"Drys" Offer No Ticket and Will Support New Party Candidates Because of Stand Against Liquor.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 6-New Castle County prohibitionists have indorsed the Progressive party candidates and their names will appear on both party tickets. The Prohibitionists, who will have no ticket of their own, have accepted the Progressive nominees because that party ans pledged itself to State-wide prohibition in Delaware.

It is quite evident that all of the temperance advocates do not intend to vote the Progressive ticket, for the Anti-Saloon League and other "dry" organizations are sending out letters to the candidates of the other parties, asking them to state their attitude on prohibition so that members of the old parties may vote for men on their own ticket who favor prohibition.

The "drys" intend to figure prominently this campaign. The Ministerial Union Wilmington has determined to send committee to each of the newspapers here, asking them not to accept liquor advertisements. This body also will send committee to the Attorney General in the hope of inducing the court to curtail the number of liquor licenses granted in this city.

R. M. LITTLE DECLARES BRUMBAUGH BALKED AT DEAL

Refused to Run as Anti-Penrose Candidate in Primary Canpaign.

LEBANON, Pa., Oct. 6,-R. M. Little, of Philadelphia, chairman of the Independent Republican League of Pennsylvania and general secretary of the Society for Organizing Charity, at the Democratic mass meeting here last night, told of conferences which he said he had with Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican nominee for Governor, early last spring, before octor Brumbaugh announced his candidacy.

He declared that the Republican Orsanization had failed to induce ex-Gov-ernor Stuart, who, he said, was favored by Senator Penrose, to run for the Gov-ernorship again, and had then turned to Doctor Brumbaugh. Senator Penrose did this reluctantly, said Mr. Little. "I said to Doctor Brumbaugh then," said Mr. Little, "that the rehabilitation of the Republican party in this State could be accomplished only by retiring Senator Penrose from public fife. He looked me squarely in the eyes and shook his head. 'No,' said Doctor Brumbaugh, 'I can't agree to that.' 'Mr. Little said that at this conference Doctor Brumbaugh refused the request urged upon him to enter the primaries without the support of the Republican Organization.

The conference, said Mr. Little, was held in room 1317 of the Bellevue-Stratford, in Philadelphia, last February. J. Benjamin Dimmick, of Scranton; J. Denny O'Neill and the Rev. Rufus W. Miller were also present, he said.

M'CORMICK AND LEWIS ON SAME PLATFORM

Fusion Nominee and Man Who Made Way for Him Speak at Two Meetings. ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 6 .- Vance C. Mc-Cormick, Democratic and Washington party nominee for Governor, and Dean William Draper Lewis, who withdrew from the Washington ticket in favor of Mr. McCormick, discussed the political issues in the present campaign from the same platform here last night in an openair meeting. Earlier in the day both spoke at Huntington, the home of Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican gubernatorial candidate.

While Senator Penrose was bitterly scored by both speakers, but little ref-trence was made to Doctor Brumbaugh. In denouncing Bigelow and the State Highway Department, Mr. Lewis asked Doctor Brumbaugh how he proposed to remedy the evils there.
"To Senator Penrose more than to any other man." Mr. Lewis declared, "was due the election of Wilson and the enactment of a Democratic tariff. He thought that through Democratic rule the ma-terial prosperity of our State would be injured and the people in their revolt against Democratic national policies would turn again, even to him and his

NO CONTROL FOR BRUMBAUGH

C. T. Kratz Declares Penrose Influence Cannot Possibly Touch Him.

A letter has been sent to the Rev. E. . Moore, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, by C. Tyson Kratz, Rooseveit delegate in 1912 from Montgomery County, in which attention is called to Doctor Brumbaugh's strong local option stand. Mr. Kratz said:
"I beg of you not to resort to the threadbare statement and patent lie that Doctor Brumbaugh as Governor will on any moral question whatever, or on any political question, unless it appeals to his use of justice and right, be in any way ven influenced, much less controlled, by Senator Penrose or the Republican Or-ganization. ## U.S. SHIPPERS FACE CHARGE OF AIDING WARRING NATIONS

Grand Jury of New York to Hear Evidence on Alleged Violations of Neutrality

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.-Secret service men are to appear this week before a Federal Grand Jury here to tell what they know about two separate business organizations suspected of violating United States neutrality laws by shipping war supplies directly to British and German cruisers from this port.

One organization is said to have supplied the Germans and the other the British, shipping ammunition and even arms, coaling warships at sea off the American coast and also providing them with foodstuffs, newspapers and mail. The secret service operators have disguised themselves as longshoremen, and by working among the gangs that handled the cargo obtained evidence which may result in indictments. The cases said to be under investigaand Berwind. They are reported belong-ing to the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company, and were chartered to the Gans Steamship Company about August 1.

It is alleged they left here and trans-ferred their cargoes to the Kronprinz Wilhelm and Dresden. Other vessels are suspected as having performed similar service for British cruisers.

CHILDREN HAVE FREE FOOT TODAY AT MT. HOLLY FAIR

Three Thousand Youngsters There - Women Judges This Year - Aviator to Perform.

MQUNT HOLLY, N. J., Oct. 6.-Three housand childeen filed through the turnstiles in the early hours of Children's Day at the Mount Holly Fair today. The youngsters have the freedom of the grounds and the grandstand. They are the guests of the Fair Association.

This year's fair opens under circumstances decidedly favorable. Everything is in motion throughout the grounds and exhibit buildings. The midway is filled with attractions and there is not a show on the grounds that will not pass inspection. If any should happen to develop unexpectedly overnight they will be promptly closed by Sheriff Jordan.

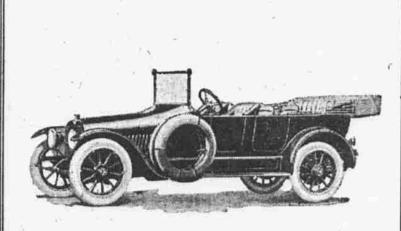

The judges of the art, fancy work, culinary and agricultural departments have been kept busy trying to decide where the prizes should go. This year a new system has been established in the fancy work branch. Heretofore some of the exhibitors had found cause for criticism in regard to the awards, saying that the judges were not thoroughly familiar with up-to-date designs and stitches, but this year the management decided to get two experts from a department store in Philadelphia to do the judging. These women are experts in their work, and certainly have no reason to be anything but impartial

Under the management and direction of the Burlington County Young Men's Christian Associations and the Burlington County Hospital a haven of rest and emergency hospital is being conducted in a tent in a quiet part of the grounds. The physicians and nurses on hospital duty have had plenty to do ever since this innovation was established two years ago, and they expect to have their usual amount of work this week. One of the big attractions of the fair will be the aeropiane flights by Ruth Law, which attracted great crowds last year. She will give daily performances and a feature will be her demonstrations of bomb throwing from the air, but her "bomba" will be innocuous.

DEER FIGHTS THREE MEN Pursuers in Boat Vainly Attempt to

Lasso Big Buck. STAMFORD, Conn., Oct. 6.-After a desperate fight with three men in a boat, a large doer gained its freedom in the Stamford Harbor and disappeared Woodland Cemetery, Captain "Jack" Ryle and his sons, James and William, in a powerboat, ran alongside the buck while it was swimming across the harbor, but it eluded them. They attempted to lasso the animal, but it dodged, and, turning quickly, made a furious attack on the boat. While the hunters were maneuvering the deer swam to the shore and sped out of sight

GLYNN ASSUMES LEADERSHIP OF HIS PARTY IN NEW YORK

Addresses Democracy, Praises the President and Attacks Whitman. ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 6 Governor Glynn today assumed the leadership of the New York State Democracy in an address to the State Committee. He declared his action was in an swer to the "votes at the primary of the individual Democrats of New York" and follows the aunouncement from Tammany Hall that the activities of Charles F. Murphy will henceforth be confined to Manhattan.

Active leadership of the party by the Governor was also assured when Will-lam F. McCombs declined to accept the chairmanship of the State Committee.

In his address the Governor paid high tribute to President Wilson and the na tional Administration. He attackedgDis-trict Attorney Whitman for the latter's statement that if elected Governor he would be "the chief prosecutor of the State." Glynn declared this was either a "theatrical bid for votes" or indicated "a misunderstanding of the first principles of American government. "If his statement means anything," said the Governor, "it means tyranny in the Governor's chair for the prosecution and ruln of any citizen who might refuse to bow to autocratic will. The sentiment is unwarranted, un-American and unworthy of one who seeks to direct the destinles of a free and sovereign State."

GRANGE OF CHESTER COUNTY AWAKENED ON SCHOOL TOPICS

Women Members Active in Their Opposition to Abandonment of Time-honored Methods of Education.

WEST CHESTER, Oct. 5.-The Grange scople of this county are taking up the matter of education in a manner that suggests they mean to accomplish some desired changes in the not very-distant future. In this movement it is noticeable that the women members of the organization are the most active. What they are saying and doing is along lines universally regarded as being to the point and of a very practical character. The manifest point in much of the discussion of the subject is, that there is a decided danger in letting go some of the old principles associated with the education of the young. The danger signal is being displayed relative to a num-ber of the new methods that have been installed in the schools and some others that are being talked about. The prevailing idea seems to be a fear of what they refer to as "patent ideas." calculated to dissolve the old-time ties between the home, the parent and the teacher and the school. It is not good, they argue, to introduce methods which have a tendency to wean away the boy or girl from the home and its time-honored principles. On this point the women members of the order are more pronounced than the men, and their views in the matter are often made the basis of discussions regarded as indicative of fast-growing intelligence of the members and of great services to the members and of great service to the public in a general way. It is quite noticeable of late that the Grange people are broadening the work of their organization. It is conceded that there are other matters of interest to the farmer and his family aside from the raising of cows, pigs, horses and chickens and cultivating the ground. As a result of this widening of the avenues of interest and thought, the meetings of the Grange are being made of vastly more significance and value, a fact well attested by the increase of interest and the number of members who have become valuable aids in the work by ing the floor and expressing their views in an intelligent and vigorous manner.

tends over a period of years.
