A Note of Warning to Visitors

Out of the dust of a fair defeat, the Mackmen rise today. Ready to meet the Boston charge, grimly alert, at bay, 41.11 Stung by the unexpected lash, wiser and full of fight, Swinging their seasoned battle clubs with cunning and with might.

They know the power of Stallings' Braves; they know that the foe is strong. But there is no note of fear or doubt as they carol the battle song; Sure of a swift and clean revenge, the A's forbear to boast, Crouching in deadly readiness, they wait for the Stallings' host.

2 Boston, look to the laurel wreath your battling players won; Temper the joy that rises now till another day is done; Wait till the wounded Pachyderm has charged at your line again, And see if the figures on the board are to your liking then.

ARREST SCALPERS OF "SMALL FRY," BUT POCKET IN BASEBALL LET "BIG GUNS" WORK

ACCUSED OF PICKING CROWD ON TROLLEY

Baseball Ticket Speculators Two Men Arrested on Com-Hawk Their Wares on Streets Again, Though Police Have Orders to Stop Them.

The police campaign against "small baseball game yesterday, Thomas Millett fry" scalpers of world series tickets was and George Sheehan, who say that they continued today. Several of the less im- are residents of Boston, were held under pertant speculators were arrested during $500 ball for further hearing when arthe night and arraigned this morning for raigned before Magistrate Pennock at the hearings before Magistrate Renshaw, at Contral Station, and the "blg guns" were unmolested.

Today the really important scalpers Today the really important scapers mere still busily at work on Chestnut and Broad streets, flaunting large batches of tickets in the faces of pedestrians. Re-serve, traffic and every other type of policemen paid no attention to them. The thing possible to avoid arrest. Among those arraigned 'his morning was a man who gave his name as Harry Raglis and who literally arrested him-gelf. Raglis went up to Police Captain Tempest last night at 13th and Chestnut street and asked him if he nad any world water tickets to sail meries tickets to sell. The lieutenant, who was in citizen's clothing, explained that he had not, and then Raglis offered to sell tickets. Before Tempest could reply Raglis caught him by the arm and started to walk him up Chestnut street, talking volubly and quot-ing rates. At Broad street the scalper Ing rates. At Broad steet the salid turned north. Appreciating the joke. Captain Tempest permitted himself to be led into a shadowy corridor in tity Hall. Then he took charge of the situation, when Raglis tried to stop, and took the man to the roll room on the sixth floor. Rates dropped today on all classes of tickets, but not appreciably. There were fewer scalpers on the streets, due to the fact that most purchasers took scals for all three games. The demand, however, is still large, and the scalpers are not losing money.

The "little men" are becoming fright-ened and are using more care today in disposing of their wares. Expenses of employing counsel to get out of the clutches of the police take away all their profits, and they are doing every-thing possible to avoid arrest.

RUDOLPH EXPLAINS TROUBLE BETWEEN TEAMS' HEADS

Boston Pitcher Also Gives Gowdy Credit for Victory, plaint of Patron Who Lost $10 — Another Charged With Stealing Auto Tire. Charged with pleking the pocket of B. E. Boucher, of Washington, after the night session of the central police station last night, but discharged by Magistrate Renshaw today.

ductor, the car was stopped and Policemen Smith and Donnelly were summoned. The arrest of Millett and Sheehan followed, and although the missing money was not found upon them. Magistrate l'ennock was not satisfied that they were innocent.

Another arrest that followed the ball game was that of John McBride, 3621 North 11th street, who is charged with the stealing of an automobile tire from the machine of Frank B. Johnston, 6625 Mc-Cullen street, which was standing near Shibe Fark while the game was in prog-ress. McBride admitted trying to sell the tire to an automobile dealer at 1337 Boston avenue, but said he had obtained it from a friend, whose name he refused to divulge. He was held in $500 bail for court when arraigned before Magistrate Emely in the Fark and Lehigh avenues police station this morning. A case of alleged robbery and one of obtaining money under false pretenses were also brought to light in this morn-her's bearings the former being that of ing's hearings, the former being that of John Dorfey, who says he lives at 2d and Pine streets, charged with forcible entry and robbery of the home of Mrs. George Walker, 2531 North 12th street, and Mrs. George Wood's home, 3092 North Warnock street, Dorfey was arrested by Warnock street. Dorfey was arrested by Special Policeman Richardson, of the Park and Lehigh avenues station, after

Park and Lehigh avenues station, after an exciting chase over housetops in the neighborhood of Germantown avenue and Orleans street, which finally ended in a capture, effected in the cellar of the home of Mrs. Williams, 1004 Orleans street. When arraised before Magistrate Emely this morning, Dorfey admitted the robbery of the home of Mrs. Walker, but denied the charge of robbing Mrs. Wood. He was held under $1200 bail for court. court.

A new light on the Mack-Stallings con-troversy was furnished today by Dick Rudolph, victorious pitcher of the open-ing game, who said Counie Mack refused to permit the Boston Braves to practice at Shibe Park, because of a sloping pitcher's box, well calculated to confuse worthless note on which two indorse-ments were forged. He was held under $30 ball for further hearing when ar-raigned before Magistrate Emely in the Park and Lehigh avenues station this morning.

ROYAL ROOTERS FROM BOSTON LOOKING HAPPY

THE VETERANS OF THE WORLD'S SERIES These are the two oldest men participating in the championship contest, our very own Plank and Evers, of the Police Co-operation.

exposed today at Shibe Park, when Edward Dehrndt, 2710 Judson street, a 19-

Policemen ticket scalpers were further

SPECULATORS REAPING RICH HARVEST FROM ARDENT FANS One Flaunts Roll as Evidence of Places in Line at Shibe Park Bring High Prices.

Speculators at the baseball grounds today reaped a rich harvest due to the

SCALPERS STILL AT WORK OPTOMETRISTS DO NOT TREAT DISEASE, COMPLAINANTS SAY

Examinations in Anatomy and Physiology Hence Superfluous.

Pleas that optometrists made no efforts to treat diseases of the eye and

HITS OUTSIDE THE DIAMOND SCORED BY FANS AND ROOTERS

Patrons of the Game Comment With More or Less Zest On History-Making Conflicts of Baseball Giants. Today's Hopes Overcome Yesterday's Grief.

A merchant from South street, with a wagon load of umbrellas, found buriness rather slim. The average fan will stand for a little rain unprotected, while if it rains hard he knows the game will be called off. The umbrelia man was told that he "stood to lose, no matter which way the weather went."

Drug stores near the ball ground did a good business last night. There was something in the air that developed hun-dreds of coughs along the half mile of fans. All kinds of cold cures had a trial to wasd off to ward off possible attacks of pneumonia.

There was another disagreeable sur-prise in store for the fans this morning when the walking restaurants increased when the walking restnurants increased the price of food. Slim sandwiches, which sold two for five yesterday, jumped to five cents each, and coffee went to the regular rotaurant price of five cents a cup. It was learned that the venders had a conference early this morning, and, realizing what a con-venience they were to the baseball lov-ing public, agreed to reward themselves accordingly. cordingly.

accordingly. Several of the players on both teams have received offers from vaudeville man-agers, but the inducements, for some unthown reason, are not as good as in former years.

Police stations near the ball park had a record-breaking might for drunks. Many were so disappointed at the Braves' une expected victory that ordinary language failed and something definite had to be done to properly express their loyalty.

Youngsters near the ground found new angle for making money. Fans in line who wanted a regular meal paid the hoys for holding their places while they went to restaurants for breakfast. The enthusiasts then returned in much better condition to wait for the battle.

Many of the "roof-top" fans were roothig hard for Boston at yesterday's game. They had been unable to get seats, coming in town at the last minute, and they were particularly bitter, as they assorted the Philadelphia club had not given them a square deal. 'Get a megaphone!'' shouled a staunch Philadelphian to a Brave rooter, who was making himself heard on a 20th street roof. The Brave rooter grabbed a newspaper, obeyed instructions, and soon gathered a crowd of several hundred. who were anxious to hear every play. Even the home fan stood underneath and took the "kidding" cheerfully.

Heard from the 20th street roof tops: "Bender should worry-maybe he's only "Stalling." "

"The Rabbit may only be knee high, but he's got some reach-he just knocked down the score board."

"Why, recorded Smith, here are my tickets." and he pulled tickets for yea-terday's and today's games from his pocket. "T'll just have lunch leisurely and drive in a taxl to the Polo-And right there his own utterances awakened Mr. Smith. "I'll bet I'm the most absent-minded person in the world," he fairly yelled. "If any one wants to buy me a drink they will have to wait until the game is over," said one of the men who were New York for the world's series and I don't seem able to break myself of it.

using megaphones to give the plays to the ones below. "Did you see that play?-The Rabbit just stood on his ear to catch that one." "Double plays don't always win the game. "Wheopoon (war whoop)-did you see at strike?" yelled one fan who was that strike?" several blocks back.

Fans who sold their places and then Fans who sold their places and then refused to give them up caused several fights in the line this morning. In one instance the buyer of the space dragged the temporary owner out of line and de-manded his money back. In the fight which followed several others became involved and half a dozen policemen chased the fighters from the neighborhood. Sev-money on yesterday's game, having placed their bets on the Athletics. One eral sympathizers who had been in line all night lost their places. It was surprising to find how many fickle Philadeiphians denounced the Ath-letics for during to lose the opening paper.

well rewarded.

that they were ever on the pollos force, many of them acquired the knack of sleeping while standing up in line. But it is necessary to stand on an angle and wedge one's heels against a piece and wedge one's needs against a prece of wood. This prevents failing over on the face. It is impossible to fail in any other direction, for the surrounding fans hold the sleepers safely.

Hundreds of high school boys joined the line last night. Many of them are star players on the school teams and desire to get a few pointers from the world's best in today's struggle.

A delegation of clergymen have reservations for today's game. One promi-nent minister said "the game gives one excellent subjects for a sermon, for it shows in itself that perseverance enables us to overcome obstacles and come back to the home plate and be winners, al-though we may have been down and out."

WHY?

Don't the blonds all sit in the blenchers. The sun preserves the color?

Did so many Athletics go out on strikes when they're not union men? Do the fans want to sit on Lapp when

Do the fans want to sit on Lapp when he gave such good support. Not make the female fans take their hats off at a men's show? Do so many peaches go in pairs to the game when a single girl has the best chance near a diamond? Does the thin man sit down so wide and become narrow when he's criticized?

become narrow when he's criticised? Loos the sandwich man try to inflict his food upon the people at the most critical time in the game? Do the turnstile men growl at the bleach-erites? They should remember that one

Robert Wendell Smith, a Boston manu-

Robert Wendell Smith, a Boston manu-facturer, stepped from a train at the Grand Central Station at II o'clock yes-terday morning, mays the New York World today, and took a taxicab to the Hotel Astor, where he registered. "I thought all Boston would be at the world's series game?" said the clork. "About all Boston would be there, too," replied Mr. Smith. "I wouldn't miss the series for a farm." "You'll miss today's game, though." said the clerk. "How can you get there now?"

"Why," retorted Smith, "here are my

"I've got into the habit of coming to Call a cab, call a cab"; and he ran to Broadway. A chauffeur who got Mr. Smith to the Pennsylvania station in time to catch the 12 o'clock train for Philadelphia was

The importance of the victory to the Boston and Bostonians was shown that more than ten columns of "news" mat-ter was "shot" over the wire by one of the sporting writers of a Boston news-

Many of the Boston loyal rooters lost good turn deserves another.

pitcher's box, well calculated to confuse any twirler not accustomed to its use. Rudolph would say but little regarding the unpleasantness between the two managers, except that, in his opinion, the arrangement of the pitching box was part of the Mack tactics and strategy which the Athletics' manager did not care to have known until it was necessary.

Rudolph praised the work of his team in y-storday's contest. He modestly dis-claimed gycat credit and said Catcher Gowdy deserved as much praise as he. Concerning his victory, Rudolph said:

"How could you expect a man to feel, after winning a same like that? When I went into the hox in the first inning. I felt a little timid, as I faced the first batfelt a little timid, as I faced the first bat-ter of 'Munderers' Row. The batters I feared most were Collins and Baker. When the second inning started I re-gained my confidence and after that everything went well. I felt sorry for Jack Karrs, who tried his beat to get a hit, but failed. It was not masterful pitching that won the game for me, and Catcher Gowdy deserves as much credit as I do. I did not think the Athletics were hitting at all well, so I simply out-guessed them."

Rudolph would not discuss the possi-

Rudolph would not discuss the possibilition of today's game. The Boston team spent a quiet morning at the Hotel Majestic. Before breakfast the players sat about, discussed the result of yestorday's contest and the merits of various members of the Athletics. With the appearance some time later of Manager Stallings, the entire team held a conference with its chief. Many flowers have been sent to various members of the Braves' team by admirmembers of the Braves' team by admir-ing fans in this city. Some came from Boston. The flowers were placed on display for a while, and it was later an-nounced they would be distributed among Philadelphia hospitals.

CALL NAVY STUBBORN

Club Members Disappointed at Failure to Arrange Army Game.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10-Stubbornness on the part of those in control of athletic affairs at the Naval Academy is blamed for the present acute situation in athletic relations between the two service schools of the United States, in the opinion of the members of the Army and Navy Club. A canvass of the sentiments of the officers of both branches of the service disclosed the fact that there would be keen disappointment among the graduates if there came any interruption to the annual football struggle between the elevens of the cadets and the midshipmen. Navy officers declare that the Annapolis authorities should concede a point to the rather fair proposition of the Army countil, which proposition of the army coun-til, which proposes a ten-year agreement with games alternatiog between cities Belected by the rival institutions no further north than New York and no further south than Washington. Hope is

ATHLETICS' LOSS PUTS POLICEMAN BEHIND BARS

Guardians of Law and Order, Disappointed, Seeks Solace in Saloon.

There is no sadder man in this city today than Policeman Patrick Kirby, When the Athletics lost yesterday Kirby also lost his spirits. But, fortunately, he made up for the loss by getting in touch with more spirits far away from his district, which is the 55th and Pine streets station.

Kirby, it appears, was detailed to help handle the crowds at the world's series game. He anticipated a decisive victory for the home team, and when the Braves brought run after run across the home plate he couldn't tolerate such a condition

But just how the policeman lost his hearings and got to 12th and Filbert streets on his way to 55th and Pine from 21st and Lehigh avenue is a matter of on lecture.

While in a saloon near Filbert street while in a saloon near propert street early this morning, it seems that Kirby attanzied to tell others just how the Athletics lost. He became so noisy in his explanation that he was ordered out. In the meanwhile Policeman McMullin, of the lith and Winter streets station, happened along, and, hearing the racket, ran inside. Kirby objected to being ar-rested by another policeman, but could not specify clearly just who he would like to be arrested by. Even the ap-plication of the brother policeman's club did not seem to impress him. Finally he was half carried to the Winter street station house and placed in a cell.

Magistrate Tracy made every effort to learn how Kirby got into the district, but the prisoner did not know, nor did he care. He was held in $560 hall for a further hearing.

BETTING IS BRISK TODAY

Philadelphian Takes Wager of $1000

Even That the Athletics Win Game. Betting on today's game was brisk. Most of the bets on the second game as well as on the series was at even money. Boston money of various amounts was visible in the corridors of the leading hotels. The inrgest bet was made by a Philadelphian. He placed $1000 even that the Athletics would win today.

felt that the pressure of those prominent Harvard students, won $200) on yester-in the service may effect a reconciliation in time to assure the annual game this Many bets were made by Bostonians on the Athletics.

Let us cease this sad repining, let us chuck away the gloom,

For if Boston wins the championship Hank Gowdy wins a mate, And Cupid on his shoulder has been sitting; Which provides a goodly reason for the catcher's lightning rate, And another explanation of his hitting.

Let us "can" the inquest stuff and alibi-ing; In the lexicon of champions there is no post-mortem room, Let us blame the God of Love and cut out sighing.

Athletics' defeat yesterday. Offers of seats and places in line were snapped up at almost any price because of the desire of ardent Philadelphia rooters to see their home team retrieve itself today. Good positions in the line of bleacher fans outside Shibe Pack brought high prices before the box window opened. William Hawkey, 855 Gilmore avenue. Brooklyn, who came to Philadelphia to Brooklyn. seek a fortune and obtained 15th position from the ticket window, refused to sell his place for less than $15. He was offered $12 and refused. They say the de-sire to see the Athletics win today's game is greater than the pleasure of making money. The business of scalping places in line is being conducted outside the ball grounds along the lines of a well-organ-ized business. The scalper, who has had the forethought to place a number of small boys in line to hold places for him, now goes among the crowd and offers now goes among the crowd and offers these stations for no modest sum. Usual-ly his offers are quickly snapped up. Passengers alighting from street cars anywhere within a radius of six blocks from Shihe Park are assailed on every side by speculators, who have places in the bleacher line to offer. These sell at various prices, from $1 up. Thomas Burk, an old man, of 1549 Le-birsh avenue complained to the police high avenue, complained to the police that he sold his place in line and re-ceived a counterfeit $5 bill in exchange. Lieutenant Boyle, of the Park and Le-high avenues station, went with Burke to the place in which he had been standing prior to the transaction. The po-sition then was held by Frank Dowd, of

Hazleton, Pa. Down denied he had pur-chased Burk's place and the crowd sided with him. No police action was taken. ST. LOUIS PITCHER HURT

Earl Hamilton and Five Girls Seriously Injured in Mishap.

ST. LOUIS. Mo., Oct. 19.-Earl Hamil-ton, pitcher for the St. Louis Browns, and five girls were seriously injured, one of them probably fatally, here today, when Hamilton's automobile crashed into a partition on Ends bridge across the Mississippi River and was wrecked. Miss Pearl Kelley, 25 years old, hurled from the automobile, dropped through a hole in the bridge flooring to a railroad yard 29 feet below. She received injuries which, it is believed, will cause her death. Ham-liton suffered fractures of three ribs. The automobile was presented to Ham-liton by the local Federal League team. The other women in the car were Misses

President Names Porto Rican Official WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 .- The President oday nominated Antonio R. Barcelo, of od is member of the Market at 18th Street

Rose Burk, 19 years; Evelyn Redford, 20 years; Nellie Wass, 30 years, and Mrs. Anna Kelley, 29 years old. Porto Rico, to be a member Executive Council of Porto Rico.

Wedding Silver if you have a wedding gift to huy, in very attractive assortment of ong Silver and hard metal plated illfus that are always appro-a and acceptable. Selections of highest character at moderate C. R. Smith & Son, Inc.

year-old speculator, proudly held up a roll of $350 in bills and said, "The cops helped me get that." Dehrndt incidentally disposed of a single seat in the stands directly over the Athletic players hearing of an application for an injunc-bench for $35.

He said he had been one of Joe Banks' companions in the line which formed in anatomy and physiology. at Gimbel's on the day tickets were first offered for sale and that the police had placed him ahead of others at good places in the line after he had "slipped July the Bureau of Medical Education them some money."

"I paid out $30 or $40 to cops," said Dehrndt, "and had no trouble in getting all the tickets I wanted. If I saw a place in the line which looked good to me, I gave a policeman $5 and was squeezed into the place. Others in the line ob-jected, but the cops fixed that all right." the man who paid $35 for his seat back of the home players' bench is William Lodge, of Logan. Mr. Lodge is an en-thusiastic Athletic fan, and said he was willing to see today's game at any price. He said this after he had purchased that ticket from Dehrndt.

RUNAWAY AUTO PLAYS TAG AMONG PARKWAY PERGOLAS

Joy Riders Scream, Car Hits Alleged Ornament and Upsets.

At last it has been discovered why pergolas were placed in the Parkway. There is nothing better to stop balky automobiles, as Howard Wilson, a Negro, 1914 Sharswood street, who steered a joy party of friends early this morning, will attest. Wilson speeded up on reaching the smooth surface of the Parkway, but the car had only gone a few yards when it became unmanageable. It took a zig-zag course among the pergolas. The as course among the pergolas. The screams of the passengers did not remedy matters and, after the car described a circle half a dozen times, it crashed against a pergola and upset.

The riders were extricated by a police man and sent to the Garrettson Hos-epital. They had slight outs and bruises. This morning Magistrate Beaton heid Wilson in 1990 bail for court. Wilson is a chauffeur for Dr. William Keim, 1716 North 18th atrect.

that all cases needing attention were sent to eye specialists were entered this morning before Judges Willson and Auden ried in Common Pleas Court during the Accused of Writing Policies for cal Education and Licensure from re-Persons in Names of Invalids. quiring optometrists to pass examinations An alleged swindle in which innocen

The injunction is sought by Alexander Martin, 15th and Chestnut streets, and dying women and men are the central figures, and which, according to detec-Otto G. Haussman, 705 Chestnut street, for the Association of Optometrists. Last tives of the State Insurance Department. will result in many arrests, was revealed today in the arrest of Lewis Seiger, of isaued an order which brings optometrists under the jurisdiction of the board and 531 North Marshall street. Seiger is a requires rigid examinations in physiology. Ontometrists confine their work to prelife insurance agent. The arrest of Seiger was made on complaint of the Conservative Life Insurance Company, with branch offices in various parts of the country. The main offices scribing glasses for near-sighted persons and others whose impaired vision is not the result of disease, according to Mr. Martin. The practice was purely mechan-ical and consisted merely of making measurements and tests, he declared. of the company are located at Wheeling, W. Va. After Seiger was held in $800 bail by owen J. Roberts, attorney for the optom-etrists, argued that optometry was taught in the department of physics at Columbia University. This, he said proved that the practice should not be regarded as medical and brought under Magistrate Tracy for a further hearing on October 13, on the charge of making false and fraudulent representations for the purpose of defrauding, detectives the supervision of the State hoard. The hearing will be continued.

MAYOR PRAISES VICTORS

But Has Not Lost Hope of Ultimate Triumpheof Athletics.

Mayor Blankenburg, while expressing regret that the Athletics lost the first game, said today he was glad it was the Boston team that "did it." He still has every confidence in the home players, and although he will make no prediction concerning the result of today's game. tays he has hope.

The Mayor said: "Inasmuch as the Ath-letics had to be defeated yesterday. I am glad that it was the Boston team that did it. The Boston team descrives wonderful credit, as it made a solendid up-hill light, 1 will, however, make no predictions on the contest for today."

LOCAL FIRE RECORD

P. M. 11-21-Haines st. and McMahon ave Phila and Reading bridge. Trifling Leisa A. M. N. Broad et., Doctor Vander-12 4-331 N. Broad et., Doctor Vander-van's residence. Triffing 7.07-147-40-Al Scett's Jane, Manayunki Labian Company's stables. Unknown are easy for us to solve and adjust-that's our specialty. We show you exclusive models, or we will specially design and make up your own ideas.

Lighting Troubles

The Horn & Brannen Mfg. Co. Display Rooms and Workshops 427-433 N. Broad St. A Short Walk Along Automobile Row

a healthy person file an application for INSURANCE AGENT HELD insurance. As a rule, it is alleged by ON SWINDLING CHARGE the insurance department, the insurance would be placed in the name of a person who was old and feeble. Following death the insurance was paid to relatives of the insurance was paid to relatives of the dead person. Seiger was an authorized agent of the Conservative Life Insurance Company, and is alleged to have done business in Philadelphia and other parts of Penn-sylvania. A warrant was served on him while he was standing in the corridor of the Constraint Motel the Continental Hotel

Seiger lives with his wife and six chil-dren at the North Marshall street address. At his home it was said that he was a life insurance agent, and acted as the Philadelphia representative of the Conservative Life Insurance Company. Selder maintained desk room in a real state office a short distance from his iomie,

BLACK & WHITE SHOP I. W. MULREADY Millinery & Importer 125 So. 16th St. (Formerly at 1305 Walnut St.) NEW LOCATION

The Hupmobile Five Passengers Pive passengers in all the comfort and case that reason can ask or Tedaller. Power and to spare for anywhere you can travel.

Equipment complete, even to small details like license carriers.

Refinements that belong to the Hup alone this year-because the Hup leads progress.

All this and more the new Hup gives 5.041

For you get the old Hup quality, the old Hup service at low cost, the old Hup reliability.

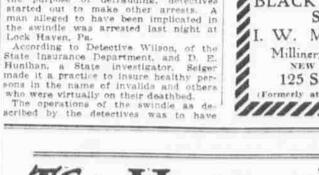

And those, let me tell you, are ea-sentials worth having, as well as a big, roomy hody, conveniences throughout and everything con-nected with the operation of the car make simple and cary.

The Hup has alwars stood head and shoulders above the general run of cars-I hardly need tell you that.

When you come in to see the new model you'll say that it is main-taining the place that belongs to the blue the Hup.

G. G. BROWNLER, Mar.

Sedan top for the touring car, coups top for the roadster, make winter driving usay and comfortable, and their cost is exceedingly altractive.

336 N. Broad St.

Bell 'Phone-Spruce 4905

Broad and Tioga Sts.

Hell 'Phone Tioga $413 Keystone 'Phone Park 5340.A

G. G. Brownlee, Mgr.