Nathaniel Davis Ayer, Jr., enlisted and started to war against his mother's wishes. The parting was sad, but through the tears came the words of a brave fighting man: "Mamma, I know it breaks your heart to see me go, and it breaks mine, too, but what would the world think of me if I were to let the glory of England be trampled in the dust while I stayed home with Nana?"

"Nana" is the nurse and she cried too, but a "sojer" man must be hard as nails and not let a woman's sobs affect him. Nathaniel Davis Ayer, Jr., chose England as a country fit to fight for simply because he didn't happen to be in another land. With his mamma, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. McFadden, of Glenside, and papa, who is Nat D. Ayer, a composer, and "Nana' he went to London, where "papa" was to

Then something happened. Something usually does you know when things are entirely too nice and proper.

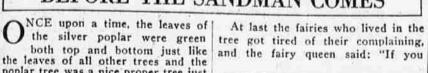

One day, when the poplar leaves were playing with the breezes, one little breeze said, "Oh, you should see the trees in other countries as we do. Sometimes the leaves are gray, some-times pale green and some are brighter colors." "Wouldn't that be queer?" said one

And though the breeze laughed at them, they wouldn't play because they kept thinking all the time about their color.

And the more they thought, the worse it seemed to be green, just plain green, all their lives.

'Isn't it horrid to be just a plain green leaf?" said one, "I'm so tired of being green," said another, .ill finally they forgot that the sky was blue and the sun golden-all they could remember was their common green

Vessel Loaded With Valuable Cargo From Mediterranean. Cardinal Farley Was One of Its Passengers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 .- Fire caused by spontaneous combustion in the hold of the steamship Santa Anna, of the Fabre line, was discovered early today, while she was moore to a pler at the foot of list street, Brooklyn. Several fire engines were rushed to the steamship's aid, but the dense amoke made it impossible for the firemen to get at the blaze between decks, and they were forced to work in relays to avoid being overcome.

By 11 o'clock the damage had amounted to $100,000, with the prospect of treble that amount if the firefighters were unable to save some of the valuable cargo of silks, velvets and herbs in the ship's hold. Two fireboats were assigned to fight the fire, and it proved so atubborn that Captain Paizoy said he helieved it was fed with the big consignment of olive oil carried by the Santa

Half a dozen members of the crew were overcome by smoke in fighting the fire, and were reacued by shipmates who risked their lives entering the smokefilled hold.

The hold in which the flames were first discovered is next to two coal bunkers, which quickly became a roaring furnace. Vast quantities of water were pumped on the blasing fuel. A huge volume of smoke settled over the neighborhood, and the reaerves were called out to maintain the fire lines.

The Santa Anna arrived here yesterday from Mediterranean ports with a list of passengers, among them being Cardinal Farley, and a large cargo of mixed mer-chandise. A short time after the blaze was discovered the ship's hold became a veritable furnace, and the hatches were unshipped to permit removal of part of the cargo. The vessel is 550 feet long, of 14,000 tons register and flies the French flags nag. Two days out from Naples a mutiny broke out aboard the vessels among the Five of them were placed in stokers. Five of them were placed in irons.

Asks to Increase Its Rates

A hearing by the Public Utility Com-dission of New Jersey at the Court House a Camden was held today on petition of the Collingswood Sewerage Company, which seeks to increase its rates in order to pay for the large sums recently expended in developments. A number of property owners are objecting to any al-lowance of increased rates by the com-

Seems Too Warm to Keep the Woolens Woman Accused of Luring Her From on They Donned Yesterday.

The battle of the seasons turns and summer-time is rallying; Old Sol has trained his howitzer upon the autumn breze; 'Tween garments of a gauzy kind and woolens mon are dailying; Hay fever germs make sorties 'neath their heavy gun, the sneeze,

The sportive seasons played another trick on Philadelphia today. Having lured the city into donning its heavyweights by cold, raw blasts from the North, autumn today fell back upon its high ground intrenchments to a form. Summer, its ranks riddled, it true, nevertheless is making the most respite today and is doing its best to deceive everybody. The deceive everybody. Yet folk are not happy. Not that the ideal weather is objectionable, save to the cold air pest who likes to walk around in the snow in unshod feet, but the day is too warm for woolens and only those who care nothing for the threat of pneumonia ventured out without them yesterday. The ice man looks happier again today. Furnace fires that had gone out anyhow during the night because of soot were left their fate this morning and windows trolley cars jammed shut to keep out the airs were opened again to an accom-paniment of withering sarcasm for the conductor, the motorman, the P. R. T. and its heirs and assigns. Tomorrow autumn may attack again.

FAT MAN KEPT PRISONER IN A TELEPHONE BOOTH

Once Inside, He Couldn't Turn Until Help Finally Came.

Hiram Mattison, of Wilmington, a man of great girth, hurried into a telephone booth in the first floor southeast corner of a City Hall corridor today and slammed the door shut. The door is of the type that folds inward. Nearly half an hour later one of the Father's Restaurant.

Repentant tears rolled down the cheeks of 16-year-old Katherine Emma White, 635 North Tenth street, as she told in Central Station today how Mrs. Leonora Taylor, 1543 North Bouvier street, lured her away from her father's restaurant penned her in a house on Fairmount avenue, deprived her of clothing and finally induced her to lead a life of shame. Mrs. Taylor was held by Magistrate Pennock in $2500 bail, charged with violating the Mann white slave act. Katherine White was brought to Philadelphia last night after a year's search instituted by her father in nearly every large city in the East. She was found on a farm in Watertown, N. Y., by Mrs. Mabel Kellogg, superintendent of the New York Society to Protect Children from Cruelty. Mrs. Kellogg learned the girl was a runaway and, gaining her confidence, was told the story. The girl testified today to meeting the woman in her father's restaurant. She was induced to accompany Mrs. Taylor, and later found herself locked in a room at 917 Fairmount avenue, and was deprived of all but scanty wearing apparel Later she was made an inmate at a house on Melon street and again at 1833

Park avenue. girl declared she was never permitted to leave any of the houses in which she lived until she went to the Park avenue place. Here she said she frequently went out, but was always afraid to return home. Later she went to New York and finally to the farm where Mrs. Kellogg found her. The girl's father, who operates a res-taurant at 653 North Tenth street, stated its doubter is the new last Marsh his daughter left home last March and since then he has neither seen nor heard from her although he caused a search to be made in all large Eastern citics. He was broken hearted over her absence and declared he had almost given her up for lost.

The police are searching for three men who are said to be implicated in the girl's disappearance and her subsequent career. On the stand today the girl frequently buried her face in her hands and sobbed She said she wanted to go home and be-gin life anew. Frequently she glared at Mrs. Taylor.

NO WORD FROM DR. POEBEL

U. of P. Professor May Have Fallen in Europe's Great Carnage.-

A letter has been received at the University Museum from Doctor Ungnad, who last year held the chair of Assyriology in the University of Pennsylvania. While here he translated many tablets from the Rippur collection. It had been reported he had fallen in the war, but he declared he was in good health.

On the other hand no word has come from Dr. Arno Poebel whose book on the creation and flood tablets and other subjects is in press. He went to Breslau early in the summer and is reported to have joined a reserve regiment there As many letters have been sent him and it was certain that he would have replied if possible, there is a fear that he has fallen, as the Breslau corps has been many battles both east and west and has uffered heavily. Museum authorities say that if Dr.

Museum authorities say that if Dr. Poebel has fallen it will be a great loss to archeology as he was one of the most distinguished of Sumerian scholars. Al-though born in Germary he got his doc-torate at the University of Pennsylvania for Assyriology. For two years he was at the University Museum translating and preparing his large volumes which are soon to appear.

PHILADELPHIA COUPLE FOUND SHOT TO DEATH

Woman Believd to Be Agnes Smith, Who Married Greek.

Captain Cameron, of the Detective Bureau, received word this afternoon from the police of Thompsonville, Vt. that young woman and a man, both of whom are believed to be Philadelphians, had been found shot to death in a boarding house in that city. According to the Thompsonville police, the man shot the strl and later committed suicide. The girl, according to the long distance message, is believed to be Agnes Smith, a domestic, formerly employed by Mrs. Louis Heidelberg, of 2223 North Park ave-23.149 She has a sister living in Camden.

Detectives who were dtailed on the case by Captain Cameron learned that the Smith girl was married to a Greek named Nicholas Schirocks, about two years ago, and who later left this country to serve in the Bulgarian war. Schlrocks arrived in this country a short while ago. A man answering his description accompanied the Smith girl to Thompsonville.
