admits the Germans have captured Lille, where fighting has been continual for almost two weeks. French claim successes in other parts of the line.

Reinforced Allies continue to concentrate near Ostend to check the dangerous movement by the German army of the north.

Although not officially confirmed by the Press Bureau there is no doubt here of the truth of the reported occupation of Ghent by the German forces. The city is only 12 miles southeast of Lokeren, where it was known that the Gerconcentrat I in force.

A Times correspondent in the north columns of all arms passing through which is 26 miles south of Ostend. Around Ypres the Germans have concentrated in heavy numbers.

That the Allies themselves believe Whe Germans will be able to take Ostend if they can get their heavy siege guns in range of the city is indicated by a dispatch to the Times, which says that by the end of the week 100,000 refugees from Belgium will have been landed in England.

"If the Germans surround Ostend on the land side and lay slege to the city successfully it is believed that the troops defending the port will be placed on board transports when it comes time to escape, and will likely be taken to an English port. The wreck of the Belgian army, under King Albert, is now in Ostend, according to unofficial reports from across the Channel.

The Standard's Ostend correspondent mays that German spies are being arrested in Ostend every day. One German officer, wearing the Belgian uniform, was arrested and mobbed in the Rue de la Chappelle. Another, disguised as a peasant, was arrested while taking notes.

Five thousand of the British marines who helped in the defense of Antwerp have returned to England. It is stated by them that the commander of one of the Belgian forts was discovered to be in the employ of the Government and was shot, and that the explosion of the magazine of Fort Wavre-St. Catherine was caused by a German spy.

Uhlans are reported to have reached Seizacte, on the Belgian border of Hol-

Definite information, which apparently is authentic, has reached here that the Queen of Belgium is still in Ostend.

INSURANCE FRAUDS INVOLVING $100,000 RESULT IN ARREST

Louis Seiger Accused of Substituting Robust Woman for Invalid in Having Physical Examination Made.

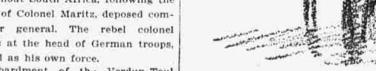

A nation-wide scheme to defraud insurance companies, already involving more than $100,000, according to officials of the State Insurance Department of Pennsylvania and representatives of acveral insurance companies, resulted in the hold-ing today of Louis Seiger, of 531 North Marshall street, in $1500 ball for court by Magistrate Tracy.

Selger was arrested last week and held for a further hearing today. The specific charge on which he was arrested was made by the Western Life Indemnity Company of Chicago. An official of this concern charges that Selger substituted a robust woman to undergo a physician's examination for a woman who is an invalld and who is expected to die at any moment. He then insured the ailing woman for $5000:

The woman insured is Mrs. Bertha Er stein, of Pittsburgh. So far the officials have not learned the identity of the roman Seiger is charged with substituting for her. The examination, according to the testimony, took place at Green's Hotel some weeks ago.

It was testified by the representative of the Western insurance firm that Seiger a implicated in a dozen or more similar ases. The same man declared the prisemiums belonging to the company and

> Deputy Coroner Says One of Them is Guilty of the Murder of Henry C. Hum-

Six attendants at the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, familiarly known as "Kirkbride's," were held without ball for the Grand Jury today by Deputy Coroner Sellers on a charge of manslaughter, as the result of bruises found on the body of Henry C. Hummell, 31 years old, of 419 North 52d street, Hummel died at the institution October 5 after being an inmate there for a year.

All six of the prisoners testified, but failed to give any definite information. Their answers to questions were hazy and vague. When the last man had been heard, Coroner Sellers said:

"This is a murder. One of you men has committed this crime, and until it is proven which of you is guilty all must be held accountable, because you were Hummell's attendants.

The prisoners, all of whom live at the hospital, are Dennis Kelly, James Dallas, Giblen, Edward J. Michael Connelly and Arthur Greenway. Startling testimony was given by relatives of the dead man.

BODY COVERED WITH BRUISES. ' According to Mrs. Ethel Fray, of 5106 Spruce street, a sister, and Ellwood R. Hummell, a brother, the body when it was sent home from the asylum for burial was covered with bruises. There was also a deep mark over one of the Hummell testified that he visited his brother at the hospital every 10 days and never saw him in a violent condi-

He declared that his brother frequently complained of ill treatment, but as he never showed him any of the marks he thought it was a hallucination. Mrs. Hummell's testimony was substantially the same. She declared her brother told her several times that he had been severe ly beaten. She, also, denied that she had ever seen him in a violent condition. Before his mind became unbalanced Hummell was a civil engineer in the em ploy of the Pennsylvania Railroad Combout one year ago his mental condition was declared hopeless, and relatives took the advice of the family physician to send him to the hospital.

Kirkbride's is the West Philadelphia institution operated by the same Board of Directors as the Pennsylvania Hosof Directors as the removivaling rooming pital, at 8th and Spruce streets. The hospital also has grounds at Newtown Square, Pa. Its property in West Philadelphia is one of the largest tracts of its kind in the city. There are two sections, one running from 42d to 6th streets and from Market street to Haverford avenue. The Market street to Haverford avenue. The other runs from 46th to 50th street with the same north and south boundaries. The men are kept in the western section. Unlike similar institutions, Kirk-bride's has escaped charges of cruelty or irregularity until today. Unlike similar institutions, Kirk Shawkey and Pennock today, The Braves took their game away this afternoon in the fifth inning, after two men were out. Rudolph started the rally which won his own game with a single. Moran followed with a double and when Evers shot one to safe territory both Rudolph and Moran dashed across.

Rudolph did not pitch as great a game today as that of last Friday, but it was enough to beat the Athletics. He was hit steadily up to the fifth inning. One safe blow was registered off his deivery in each of the first three innings. In the fourth and fifth he was touched for two hits. Only Shawkey's double, for two hits. Only Shawkey's double, however, in the fifth after Barry had singled, scored a run. In the next four innings only 12 men faced Rudolph. He disposed of the Athletics in order, fanning three men. He fanned six men during the entire game. The luck was against course Shawkey. against young Shawkey,

He held the Braves hitless for three innings and they got only a scratch hit In the fourth. This resulted in a tying run, however, and in the next session the game was put away.

The Braves were carried off the field on the shoulders of wildly cheering fans. The Athletics slunk away as quickly as possible. The Royal Rooters band played "Tessie" and all Boston took the lid off.
The game today was the fastest of the series. It was played in I hour and 9 minutes. The work of the Braves' infield was faster today than in any Same of the series, and they have been like siessed lightning from the start. Walsh was picked off second base after getting a base on balls and advancing on a wild pitch. This play, engineered by Gowdy and Evers, zipped through with the speed of a buillet. Maranville absolutely robbed Collins of a hit in the sixth inning, when Collins of a hit in the sixth inning, when the dashed back of second, grabbed Colliner with one hand and shot it
