

DR. BRUMBAUGH SAYS
CANDIDATES DENY HE IS FOR LOCAL OPTION

Candidate Puts Brand on Those Who Wilfully Misrepresent His Stand on the Liquor Question.

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 12.—Blair County this morning heard Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, the Republican nominee for Governor, reaffirm his faith in local option, and stand as he has in the past on the liquor question, declare that he stood unequivocally pledged to the passage of a local option law in Pennsylvania and assert that he would not flinch on this great moral issue. More than a score of former Washington party men at once pledged Doctor Brumbaugh their votes and their support.

Dr. Brumbaugh was back among the home folks, and when he toured the southern end of Blair County today, everywhere he went he was met by relatives and friends who addressed him familiarly as "Martin." These plain, big-hearted, sincere people were glad to see him and he was glad to see them, and they told each other so.

Dr. Brumbaugh, accompanied by Henry Houck and M. M. Garland, the latter candidate for Congressman at large, arrived at Hollidaysburg from Bedford this morning. Dr. Brumbaugh, with his public schools, carefully excluding politics from his remarks. Later a reception was held at the office of County Chairman J. Lee Plummer, where an address was delivered before 40 citizens.

The party then entered automobiles and made the first stop at Duncansville, two miles away, where the schools were visited and speeches made before 300 people.

The next stop was at Roaring Spring. The party visited the big paper mill and book bindery and shook hands with the employees. At 200 hundred townspeople from the balcony of the hotel and was noisily greeted. Martinsburg, Beavertown and Williamsburg were also visited and at each place the candidates were given a rousing welcome. At Williamsburg the school children met the candidates. Addresses were delivered in the public square.

Congressional Candidate J. L. Hartman, Senatorial Candidate Plymouth W. Snyder and other local candidates accompanied Dr. Brumbaugh on his tour. The party will go East this evening.

Speaking at Bedford last night, Doctor Brumbaugh said:

"In this goodly county, whose people I have known many of whom I have taught, and with whose economic outlook I am familiar, I wish unequivocally to assure you that I stand committed to the passage of a local option law in Pennsylvania, giving the people of the several counties of this State the right to decide for themselves whether or not the license for the sale of liquor shall be granted in their county."

"No man can speak more plainly on this subject than I have and no candidate who is honest with the people, can say or do more than I have promised to do, and you know me well enough to know that when I have promised to do a thing, I do it."

PALMER SHOWS PENROSE'S
HELPLESSNESS IN SENATE

with Democrats in Control. His Tariff Ideas Wouldn't Take.

SUNBURY, Pa., Oct. 12.—A Mitchell Palmer, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, left here this morning for a campaigning tour through Lycoming County. Accompanying him were Joseph Shore, Montourville, Muncy and Montgomery during the day and in Williamsport tonight.

Before an audience that filled every seat in the 12th Regiment Armory and a crowd of several hundred persons, who were forced to stand in the rear of the hall, Congressman Palmer repudiated in vigorous terms the tariff ideas of Representative General M. Hampton Todd that he was a "free trader," and as in previous speeches he pointed out how helpless in a Democratic Senate a tariff bill would be to bring back a high protective tariff, even if he should be elected.

Congressman Palmer commented upon a Penrose interview which appeared in a Philadelphia newspaper before going to the armory to speak last night. In his statement Senator Penrose stated that Senator Crow was correct in saying that Congressman Palmer's affiliations with corporations as reflected in the 107 session of the legislature.

When shown the statement, Congressman Palmer at once answered Senator Penrose in the same way. I answered Senator Crow. His statement is false."

The Democratic candidate had the big audience thoroughly with them last night. Vance C. McCormick, candidate for Governor; "Farmer" William T. Creasy, candidate for Lieutenant Governor; William N. McNair, candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs, and two of the party's candidates for Congressman at large, Robert S. Bright and Arthur B. Clark, were introduced by Congressman John V. Leaser, who presided. Derisive laughter for Senator Penrose and the Penrose machine in State politics continually interrupted the speakers as the methods of the Penrose organization were laid bare.

SULZER CHALLENGES
ROOSEVELT TO DEBATE

Answers Charge of Campaign Fund
Irregularity With Like Accusation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—William Sulzer has challenged Theodore Roosevelt to debate on campaign contributions, political losses and "fifty-fifty graft," the sale of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company to the United States Steel Corporation and the Panama Canal scandal. The former President has not replied to the challenge, but he is expected to say something about it in one of his campaign speeches in the central part of the State today.

Sulzer's letter to the Colonel is an answer to the latter's accusation that Sulzer had failed to report all his campaign contributions to the State. The former Governor asks if Tammany Hall is financing the Roosevelt campaign.

"What have you to say about the Harriman contribution of several hundred thousand dollars when you were a candidate? Who got that? Who accounted for it? Who got the money through the insurance companies? These are some of the questions Sulzer wants answered. He adds that 'people who live in glass houses should not throw stones,' and advises Roosevelt 'to be a man or a mouse.'"

BRYAN PRAISES PALMER

Says He Will Be Addition to Reform
Strength in Senate.

M'CORMICK URGES PASTORS TO PREACH MORAL ISSUES

Would Have Them Give at Least One
Sermon Before Election.

Cherymen of Pennsylvania have been urged in a letter by Vance C. McCormick, Democratic candidate for Governor, to consider the propriety of preaching at least one sermon prior to the election on the importance of Christian citizens voting and seeking the vote of their neighbors for good government.

Preaching his letter with a statement that he has no desire to commit the pulpit to partisan politics, Mr. McCormick states that a political campaign should be a period of education, and that the pulpit should be the arena for the plain, big-hearted, sincere people were glad to see him and he was glad to see them, and they told each other so.

SECRETARY BRYAN CONFERS WITH POSTMASTER THORNTON

Gives Advice on the Political Situation in Pennsylvania.

Secretary of State Bryan and Postmaster Thornton held a political conference shortly before Mr. Bryan's departure for Washington, last night. It was nearly midnight when Mr. Bryan entered Broad street station, unaccompanied, and was met there by Postmaster Thornton.

For about 20 minutes the two paced up and down the platform, absorbed in serious discussion. At first Mr. Bryan listened very attentively to the report of Postmaster Thornton on the local situation, after which, knitting his brows heavily, Mr. Bryan began to give Mr. Thornton advice. From the expression on Mr. Bryan's face it was evident he considered the situation in Pennsylvania quite serious as far as the Democrats were concerned. However, it did not put Mr. Bryan in any bad humor. For he cheerfully handed the porter a $200 bill and jumped into his sleeping car.

CARNEGIE AIDS DEMOCRATS

Reported He and James J. Hill Have Contributed Campaign Funds.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—That Andrew Carnegie is contributing generously to the Democratic campaign for Governor, the information obtained here tonight from a source believed to be authoritative. From the same source it was ascertained that Mr. Hill is also contributing to the cause. It will be recalled that Mr. Carnegie was an enthusiastic supporter of President Wilson's Panama Canal tolls policy and was very much in favor of the repeal of the anti-trust laws.

Mr. Carnegie's contribution, it was stated, was made through William F. McCormick, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Whether the statement of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee remains to be seen, as the law does not compel disclosure of campaign contributions made to the national committees except in Presidential years.

NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

Republican Chairman Points Out
Three Essentials to Success.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Asked to indicate his policy as chairman of the Republican State Committee yesterday, Frederick V. Coe, summarized what he stood for as follows:

"First, a clean, effective and hard-hitting organization.

"Second, responsible leadership, with a liberal and aggressive program.

"Third, the final test, sincere and real public service, without which party organization fails of its purpose."

NO "CONFERENCE" AT KOLB'S

Emphatic Denial of Brumbaugh-Penrose Meeting at His Home.

Emphatic denial of the story circulated recently by Washington party leaders that Doctor Brumbaugh, before announcing his candidacy, conferred with Senator Louis J. Kolb in the home of Louis J. Kolb is made by Mr. Kolb, who is now the treasurer of the Brumbaugh citizens' committee.

Mr. Kolb declared yesterday he did not get a general statement of the story from Pennsylvania and that the whole story did not contain an atom of truth. He said that although he had made a general denial when the story was first reported, there still seemed to be a doubt in the minds of some.

REPUBLICAN MAIL FOR MORRIS

Democratic Chairman Is Asked to Support Penrose.

Roland S. Morris, Democratic State Chairman, has received through the mails by some mistake letters urging him to make contributions to Republican campaign funds and to support the Penrose ticket. The letters, it is stated, were addressed to the person in whom it was addressed and the person in whom it was addressed desired that until he received the letter he had no knowledge that he was a candidate.

The letter prints out that for business reasons, Brumbaugh, Penrose, McClain and Houck are the only names which Mr. Morris can support. Upon his support of these candidates, it is stated, his business and political property and happiness depend.

CANDIDATE LEADS FIREMEN

Miller, of Delaware, Suspends Political Speech When Flames Threaten.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Thomas W. Miller, Republican nominee for Governor, led a party of firemen when flames threatened the legislative building attached to the Delaware House and threatened to spread to nearby frame buildings.

Mr. Miller, who was in Smyrna addressing a campaign meeting, responded with the volunteer firemen, and aided them in their efforts to contain the flames from the buildings. The loss was $15,000.

SNUBS FOR SOCIETY
"FOR PROMOTION" OF LITTLE BLIND GOD

"Hands Off!" Says Mr.
Pennypacker to the Bureau to Encourage the Happiness of Families.

Marriages, all the good books say, are made in heaven but if a certain association which is applying for articles of incorporation to the Supreme Court in New York and which, if it gets them, expects to establish branch bureaus in Philadelphia and other large cities, has its way, it's going to be permitted to keep its eye on this business of the celestial kingdom to see that every one goes all right.

Of course marriages may continue to be made in the same place, but the success of some of them is hereafter going to be looked after by this association, which calls itself the Society for the Promotion of Family Happiness.

Of what avail is it, unless you are able to have your husband's life insured, or his health or his safety, if you leave out the most important thing of all and do not secure a premium on his affection?

Has the first blush of romance been brushed from your wedded bliss? Have your husband's "detached-at-the-office" expressions become unusually frequent? Are the Saturday night voice offerings—the flowers and the candy—no longer forthcoming? Does the pale blue blouse which used to bring forth extravagant encomiums every time you wore it no longer elicit compliment or even comment?

In short, do you feel that your love life has gone the least bit astray, and would you like to prevent the founderings? Then consult the Society for the Promotion of Family Happiness, which is headed by no less a personage than Justice Pitkin of the United States Court. In the language of the vernacular, the society's the doctor!

MR. PENNYPACKER SNUBS IT.

In an endeavor to find out just how badly such an association was needed in this city of Brotherly Love (and the other kind, too), a reporter went to Samuel W. Pennypacker, who, from the wealth of his experience, must have gained on the bench, at the bar and in the gubernatorial chair, is considered an authority on all these matters.

He spoke in a scornful and ardent advocate of reform divorce laws, though immersed in the accumulation of several days' work, stopped to express his disapproval of the thought of such a society. He struck his eye glasses on vigorously, frowned across the top of them, and then rapped out sharply:

"But, but, there are some things that it is best for outsiders to let alone and the law affairs of a man and a woman is one of them."

And because he really was provoked at the thought of such a society, he was daring to interfere with a matter that is the express business of a certain little blind boy who wears wings and not much else, he would not give a word of advice. Judge Patterson, on the contrary, though he agreed with Mr. Pennypacker that the less outside interference the home is the better, he thought it will be best for outsiders to put forth some epigrams about the idea of the newly proposed Society for the Promotion of Family Happiness, and after thinking a minute or two, he spoke out as follows:

"I am a better protectionist than Penrose ever was. I believe in a tariff commission to work out that question. That is the only solution to the most vexatious problem before the American people today."

After the East Pittsburgh stop, the party was hurried to Swisshole, where Pinchot met the employees of the Union Switch and Signal Company during their dinner break.

From there they will go to the Edgar Thomson Steel Works in Braddock. Tonight Mr. Pinchot will attempt to address three meetings, one each in Wilkinton, Braddock and McKeesport. Mrs. Pinchot is not with her husband on the trip.

PALMER AND M'CORMICK
GREETED IN LYCOMING

Secretary Wilson, of Department of Labor, Accompanies Candidates.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 12.—Vance C. McCormick, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Arthur B. Clark, candidate for United States Senator, were greeted by hundreds of railroad men and other workers, as well as many business and professional men and farmers, on their tour through Lycoming County today, and everywhere they were met with assurances of support on election day.

Besides Messrs. Palmer and McCormick, the "flying squadron" included Wm. N. McNair, candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs; Robert S. Bright, Arthur B. Clark and Chas. F. Crosby, candidate for Congressman at large, and Secretary of Labor Wm. H. Wilson. When they arrived here at 11 o'clock they were joined by a number of Williamsport Democrats and went by train to the Jersey Shore station on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and from there were conveyed by automobile to Ays, where the New York Central shops are located.

Brief addresses were made here by Secretary Wilson and Messrs. Palmer and McCormick and the candidates shook hands with the throng of railroaders who gathered near the shops at the noon hour. Retiring to the Hotel Hamilton, a meeting was held and the caravan of automobiles then returned through Williamsport, going to Montourville, Muncy and Montourville. At each of these places short meetings were held and the candidates met crowds of voters.

The party will return to Williamsport this evening and will be greeted at a reception at the Young Men's Democratic Club from 7 to 8 o'clock. A mass-meeting will be held at the Court House tonight, at which John J. Heaton, candidate for Congress in the 15th District, will preside.

PASTEUR TREATMENT FOR BOY

The Pasteur treatment will be given to 10-year-old George Jeffries, 254 Warnock street, at the University Hospital, following the discovery made today that a boy which bit the child yesterday was mad.

A squad of policemen and private detectives are guarding the pier, and keeping all suspicious looking persons away.

BERNARD J. BRADY, SR.

Fernand J. Brady, Sr., a retired shoemaker dealer, died yesterday at his home, 125 North 15th street, after a four months' illness. He was stricken with apoplexy. Mr. Brady was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. He was 75 years old, and a native of Ireland.

Canning Factory Burned

BORDENTOWN, N. J., Oct. 12.—The Morris canning factory at Allentown, N. J., was destroyed by fire early this morning, causing a loss of $10,000. All canned goods were saved.

PASTORS DISCUSS STATUS OF FIGHT AGAINST LIQUOR

Delaware County No-License League
Holds Meeting at Norwood.

NORWOOD, Pa., Oct. 12.—The Rev. A. L. Latham, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of Chester, and the Rev. Henry B. Noon, of Media, were the principal speakers at the meeting held in the Norwood through schoolhouse last night, under the auspices of the Delaware County No-License League. Doctor Latham spoke on the economic side of the question, pointing to the advantages being derived by the States that have annihilated the liquor traffic. He expressed the belief that the no-license or local option movement would sweep through the country from the Gulf to the Lakes this coming election, with Ohio getting into line with a large vote against the liquor traffic. The addition of Ohio, he said, would give a sufficient number of States to warrant the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

Mr. Noon, the county chairman, gave illustrations of the pitiable conditions brought by the liquor traffic which came under his personal observation, and gave statistics showing the great strides that have been made in the battle against the traffic the last year.

"From the party's standpoint was referred to at the meeting. Only the issues were discussed. The Rev. Roy N. Kelsor, pastor of Norwood Methodist Episcopal Church, presided.

PINCHOT IN PITTSBURGH;
STANDS FOR PROTECTION

Says He Is Better Representative of That Doctrine Than Penrose Is.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 12.—Gifford Pinchot, Progressive nominee for United States Senator, accompanied by Lex M. Mitchell, of Punxsutawney, candidates for Congressmen-at-large, and Lex A. Schebler, chairman of the Washington Party of Allegheny County, started out this morning at 6 o'clock to meet 100 employees as they were going into the plant of the Verona Tool Works at Verona. After a brief stop there, during which Mr. Pinchot shook hands with several hundred men, the party proceeded to Braddock, where many Progressive leaders and business men awaited them. A short stop to greet the party was made and the trip was continued to Wilkinton.

Part of the morning Mr. Pinchot rested at the home of H. H. Willock in Oakmont. Continuing the tour from the Willock home, the Senatorial candidate was taken to the entrance of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, on Cable street, East Pittsburgh, where he made his first speech of the day. He stated that he was going to the plant of the several hundred workmen who stood at close attention in a drizzling rain during the remarks.

"I am a better protectionist than Penrose ever was. I believe in a tariff commission to work out that question. That is the only solution to the most vexatious problem before the American people today."

"It is not that I need the job that I'm seeking. I have held one Government job—that of Chief Forester under President Roosevelt and for a few months the superintendent of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, which I fired me because I wouldn't permit the coal lands of Alaska to be turned over to the Guggenheims."

"I am a better protectionist than Penrose ever was. I believe in a tariff commission to work out that question. That is the only solution to the most vexatious problem before the American people today."

FUSION TO BEAT PENROSE?

Calls for Meetings of Washington and Democratic Candidates.

Significant calls for meetings of the Washington and Democratic Party State Committees at Harrisburg on Friday have been issued, according to information obtained this afternoon. Backers of a general fusion plan to defeat Penrose were much encouraged today when they learned that the calls had been made, as Saturday is the last day on which a candidate may withdraw in favor of another.

The Democratic call was issued by State Chairman Roland S. Morris, and the Washington party call by State Chairman A. Nevin Detrick. Washington party men will not admit the possibility of Pinchot getting out of the race in favor of Palmer, but it is admitted that there will be fusion on 15 to 20 legislative candidates.

SENATORS PREPARE
WAR TAX PROVISION
TO AID COTTON MEN

Agree on Amendment for Three-year Four Per Cent.
Bond Issue to Get Loans for Growers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Senators from the cotton States were ready to submit to the Senate today an amendment to the war tax bill designed to aid the cotton growers.

The outline of this amendment was agreed to at a conference at the home of Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia. It provides for an issue of three-year 4 per cent. bonds, the money thus raised to be used to make loans to cotton farmers on cotton warehouse receipts. The limit of the issue has not yet been determined. The cotton is to be held as security for these loans until 1916. A tax of 1 cent a pound on the cotton crop of 1916, to help retire the bonds outstanding at that time, is provided.

Southern Senators do not intend to filibuster against the war tax bill to have their amendment adopted, but they will make a number of speeches and demand a vote on it.

Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, has drawn up, at the request of Senator Simmons, chairman of the Finance Committee, an amendment to the proposed stamp tax on shipments of newspapers in bundles.

The amendment proposed by Senator Oliver will permit the newspapers to make sworn statements each month as to the number of packages of newspapers shipped, and upon these statements to pay a tax of one cent a bundle. The amendment also provides that no taxes shall be paid for shipments of newspapers to points in the same country.

Senator Simmons has accepted the amendment in connection with efforts for an early adjournment.

GUNMAN LURED BY WOMAN

Fatally Shot by Assassins When He Reaches Street Corner.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Lured from a cafe to a street corner by a woman, Murray Hennessy, former gangster and gunman, is dying in a hospital today from two bullet wounds inflicted while he stood within range of the would-be assassins.

Two men, who gave the names of George Gordon, 539 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, and Arthur Lawrence, Manhattan, are under arrest charged with felonious assault.

Hennessy was in a 7th avenue saloon with the woman early today. They left the place together and at the corner the woman suddenly fled. An instant later there were two shots. Hennessy fell with a bullet wound in the abdomen and another in the back.

REMEMBER THE MAINE

Table Made From Metal of Wrecked
Warship Unveiled.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A table, made from metal recovered from the wreck of the Maine in Havana Harbor, was unveiled yesterday in McKinley Square Park, The Bronx, as a memorial to the men who lost their lives in February, 1898. A naval gun was also presented to the Park Department by the War Department.

Major Charles S. Nyman, an grand marshal, and all the veteran military organizations in The Bronx were present at the services. There were Boy Scouts, G. A. R. veterans, members of the Vanderbilt Veterans Relief Corps No. 13, the Sons of Veterans and a squad of sailors from the Wyoming.

BEYOND HER LIMITS

Doctor Briggs received a note from a woman living back quite a ways in the country, requesting him to come as quickly as possible to see her child, who was very sick with "a very bad cold."

The doctor examined the child and then turned to the mother.

"Don't you know," he asked, "that your little girl is coming down with the measles?"

"Yes, doctor," was the woman's reply. "I knew she was."

"Then why in the world," asked the doctor, "did you write me that she had a very bad cold?"

The woman hesitated for a moment; then looking at her husband, she said, with sullen frankness:

"Neither him nor me knew how to spell measles."—National Monthly.

U. S. ARMY OFFICER DENIES ANTI-GERMAN UTTERANCES

Captain Coleman Repudiates Alleged
New York Talk.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Captain Le Vert Coleman today denied to the Secretary of War that he had given utterance to the anti-German interview attributed to him in New York last week, publication of which caused Secretary Garrison to order an immediate inquiry into the matter.

According to the published interview, Captain Coleman, who has recently returned from the European theatre of war, expressed decided views of the conduct of the war, and strongly criticized the efforts of the German army for the "atrocities" reported in press dispatches. The officer admitted that he had talked to reporters in New York last week, but said he had been guarded in expressing his views and experiences.

MORGAN WORRIED
OVER THE ALASKA
RAILROAD TANGLE

Financier, Interested in Copper River Line, Calls on Secretary of Interior With View to Avoiding Difficulties.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—J. P. Morgan appeared unheralded early today at the Interior Department and was closeted with Secretary Lane for some time. His visit was said to be in the hope of finding some solution of the complicated railroad situation in Alaska, which has grown out of the proposal of the United States to build a Government-owned road in the territory.

The Morgans are heavily interested in the existing Copper River Railroad, now in operation between the coal fields and the coast. It parallels the route of the proposed Government railroad, and complications are feared by the privately owned line under the Sherman law when the Government road is completed.

Neither Secretary Lane nor Mr. Morgan would discuss the extent of their conference, which was abandoned only because the Secretary was compelled to go to the White House to attend a Cabinet meeting. It is understood, however, that the New York financier had no definite plan to offer to the Government, and that his visit was for the sole purpose of ascertaining the views of the Administration before submitting a general proposition.

LABOR BALLOT DEMANDED

Court Asked to Force Election Officials to Change Methods.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Organized labor throughout the State is planning a State-wide movement to force election officials through the courts to provide other methods for voting machines for balloting (or delegates-at-large to the Constitutional convention.

As the machines now stand, labor men and they will have to vote a straight ticket on the delegates-at-large or they will have to write on a card space at the top of the machine the entire list of 15 delegates for whom they wish to vote.

Labor leaders say this does not give them a fair chance and they want a separate and distinct ballot.

GUGGENHEIM DIVORCE STANDS

Court Refuses Woman's Plea for Annulment of Marriage.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—A decision was handed down here today by the Appellate Court refusing to annul the divorce decree granted William Guggenheim from Mrs. Grace B. Guggenheim.

She had asked for the annulment of their marriage on the ground that it was obtained through collusion.

Penrose Takes His Enemies' Measure

Gifford Pinchot had been pronounced unqualified to vote in this State and Colonel Roosevelt been condemned as an "intrusive outsider who introduced offensive bossism and bipartisan deals in this State" by Senator Penrose, who also has announced that he will make his final "dash" for re-election next Thursday.
