"SHOOTS UP" A CAFE

Waiter Substitutes Frying Pan When He Finds Cartridges Are Blanks.

A little business misunderstanding between John Robert Jenkins and George Howard Briggs developed today when the former started to "shoot up" the latter's cafe, at 513 South 17th street. Both men are Negroes. Jenkins was employed as a waiter by Briggs, and, according to Briggs, he used to help himself to leftover roast chicken, pigs' feet and pork

Briggs discharged Jenkins and says he then received threatening letters from the ex-walter. He admitted owing Jenkins money, but said what the latter took out of the refrigerator at night "more than amplified any financial deficiency."

Jenkins called with a revolver. Briggs umped under a table at the first few shote, but Jenkins pulled him out and shot him in the back. But Briggs didn't drop dead. He simply stared at Jenkins and looked amazed. Then it dawned upon Jenkins that he was using blank cartridges. He threw the revolver away and picked up a frying pan.

After he had smashed enough things to gratify his temper, he was accessed by Policeman Borton, of the 12th and Pine streets station. Magistrate Haggerty held Jenkins in $500 bail for court.

MILK DEALERS ACCUSED

Charged With Buying Goods Alleged to Have Been Stolen.

Milk alleged to have been stolen from the Pennsylvania Railroad freight station at 31st and Chesinut streets led to the arrest of Howard J. Mowrer and Leonard F. Robb, West Philadelphia milk dealers, on a charge of receiving stolen goods.

According to the police. Mowrer admits buying the milk from Willard Ward and Roland Smith, who were previously charged with the thefts, and reselling it to Robb. All were held under $500 ball this morning by Magistrate Boyle in the 39th street and Lancaster avenue police station.

PROSPECTIVE "LODGER" HELD Police Think Prisoner Is Man Wanted for Slick Thefts.

Charles Kraup, 15th and Cumberland streets, was held in $1500 bail for court today by Magistrate Emely at the Park and Lehigh avenues station on several charges of larceny.

Kraup was arrested on a charge preferred by Mrs. Louise Curneck, 2457 North Park avenue, who said he came to her home for a room, and when she went to answer the door bell tried to steal some jewelry. The police say Kraup has been working this game for a year, getting rid of the atolen property by exchanges with jewelers.

BOY UNDER SERIOUS CHARGE Plea Made to Government by Cham-Arrested After Alleged Assault on 14-year-old Girl.

A charge of assault and battery led to the arrest of William Futsch, 16 years hearing by Magistrate Morris. It is alleged that Futsch was the leader of six boys who attacked H-year-old Marie Hallagan at her home, 1822 Mont-gomery avenue, last night.

The girl and her broftler, Timothy, who is 16 years old, had been left at home by their parents. When the girl was attacked her brother rushed to her aid, but was unable to drive off her assailants. A neighbor, Fred P. Marx, heard the girl's cries and summoned Policeman Zangle, of the 39th and Berks sailants. streets station, who arrested Futsch. The other boys escaped, but it is said that their identity is known and that arrests will be made today,

CLUBWOMEN MEET IN PITTSBURGH FOR STATE CONVENTION

Questions Vital to Prosperity of City, State and Nation Discussed by Speakers Before Federation.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.-Questions of vital interest to the home, the State, the nation-and to women in particular-were discussed today at the nineteenth annual meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, which opened in the Soldiers and Sailors' Memorial Hall. The events of vesterday were merely incidental to the formal opening of the business sessions this morning.

Mrs. Samuel Semple, of Titusville, State president, was in the chair when the meeting was called to order. Mrs. Robert D. Coard, vice president of the southwestern district of the State Federation, delivered an address of welcome, as did Assistant City Solicitor H. M. frons for the city. The response was by Mrs. Semple on behalf of the State Fed-

Mrs. Semple in her response said there were two classes of people, those who lift and those who lean. The spirit of Pittsburgh was "not to knock, but to est," and Pittsburgh's aim was to lift and not to lean. She thanked the various and not to team. She thanked the various organizations for their co-operation. At the conclusion of her address she asked the women to remove their hats and all the fancy fall millinery was removed.

Mrs. G. W. Coblentz, of Clarion, recording secretary, read the minutes of the ast meeting. Dr. S. B. McCormick, chancellor of the niversity of Pittsburgh, in an address to the federation, said; "The form of service of clubwomen today includes the domestic life of the comthe affairs of the world will injure the home is a false assumption, and it is the business of women to remedy any belief of that kind. The home is the conomic institution, and it is important for the women to make the home an economic factor. If social conditions are to be made what they should be, men and women must co-operate in remedying the condition.

When women learn that men are as good as themselves, and when men learn that women are their equals, then this great State will take its foremost place in many ways, as it already has in some lays in the sisterhood of States.'
