for three games. In case these tickets are invalidated by the fallure of the contending clubs to play a third game in either of the cities the money will be refunded by the club selling the tickets. This rule applied last year, and thousands of dollars were returned to Philadelphia purchasers for the tickets Philadelphia purchasers for the tickets to the third game here, which was not played.

Just when the tickets can be had will be announced by the Athletics management in the near future. Another matter brought up regarding the tickets was whether they should be dated. The chances are that the tickets will be dated, but in case of a postponement, the second ticket will be good for the second game regardless of the date. This also brought up the matter of tie games. In case of either a postponement or a tle where the start was made until two full

PENN WELCOMES IRA BERTOLET AS TRACK MAN

Last Year's Central High School Captain Will Be Valuable as a Broad Jumper.

Ira Bertolet is a welcome addition to the Penn freshmen track squad. Last year's Central High captain was by far the best broad jumper in the local schools, the only athlete capable of giving him any kind of a buttle in this event being young Hough, of George School. Bertolet improved as the scholastic season were 10), clearing over 11 feet with marked regularity. His best mark is 21 feet 10 Inches, made about a month ago, "Hud" mude quite a reputation last fall as a number of the Central High cleven, but has decided to confine himself solely to track athletics while at Pennsylvania.

Roman Catholic High School will again be expresented on the griding this sea-son after an absence of one year. The material last full proved too light from material list tall proved too light from which a representative eleven could be developed, but brighter prospects are in view this year. J. J. Greer, former Catholic University player, will coach the equad, which now numbers about 35 candidates. The most promising of these are languilly, a member of last year's West Philadelphia High School squad; Glazacott, of the basketball toam; McLaughlin, Cunningham, Walsh, Clavin, guard of the 1912 team; Mason, McCarthy, Quinn, Smith, Book, Aliard, Friel, McCann, Hunt and Deitrich.
