

CHURCHES AND THEIR WORKERS—RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES OF ALL DENOMINATIONS

CHURCH INFLUENCE FOR SOCIAL REFORM IS SLOW BUT SURE

Rauchenbusch Now Writes to Prove the Vitality of Christianity in Its Fight With Modern Evils.

PROFESSOR WALTER RAUCHENBUSCH

Prof. Walter Rauchenbusch, of the Rochester Theological Seminary, author of "Christianizing the Social Order" and many other books widely known to the clergy of the country, has written a strong defense of the Church at the request of a group of men interested in making manifest the social implications of the Gospel in Baltimore.

And this group of men, who are conducting an advertising campaign to advance the interests of the Church, gather Doctor Rauchenbusch's statement publicly in half-page advertisements in daily newspapers of the Monumental City.

"The Church in the United States had 3,250,000 members. Have you ever tried to lift the weight of those figures? All other voluntary organizations look puny compared with the Church."

"It is more astonishing because the Church is an idealistic organization, and the noblest passions in the human heart. A man without a country is an exile in the world, and a man without God is an orphan to eternity—Henry Van Dyke."

"Unless our experience has been especially unfortunate, we all know that the Church does steady and re-energetic work in a busy day of our life with spiritual aspirations."

"The Church can fight, though, when aroused. It has fought to a standstill one of the biggest financial interests and one of the most seductive social institutions in the country. And it has done it almost single-handed."

"The Church lines up against war and industrial exploitation as it has lined up against the liquor traffic, and she still does a new era. The Church is slow, it is true, but she is not a poked club of a few radicals, but a cross section of the whole nation. It is slow because it includes the conservative masses. The mass is a heavy force, but it is slow because of the mass of humanity moves and changes."

"It took a century to create the present Sunday school in the United States. The churches have taken about 80 years to educate the churches up to their present convictions on the liquor question, and even now some denominations are not even showing any signs of being converted. Only in recent years have we learned how to meet the liquor trade in politics."

"It has taken all the time since the Civil War to make the leaders of the Church realize that our capitalistic system will eat up the nation if it is allowed to obey its own greed. The churches have always been for peace in theory. Perhaps this great war will consolidate their sentiment to the point of action."

"You think this is slow progress. It is slow progress, but it is progress. It has moved faster. Elevating the morality of a nation is like lifting a skyscraper with jackscrews."

"It was a matter of five feet here now or a new set of dice, the people would run after you. But if you urge a purer faith or a higher justice on men, you state your job out for you. Be patient with those who are trying to educate the Church."

"Some think the Church will melt away and disappear. All history is against the proposition that the Church can be made much better or much worse than it is now. The Church or having none, but between having a wise Church or a blind one, between having a progressive Church or a stagnant Church, there is no middle ground."

"WHAT THE CHURCH NEEDS. "The Church needs four things especially today: 1. Friendship for those who earn their living and independence from those who do not. 2. Co-operation among the denominations on a basis of Christian equality and mutual respect. 3. A sincere and scientific comprehension of the social causes of sin and misery. 4. An undying determination to get the will of God realized in the organized life of every community and to see the will of Christ reappear in every man and woman."

The Friendly Path

The fruits of a man's labor can never be measured by immediate observations. Sometimes the seed that starts the greatest accomplishment does not bring forth fruit until years after it has been planted. Sometimes a Christian sows the seed never sees it sprout and grow strong.

It is disappointing, indeed, for clergymen to preach to audiences that do not seem to be listening. It is trying to the heart when a minister speaks in young people's meetings to see the girls whispering and giggling, and the boys slouching back in their seats, while the speaker is shouting words of paper across the room.

But no clergyman or church worker should permit the pangs of disappointment to control his mind when he seems to be preaching to an audience that seems to be the most unresponsive.

Not infrequently just at such times a tiny seed of thought, planted in a dark corner, and years afterward we find it developed, and the one-time youth has become a great preacher, or a Christian business or professional man, whose good works are known round the world.

John Wainwright, ex-Pastor of the Central Baptist Church, Philadelphia, tells of a boy who speaks briefly of the benefit and pleasure the Christian life offered to young men.

"I was only 15 years old then, but I felt that was just what I needed," says Mr. Wainwright. "I took that matter's advice, and have found it the best that has come into my life. And that young hater, then poor and struggling, and I became fast friends and continued to be until he died."

Let us keep faith with ourselves as we stroll along the paths of life, and let us never forget that God works in a mysterious way, and sometimes uses the weakest of us at the moment when it seems most inopportune to sow the seed that is to bring forth the finest harvest in the future.

The door of opportunity for doing good is always open to a faithful man. PHILIPPS.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS WILL CELEBRATE COLUMBUS DAY

Congressmen and Spanish Ambassador Scheduled to Speak. Columbus Day will be celebrated by the Philadelphia Knights of Columbus with a big mass meeting in the Academy of Music on Monday night. The speakers will be Congressman Ben Johnson, of Kentucky; Congressman James L. Mahan, of Minnesota; Juan Biano, Spanish Ambassador to the United States, and the Rev. William J. Higgins, of St. Charles.

Special singing by the Knights of Columbus chorus of 200 voices will be a feature of the meeting. All State and City officials have been invited to attend.

GLEANINGS FROM RELIGIOUS PRESS

Friends are not best because they're friendly. But only old because they proved the best. —S. Weir Mitchell.

Love of God and love of country are the noblest passions in the human heart. A man without a country is an exile in the world, and a man without God is an orphan to eternity—Henry Van Dyke.

SNAP SHOTS

One worries with a thousand frets. The future dreads, the past regrets; Thinks much of a day and a night; Can this be it? Can this be you?

Another smiles in glad content; Faces the future with his sent; Which one is I? Or which one you? —Frank T. Bell, in the Christian Advocate.

A SUGGESTION

It is well for every pastor to keep in close touch with every one of his young people who are starting away to school and college. Let him not only know their addresses, so as to correspond with them, but let him write to the Presbyterian university pastor, or wherever there is none, to the college president, or local pastor, speaking of each student and making suggestions as to the forms of Christian work in which they might be enlisted. For lack of this there is sometimes a "permutation" of Christian activity.—Herald and Presbyter.

WHAT THE SINNER WANTS

What the sinner wants is not more law, but more love. Big sinners judge, but an ardent lover.—Liberty.

FIRST SUNDAY MEETING

Opening Gun of Campaign Will Be Fired Next Tuesday. The opening gun of the "Bible" Sunday campaign will be fired next Tuesday evening, when a mass-meeting for men will be held in the North Branch Y. M. C. A. Ministers from all parts of the city are expected to be present. Joseph M. Steele, chairman of the "Bible" Sunday Campaign Committee, will preside and give an outline of the preliminary work.

BIBLE PROPHECIES AND WAR

Arrangements have been made for three more lectures to be given tomorrow on the general subject, "The Present War in the Light of Prophecy," under the auspices of the Philadelphia Society of Bible Classes.

Bishop Preaches Tomorrow

Bishop Robinson, who returned to the city this morning after five months in England, will preach tomorrow evening in St. Barnabas' Church, 5th and York streets, at 7:30 o'clock. His subject will be "The Present War in the Light of Prophecy."

CHURCH OF ST. SIMON THE CYRENIAN. Beautiful Episcopal edifice to be dedicated for the use of the colored people of South Philadelphia.

MISSIONS FOR TWO NEGRO CHURCHES TO BE DEDICATED

Catholic Parish of St. Catherine of Sienna and Episcopal Parish of St. Simon the Cyrenian Complete Buildings. Two new mission churches for the use of negroes of Philadelphia have just been completed. One is in Germantown and the other at 23rd and Reed streets. The former is built for the Catholic parish of the Church of St. Catherine of Sienna, King and Penn streets, and the latter for the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian, the Germantown church is to be dedicated tomorrow and the Episcopal church on October 15.

Archbishop Trevisani will dedicate the Church of St. Catherine of Sienna, which is to be a memorial to Archbishop Ryan, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The sermon will be preached by Monsignor Charles W. Kasper, chancellor of the archdiocese. On Wednesday Bishop McCort consecrated the altar, and relics of St. Candidus and St. Victorine were placed in it.

The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

The beautiful home for the Church of St. Simon the Cyrenian is to be dedicated on October 15 at 23rd and Reed streets, with fitting ceremonies. The design of the Germantown edifice conforms to that of the old Spanish missions of California. The walls are of white plaster on stone, with the windows recessed into arched openings and with overhanging eaves and red tiled roof. A diaphanous campanile graces the front. The ornamental features are Byzantine.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY RALLIES IN MANY PLACES TOMORROW

Substituted for Annual Parade on Account of Recent Death of Pope Pius X. Central Churches Selected.

Holy Name Societies throughout the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will join in sectional rallies tomorrow evening, which are to take the place of the annual parade usually held in the autumn. The organization which was to unite in this year's parade is now being substituted for the annual parade on account of the death of Pope Pius X, and the neighborhood demonstrations and rallies were arranged instead.

The city has been divided into more than a score of districts, and in each a central church has been chosen for the evening service. Prominent priests are to speak at the rallies, and the different parishes which worship at each will march to the central edifice from their home church.

Tomorrow morning the members will receive Holy Communion in their parish churches, which will be followed by a march to the central edifice from their home church.

The following are the central churches chosen for the rallies tomorrow night: Church of the Epiphany, 11th and Jackson streets; St. Thomas Aquinas, 17th and Spruce streets; St. Philomena's, Lansdowne; St. Patrick's, 20th and Locust; St. Paul's, Christian street below 10th; St. Michael's, Chester; Holy Spirit, Sharon Hill; St. Anthony of Padua, Chester; Our Lady of Victory, 54th and Vine streets; Our Mother of Sorrows, 4th street and Lancaster avenue; St. Francis de Sales, 4th street and Spruce; St. Philomena's, Lansdowne; Our Mother of Good Counsel, Bryn Mawr; St. Edward's, 8th and York streets; Visitation, V. B. M., Lehigh avenue and Lehigh street; St. Malachy's 11th and Master streets; St. Leo's, Tacony; Holy Cross, Mt. Airy; St. John the Baptist's, Manayunk; Immaculate Conception, Germantown; St. Francis Xavier's, 4th and Green streets; St. Elizabeth's, 23rd and Berks streets; St. Stephen's, Broad and Butler streets; St. Columba's, 22d street and Lehigh avenue.

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

The program for the celebration included a sermon to be preached by the pastor on the morning of October 11, and an address by collector of the Port William H. Berry in the evening. At both services the choir, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Preston, will give a program of special music. The Rev. Mr. McHenry says: "Thousands of sailors from all parts of the world have worshipped in the little building, and thus and again letters come to the present pastor, the Rev. H. Preston McHenry, from men who go down to the sea in ships who tell how the resolutions they make at Holy Name Church services have helped them to lead good lives."

THE REV. L. MORRILL HAINER A former "sky pilot" to the cowboys, who is to preach his first sermon as pastor of the Belmont Avenue Baptist Church on Sunday, October 11. He comes here from Ambler.

THE REV. L. MORRILL HAINER

A former "sky pilot" to the cowboys, who is to preach his first sermon as pastor of the Belmont Avenue Baptist Church on Sunday, October 11. He comes here from Ambler.

BELMONT AVE. BAPTISTS TO HEAR NEW PASTOR

Rev. L. M. Hainer Preaches First Sermon to Congregation Tomorrow. The Rev. L. Morrill Hainer, the new pastor of the Belmont Avenue Baptist Church, will preach his first sermon there tomorrow.

The Rev. Mr. Hainer comes from a family of clergymen. His grandfather is a minister in Canada and has eight sons who are ministers, as are also two of his grandsons. The father of the new West Philadelphia pastor is a member of the Calvary Baptist Church, Norristown.

Belmont Avenue's new pastor was born in Ontario, Canada, and educated in Bucknell University and Crozier Seminary. Following his graduation he spent four years in "roughing it" as a missionary in South Dakota and Montana among the cowboys. Two years ago he came East to become pastor of the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Ambler, where he was serving when he received the call to come to Philadelphia.

All notices intended for publication in the Saturday Religious Page of the Evening Ledger must be in this office not later than Thursday evening.

RELIGIOUS BREVITIES

Communion service will be observed in Temple Lutheran Church tomorrow, with the Rev. Dr. A. Pohlman, the pastor, in charge. Three teachers' training classes have been formed in the Sunday school of the church.

The Rev. Dr. S. D. McConnell, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, will preach in St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and at 4 p. m.

At the Arch Street Presbyterian Church the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Clarence Edward Macartney, will preach tomorrow morning on "The Last Will of Jesus," and the evening on "The Continuation of Faith."

At 7:30 o'clock Laura Wood Graebel will give a recital on the new Turner memorial organ. She will be assisted by the choir and Edith Wood Alexander, violin soloist.

Special services for the close of the holiday season will be held in the school of the Fourth Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock, and on Monday at 10 o'clock in the synagogue. Rabbi Elmer Mayer will preach a sermon on "The Living Tree."

"The Death of Stephen" will be the subject of the sermon to be preached tomorrow morning in the Fourth Presbyterian Church by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John T. Reeve. In the evening he will speak of "The Death of Stephen." Special music will be a feature of the latter service and "Bible" Sunday hymns will be sung.

The topic to be discussed by the Rev. John W. Stockwell, pastor of the Church of the New Jerusalem, Frankford, tomorrow morning, will be "The Government in Pursuit of a Man."

The Rev. Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper will speak at the Neighborhood Church, Broad and Brown streets, tomorrow evening. His subject will be "Our Nation's Present Position of Privilege and Power."

"National Unity and the Gift of Peace," an interpretation of the European situation, will be the subject of a sermon to be preached by the Rev. Dr. Edwin Heil Deik in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Broad and Mt. Vernon streets tomorrow at 10:45 a. m. in the evening. Special music will be given by the choir.

Trinity Reformed Church will hold its annual Harvest Home service tomorrow. The church has been fittingly decorated for the occasion and special programs have been arranged for all the services. In the evening Theodore Brown Williams will speak.

The Boys' Bible Union of Bethany Presbyterian Church, 23d and Bainbridge streets, will be instructed in "Scripture Sabbath" at the regular meeting tomorrow morning. Walter J. Crook, the president, will lead the meeting.

The Evening Star Lodge of this city will be the guests of the Baptist Temple, Broad and Berks streets, tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Russell H. Cunwell, will preach, and Nicholas Dook, the noted tenor, will sing solos and assist the big chorus choir.

CHRISTIAN AND MISSIONARY ALLIANCE IN CONVENTION

Annual Gathering Opens Today. Prominent Speakers Attend. The annual convention of the Christian and Missionary Alliance opened last night in Alliance Chapel, 20th street, above Spring Garden, and will be continued in that place and in the Spring Garden Methodist Episcopal Church, 20th and Spring Garden streets, until after October 15. The Rev. Dr. Linn Bowman, pastor of the Spring Garden Church, will be the host of the visitors.

The speakers will include the Rev. A. B. Simpson, of New York, president of the Alliance; W. E. Blackstone, of Pennsylvania; the Rev. J. Hudson Ballard, of Nyack, N. Y.; the Rev. W. W. Newberry, Newark, N. J.; the Rev. G. V. Brown and the Rev. John Cox, of Wilmington, Del.; the Rev. R. Schaeffer, of Philadelphia; the Rev. William Grumm, of Camden; the Rev. E. M. Collett, Charlotte, N. C.; T. L. Fretz and Charles H. Walken, of this city; and the following missionaries: The Rev. E. O. Jago, Palestine; Miss Ella Rudy, China, and Mrs. Oscar Lapp, India.

There will be a platform meeting of the International Union of Gospel Missionaries tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in charge of Mrs. E. M. Whitmore, the president. Tomorrow, at 10 a. m. there will be a praise and practice service, and at 1 o'clock the Rev. Hudson Ballard will preach. At 2 o'clock Mrs. Lapp will make an address, and at 8 o'clock there will be speaking by the Rev. Mr. Schaeffer. In the evening Mr. Ballard will also preach.

TO KEEP "HUMANE SUNDAY" Nine Philadelphia Organizations to Take Part in Celebration.

Plans are being made for the observance of "Humane Sunday" in Pennsylvania on October 25. Nine Philadelphia organizations engaged in humane work are making the plans for the local celebration. It is intended to have special sermons and services in most of the city churches on that day in the hope of creating a wider interest in all kinds of humane work. The committee in charge, composed of representatives of the nine organizations, will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the office of the Women's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, to perfect the plan.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

Baptist CHESTNUT STREET BAPTIST CHURCH, 10th and Chestnut streets. 10:30 a. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown. 7:30 p. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown. 10:30 a. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown. 7:30 p. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown.

Second Baptist Helping Hand Class meets at 2:30 p. m. on Wednesdays. The class is for the purpose of helping the poor and needy. The class is for the purpose of helping the poor and needy. The class is for the purpose of helping the poor and needy. The class is for the purpose of helping the poor and needy.

Church of the Holy Apostles, 10th and Arch streets. 10:30 a. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown. 7:30 p. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown.

Parish of St. Luke and the Epiphany, 10th and Arch streets. 10:30 a. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown. 7:30 p. m.—Worship and Sermon by Pastor, Dr. J. H. Brown.