BRAVES HAVE CREATED FURORE IN BASEBALL WORLD—BOXING TREATS TONIGHT

THRILL NO MORE IN BAKER'S NAME, GOWDY NOW KING

"Home-run Hank" Is Cry Now Heard in Baseball World-Boston's Star Is Real Hero.

By BERTON BRALEY

BOSTON, Oct. 13 .- "The king is deadlong live the king"-we thrill no more at Baker's name; no longer do his praises ring as "master bitter of the game". another monarch reigns instead and stalks triumphant to the throne, the crown of awat is on his head-Hank Gowdy rules, unmatched, alone!

For when through ages we look back on stars whose fame has traveled far, not one could hit a fiercer whack or give the sphere a harder jar-a bome run slammed outside the lot, two doubles walloped to the stands, today made Gewdy king of swat-a willow sceptre in his hands! And this new star in balldom, who fills the world with awe, was once in heavy thraldom to Mr. John McGraw. But John, with eyesight cloudy and vision rather dim, could not "see" Mr. Gowdy-and so he traded him (if smiles of glee you'd gaze upon, just mention Gowdy's name to John).

And here the muse is put to shame-she can't, she can't describe this game. It was won and lost and lost and won, some several times ere the game was won and from two o'clock till the sun had set our hands were shaking, our brows were wet, as for twelve mad innings we sat in thrall to the thrills and chills of that game of ball.

And the Braves won out—by a brand of wit, a strength of soul and a nerve and grit which probably never will be sur-passed in all the years that The Game shall last.

In the tenth they were "whipped," they were "down and out," when two men scored on Baker's clout, and we sighed "good night" in the gathering gloam, and reached for our hats-and started home. But hark-what's that?-there's a thuda crash—as Gowdy swings for a home run smash. Then a hit or two, when the need is great, and Moran comes trotting across the plate, and the rooters throw their hats aside for the tenth is o'er-and the score is fied.

Then at last, in the twelfth, comes the looked-for break. Joe Bush throws wild with the game at stake, and the run comes in-as the rooters rear-and the Braves have conquered by 5 to 4!

"RED" SMITH RAMPANT

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 .- St. Mary's Hospital, in Brooklyn, was kept in more or less of an uproar yesterday afternoon by Red Smith, of the Boston Braves. Smith indications of bounding out of bed that several of the "strong-arm" squad of orderlies ranged themselves in position for an effective tackle.

FOOTBALL INJURY FATAL

EMMITTSBURG, Md., Oct. 13.-William S. English, a member of the senior class of Mount St. Mary's College, was injured in a game of football on the college

NATIONAL BASEBALL CHAMPIONS OF THE UNITED STATES IN 1871

THE ATHLETIC CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA

This great ball team of Philadelphia was quite as celebrated as the 1914 champions. All of the players have not been identified in this picture, maybe some of the old-timers will recognize them. Seated, left to right, are M. McGeary, catcher; "Al" J. Reach, second base. Second row—W. Fisler, first base; J. Sensenderfer, center field; Captain McBride; Crane, position unknown, and John McMullen, pitcher. In the third row—"Pop" Anson, with arm akimbo, is the only one recognized. "Pop" played third base. Others who might be in the picture are L. Meyerle, J. Radcliffe, E. Cuthbert, G. Heubel, G. Bechtel and Tom Pratt. There is a vast difference in the appearances of the Athletics then and today.

SUTTON-SCHAEFER FINISH BILLIARD CONTEST TONIGHT

Veteran Sutton Victorious, 400 to 321, in First Leg of 1200-point Contest—Play This Afternoon.

George Sutton will meet "Young Jake" Schaefer in the final 400 point 14.1 balk line billiard match tonight at Allinger's was taken to the hospital after his less was broken at Ebbets Field, last Tuesday. Almost the entire force of employes was on duty in and about Smith's room while the same between the Braves and the Athletics was in progress at Boston. At times the patient showed such strong at the table to be one of the most interesting new-game matches of the year. The play is being held under the auspices of the Champion Billiard Players League, and 1200 points is the goal set. Both men are synerics at the 141 billiard match tonight at Allinger's League, and 1200 points is the goal set. Academy, 1397 Market street, in what played in the back field. During that of the Champion Billiard Players' League, and 1990 points is the goal set. Both men are experts at the 14.1 billiard pastime, with nine goals from placement during making the second leg of the contest. The final 400 points are to be played tonight. In the opening 400-point round last night George Sutton, the veteran billiard player, showed splendid control and defeated his younger opponent. Schaefer, 400 to 321. The tabulation by innings follows:

Personal Touches in Sport

A WORD TO THE HONORABLE GOWDY (By W. A. McG.)

Howdy, Mister Gowdy, with your biffing bludgeon black, We hate to see you swing it, but we're glad to see you back. We wish you all the best of luck, but hope you break an arm. Both legs, your neck and skull, but trust you do not come to harm.

Truly, you're unruly with that battle club of yours. Sending little baseballs on such airy, lengthy tours; Can't you lean less heavily, just to give us hope? If you do not halt a bit, you'll fracture all the dope.

Tell us, were you jealous of the fame F. Baker got, Clouting of the horsehide till it flew out of the lot? You've been inconsiderate, you have had a gall, You should now be satisfied; do not hog it all.

York State at Illon he figured in a score, severely away from the players. He shifted 'round till nineteen-five when major scouts stamped him as live enough to pitch real ball. His sal'ry whip he showed the Browns, but all he drew was the was unusual, but not startling, that Johnny Evers should have "pulled a bone" in yesterday's game. But it was ultrastartling that he admitted it. laughs and frowns-St, Loues wouldn't fall. Then Minneap' an' Indianap' each gave a tryout to the chap an' St. Paul worked him, too. Next Boston gave his slants a witri. Then Montreal fans watched him twiri an' Mack thought he would do.

So Cy in nineteen-hundred-nine was on Athletics' firin' line an' didn't do so bod Athletics' firin' line an' didn't do so bad. He worked for Mack three years or so an' then went back to small time dough because his work got sad. He tried one comeback as a Red. But Tinker found back. Cy's pitchin' still for ol' K. C. In thirteen years o' trav'lin' he sure covered some more track.—Copyrighted by A. M. Corrigan.

All hope of ultimate success for the Athletics in the world's series with Hoston has not died in the breasts of Athletic followers here. Those who were up on the "dope" knew full well that precedent did not forbid a four-straight spurt by the Mackymen to the weries. In 1908 when the Mackmen in the series. In 1908 when Pittsburgh seemingly had the series won from the Boston Americans, the latter came through with four straight victories and won out. Four straight ware won by the Cubs from Detroit in 1907, but in that reseries the Timers had not taken a game. The contending clubs in that year opened to with a three-three tie which seemed to ler sap the life out of the Detroiters, as they sa then proceeded to make history by fallring to win a same in the series. Then, too, back in the dark ages of baseball, Pop Anson's Chicago boys took three straight games from St. Louis only to be beaten out in the four straight games

A dispatch from Englewood states that in the Athletic meet held there the scor-ers and athletes differed on the subject of scoring. That may be a news item in branch of athletics, but in baseball,

Plain Henry R. Cy's right name is, if an official scorer ever decided a close That Cy part isn't really his, the fam'ly play so as to please the batter and the the team has a long way to go before bible shows. But no one calls him Henry is no record of such an occurrence. Every and Central High elevens in the big That Cy part isn't really his, the fam'ly Bible shows. But no one calls him Henry R. So we've no right to go that far, the good St. Patrick knows. In Pomeroy, picher is pulling for his hits, and every picher is pulling for his hits, and every picher is pulling to have the blame shifted on his team-mates by having them credited with an error instead of a hit can hope to hold the speedy Northeast is no record of such an occurrence. Every batter is pulling for his hits, and every games next month. Quarterback Ellis provided with an error instead of a hit can have a long way to go before it can hope to hold the speedy Northeast it can hope to hold Ohio. Cy grew up till he was six rect. high—then tacked on one inch more. He Hence, the official scorer in a baseball Wagenknight, of course, is badly missed, first played pro in nineteen one. In New game is much better off if he keeps for he was the best man at the quarter-

It was unusual, but not startling, that

The crowd at the Polo Grounds showed

New York oarsmen are 10th to give up their work on the river, and yesterday the New York Rowing Association held its fall regatta. Good time was made considering the lateness of the season.

"Jimmy" Rice has been creating quite a hit of gossip among the college care-men by his aggressiveness at Columbia. Not so many days ago he announced his intention of promoting a closed regatta, and now Columbia men and others are of the belief that such a plan will work wonders with team interests.

"Al" McCoy is to fight "Willie" Lowis in New York tonight. Some of the local fans will smile when they read this, for they are convinced McCoy doesn't know what the word "fight" means. Anyhow, Mac is to "go on" with Lewis. McCoy as never been taken seriously as middieweight champion, even though he did manage to knock out George Chip, of Pittaburgh. He doesn't measure up to the standard of champion, and it will be hard for any one to convince us that Harvard's football injury list is increasing. Pennock now has water on the knee and Sweetser hurt his ankle in practice. It seems misfortunes never come

According to a story printed in New York papers today, the Army and Navy are at odds and the failure of the footare at odds and the failure of the root-ball game to materialize may mean sen-We are not surnal developments. We are not sur-

Gridiron Gleanings From Leading Colleges

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL

sylvania didn't score a single point against Lafayette on Saturday was that Matthews couldn't drop kick, and the coaches didn't know that they had a man in the back field who could place kick aven better than Dick Marshall could drop kick last year. The man who has been hiding his light under a bushel is none other than Vreeland, who in his first effort at playing halfback was eclipsed in brilliancy only by fullback Tucker. Vreeland is entirely too modest to tell of his exploits in the goal kicking line, but his record which the writer has dug up speaks loudly for him.

Two years ago Vreeland was a freshman at Muhlenburg College where he played in the back field. During that season he scored 61 points. Of this total he wrozed it nearly and if Pennsylvania keeps on improving the Fed and Blue is likely to be victorious.

Field.

It isn't likely that Pennsylvania will make any changes in the line-up for the Navy game unices. Wray starts at halfback in place of Acifet. In every other position the team which played against Lafayette gave a good exhibition and the mon individually and as a team remedied many of the mistakes of previous games. All they have to do now is to maintain the pace they have to do now is to maintain the pace they have set. If any man lets down there will be a lot of men fighting for his position.

It's a pretty hard matter to estimate the strength that the Navy, the Indians and Swarthmore will present to the Quakers. The Navy has been at work ever since the last week in August, when preliminary practice gaves in the line-up for the Navy game unices. Wray starts at halfback in place of Acifet. In every other position the team which played against Lafayette gave a good exhibition and the mon individually and as a team remedied many of the mistakes of previous games. All they have set. If any man lets down there will be a lot of men fighting for his position.

It's a pretty hard matter to estimate the strength that the Navy, the Indians and Swarthmore will present to the Quakers. The Navy has be against Lafayette on Saturday was that Field.

season he scored 61 points. Of this total he scored 24 points with goals from touchdowns, missing but a single such trial all and as they are now in good form excep-tionally fine work is due.

This afternoon 400 points will be played, placement in every game on the schedule, campus yesterday and died an hour later without regaining consciousness. He did not belong to the varsity squad, but entered into the game as the result of a challenge made by two elevens from the senior class.

Interesting in planting follows:

Interesting the tabulation by innings follows:

Interesting the tabulation by innings follows:

Interesting the tabulation by innings follows:

Interesting the planting baseball, and has been saving himself this fall. Fortunately he school that the infure class. Jury he sustained won't affect his kicking. The chances are that the Quaker conches will give Vreeland a chance in Wick, who kloked one such goal on Saturday when both Brickley and Mahan were out, and McKinloek, who did it the week before. Brickleis till have a backfield which will stir both Princeton and Yale to envy. practice this week. Nothing delights Head Coach George Brooks more than to find a man with this sort of talent, and since Matthews has shown himself to be undependable as a drop kicker the coaches are likely to test Vreeland in this

> "Bull" McCleary, the old State College tackle, has been of much assistance to Coach Hedges in rounding out the Germantown Academy team this season, "Bull" has been out nearly every day on the Manheim gridiron, working with the line candidates, thus allowing Hedges to spend all his time with the ends and backfield men. A new acquisition in the person of Kaiser reported for a line berth last week, and is expected to fill the vacancy in the line left open by the withdrawal of Hamili from the squad. Kaiser is exactly six feet in height and tips the beam at 185 pounds.

The football situation out at West Philadelphia is improving to some extent, but back position in the local schools last year, but it is doubtful if Coach Mulford could get a better man for the position than Ellis right now. The former is ex-pected to get back in the same some time next month, and in this event will more than likely be shifted to a halfback, in order to utilize his work in the open field.

The local schools have not shown much Giants and Yankees without knowing it.

They were watching the detail of the game in Boston.

They were watching the detail of the far. Even Central High, the leader in this branch of sport, has been taking things easy, while some of the other schools appear to be at a standstill. Doctor O'Brien has had his squad out on Houston Field every day for a light jos. but none of the candidates has had an opportunity as yet to try the difficult Lemon Hill course in Fairmount Park. This Saturday will see the opening of the hill and dale season, when a race for novices will be staged, and following this the teams will get down to work in earnest.

The regulars of the Northeast High football equad were given a reat yester-day after the hard game against William-son Trade School on Saturday. Captain Webb was on the field in spite of in-juries received in the game. Hardin, likewise injured in Saturday's game, has also recovered. Through sheer necessity also recovered. Through sheer necessity Wilson was switched from end to half-back on Saturday and made good at his new position. As Ridnath and Breithaupt are now taking care of the wing positions, Wilson may win a permanent place in the backfield.

Coach Johnson was pleased with the team's clever use of the forward pass. Webb and Heuer did some accurate teasing and Ridpath and Breithaupt held on to the oval every time it came their way.

to the oval every time it came their way.

Captain Dunn's Northeast soccer men are fast rounding into shape and it looks as if Northeast will again be in the running for the championship. Three teams are practicing daily. Pait, a new man from the Diaston Grammar School, is showing surprising form. Parkerman and White are also playing well. McComas, ton for Muhlenberg, is Hollenbach's of last year's team is unable to play be- | record so far this year,

One of the principal reasons why Penn- game will take place on November 3, sylvania didn't score a single point against Morristown High, at Northeast victorious.

It is too bad that the authorities of the Naval Academy have refused permission to the body of midshipmen to attend this game. If the Army-Navy game is actually called off it would seem only fair to the Middles to let them come up in a body to see their team pluy. They won't have a chance to leave the city again this fall.

If the Harvard team doesn't lose its nerve, now that Brickley is in the hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis, the Crimson may have a backheld very little inferior to that of last year. Brickley made his reputation as a drop kicker, but because he was so expert he made it impossible for Mahan to prove his worth, Last year whenever Brickley was kept out of the game Mahan did the drop kicking, and he rarely failed to score in this manner, in one game kicking two such goals. That he didn't score oftener was due to the fact that the Crimson had more dependence in Brickley, But, given the chance, Mahan will do almost as well, not to mention Hardwick, who kloked one such goal on Saturday when both Brickley and Mahan were out, and

ANNAPOLIS, Oct. 13.—Though the Midehtpmen began yesterday their special preparation for the game assuint the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, regarded as the big game on the Navy team's schedule now that the Army game is off, less than an hour could be used, as the football men were required to attend the regular Monday drill. It is hoped, however, to have hard scrimmages on at least three days this week. Alexander, who played such a strong game against Pittsburgh Saturday during the short time he was in the game, was in the regular backfield during signals and it looks as if he had a strong hold on the position.

TTHACA, Oct. 18.—Although the major por-tion of the Cornell football squads studied football theory and tactics in a lecture room yeaterday, Dan Reed had a number of the tackles guarde and contres out on the field for individual practice, as he is anxious to get the strongest line on the field as soon as

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 13.—Yale began making ready for Notre Dame yesterday. Coach Frank Hinkey put the varsity through a long secret signal drill, which included almost every play and formation the Blue eleven has. The scrubs showed the veterans some new formations. Inturies kept several veterans out of the line-up Conroy took Cakes' piace at loft guard, Walden replaced J. Sheldon at right guard and Betts took the position of right tackle which G. Sheldon has filled during the enforced absence of Von Holt, who will be out for two weeks yet with a broken wrist.

WEST POINT, Oct. 13.—Not much in the way of real work could have been accomplished yesterday even if the coaches had so willed, for so many of the Army men are decorating the side lines as a result of the hard game against Rutgers last Saturday that to form a varsity team for sorthumaging would have been well nigh impossible. Such men as were available were limbered up in a criving signal drill and the whole squad listened to Head Coach Daly and his sessiannis for an hour in the gymnasium, where the faults of Saturday's play were dwelt upon at great length.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 13.—Captain Raynsford, of the Michigan team, wired his sympathy today to Captain Brickley, of Harvard, Yost lost Craig, one all-American half-back, while Haughton now has lost Brickley, the other universal choice for the all-star cast. Harvard still has the edge in veterans, with Logan, Mahan and Hardwick in the back field against Hughitt and Galt for Michigan.

CAMBRIDGE. Mass., Oct. 12.—Harvard's first string football players—those that are left—attended the world's series game today, but the substitutes and the scrubs put in a hard session in the morning. To help matters all title, the announcement was made that Etanley Pennock the veteran right guard, has water on the knee and will be out for two weeks, while Sweetser, one of the most proming of the tackles, sprained his ankle and perhaps pulled a tendon. Hardwick, the halfback, is battered up, and though he will play again faturday he is not in shape to do much work before that time.

PRINCETON, Oct. 18.—In spite of the stiff game on Saturday, the Princeton players were not through a short scrimmage yesterday. It was a most encouraging practice. The forward passes worked well and three touchdowns were scored directly on them. The scrube were the opponents of the first team, which consisted of about an equal number of first and second atring men. They offered a fair defense, but were bandicapped on the offense by the fumbiling of their backs.

SOCCER SNAPSHOTS

One of the most surprising results on Saturday was the drawn game between Bethlehem and Victor in the American League at Bethlehem. Each side scored two goals and at half time Bethlehem held a lead of two goals to none and deserved it. The Victor team played a great game in the second half and practically hemmed the steelworkers in their own half of the ground. The Robinsons, Newton, Gaynor, Brigham and Scott proved themselves a wonderful forward line, and the Bethlehem defense was sure put to it to prevent them from scoring more than two goals.

As an all-round sportsman C. B. Weinter, Jr., would be hard to beat. He played for the University of Pennsylvania at cricket, captained the golf team and now captains the soccer team. He took up soccer only last year and soon developed into a really good full-back. He will undoubtedly improve steadily, and the club he elects to play for after he graduates from Penn will indeed be lucky.

It is really a pity that with the breaking up of the Pennsylvania, League the name Tacony should have disappeared from among the list of soccer clubs. Tacony had a long and honorable career, and of all the local teams it was the only one that ever won the American Cup. Tacony is now known as Disston, and that the new club may uphold the traditions of the old was proved on Saturday, when it defeated Rangers with the greatest ease by 12 goals to none.

THE GOLFERS' AFTERMATH

It was really a foregone conclusion that Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck would win the woman's individual championship of the Philadelphia Cricket Club, for, while there are many good players numbered among the members of that organization, there are more who can quite come up to the form shown by the winner this last season. Miss Catherine lavis, the runner up, played excellently in the final round, but the champion was at the top of her game, and the match ended with Miss Davis 6 down and to play. Mrs. Vanderbeck went out in 43, and the four holes of the inward sourner were made in 19 strokes. In the final of the second sight Miss Marian Naylor defeated Mrs. F. W. Morris, I up and 6 to play.

Morta, I up and 6 to play.

The Overbrook Golf Club has one of the best and sportlest nine-hole courses in the vicinity of this city. It is very conveniently located and requires but a short time to reach. The course is constructed over very rolling ground, and this tends to put a premium on accurately placed shots. In addition, there are planty of artificial and natural hazards, and the course has a playing lemath of about 6400 yards for the full round of 18 holes. The average observer who inspects the course casually and remarks that it ecams rather easy is likely over it.

over it.

The annual fall tournament at Princeton brought out many first-class players and gave Captain Church an opportunity to size up the prospective candidates. Columbia University is also conducting a fall fournament. Tennis at the University of Pennsylvania is also booming, the courts at 54th and Chestnut streets being much in demand. The Red and fillus students would do well in following Princeton's example in holding a fall tournament.

FUTURE GOLF TESTS

October 16-Women's handicap medal play at the North Hills Country Club. October 15-Four-ball handicaps at the Philadelphia Cricket Club. October 17-Third round, match play, president's oup, at the Stenton Country

October 17-Handicap medal play at the Springhaven Country Club. October 17-Right-handed vs. left-handed team match at North Hills Country Club.

DELAWARE COUNTY AUTOISTS BANQUET TOMORROW EVENING

Over 600 Automobilists and Their Friends-Gay Time Is Assured.

Chester is to be the Mecca of some 600 automobilists and their friends tomorrow night, the occasion being the annual banquet of the Delaware County Automobile Club. Invitations have been sent out, and the committee's final report is most encouraging. Plates have been laid for 633, and there is every indication that the 1914 affair will be the most successful ever programmed.

Joseph H. Weeks, the president of the organization, has left no stone unturned that would help the committee prepare a highwater banquet. Under his personal direction many great things have been accepted.

direction many great things have been accomplished in the past.

This organization is one of the largest in the United States and is very influential in many ways. It has done a great deal of good work for its members and for motorists at large as well. The organization is practically a baby in years, but a fullgrown man in numbers. Its rise is an example of what might be done by other county sections.

county sections.

The Delaware County Automobile Club is not one seeking political strength, and as a matter of fact does not go in for politics at all, yet its hand is felt when it comes to motor subjects.

At the banquet tomorrow night the most prominent speakers of this section will be in evidence, and a number of Philadel-phians are going along to enjoy the treat n store at the Chester armory. The war in Europe has wiepd out en-The war in Europe has wiepd out entirely all traces of what was feared in some circles was to be a great war between four and six-cylinder automobiles. What was expected to be somewhat of a spirited struggle died aborning, and there does not seem to be any difficulty in selling fours and sixes alongside each other on the same floor. Interest centres now on the experiment which one manufacturer is making with an eight-cylinder turer is making with an eight-cylinder automobile. The Scientific American, one of the greatest authorities in the world on mechanics and mechanical principles, in a recent editorial says that the eight-cylinder car should make a place for itself in the hearts of the American motoring public, and that the present experiment of the daring manufacturer is sure to be followed by many others. All the good points of the six are to be had in the eight, and it has been found that skill in the manufacture of the latter has made a car that is finer in every way than the cars of fewer cylinders that have resulted in the evolution from the "one-

ROD AND GUN

Upland game hunters can hardly wait for the opening of the season Thursday when the real joys of the fall months will be theirs. Guns which have remained in their customary places since the end of last season's gunning period have been taken down and put in first-class condition for the expected shooting. pheasants may be shot on that date, and Hungarian quall, plover and grouse may also be killed.

Reports from all sections of the State end to indicate that great sport will be enjoyed this year as game is plentiful.

Amendments to the Department of Agriculture's regulations for protection of migratory birds became effective October 1.

The effect of one of the changes is to permit on the Missouri and the upper waters of the Mississippi the shooting of all migratory game hirds for which there is an open season from October 1, 1014, to January 1, 1015. After the Latter date the prohibition will be in force again. Other amendments deal principally with the closed season for water fowl in the various localities.

The new regulations provide for a closed season in zone No. 1 for all water fowl from December 16 to September 1 next following. Exceptions to the rule prescribe the open season as follows:

In Massachusetts and Rhods Island, beginning January 1 and October 1; Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Idaho, Oregon and Washington, between Imnary 16 and October 1; New Jersey, between February 1 and November 1; Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin, between December 1 and September 1.

Wisconsin, between December 1 and September I.

For zone No. 2 the closed season is between January 18 and October 1, with the following exceptions:

Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, between Fobruary 1 and November 1: Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, between February 16 and November 20; Kansas, Missouri and Oklahema, between February 1 and September 15: Texas, Arizona and California, between February 1 and October 18.

BUTTE. Mont., Oct. 10,—The open season for big same began in Montana last week and will continue until November 30. It is announced that there are more hunters out after deer, elk, mountain sheep and goats than ever before. The season for prairie chicken, grouss, pheasants, partifuges and sage hens has also opened and will continue until October 30. The smaller same has attracted many other aportamen.

The Montana law protects mouse, buffalo, been, carlbou, antelope, quall and imported pheasants, as they are scarce in this Blate, and an effort is being made to increase the number. The law also limits the number of deer to one hunter to three, while only one elk, mountain sheep or goat may be killed by a hunter during the season. There is planty of hig game this exason, according to Gens Warden De Hart and his deputies, who have been in this city recently.

Carbon bisulphid and strychnine mixed with heavy cats has been effective in exterminating 400,000 prairie dogs in the Cochetopa and Diks national forests in Colorado, and in the Tusayan and Contine forests in Arizona, since the Department of Agriculture opened war against the redents. The cost of the work, about $12,000, is said to be but a trifle, compared with the value of the forage destroyed by the animals. The hides of the prairie dogs are practically worthless in this country, according to the Department. American and English furriers obtain better skins from Siberia for five cants a piece, and glovemakers say that the skins are too small to be worked up economically. As a result, the Department says, no market for the skins has been found.

Wild dusks to the number of 308.815 were brought into New Orleans during the hunting season of 1935-14, according to the Conserva-tion Commission of Louisians. In addition there were 2407 gress, 43.355 coots and 60,052 with

NEW YORK FANS FICKLE

by Gowdy, again thed the score, and the sentiment underwent another rapid change, and Boston was returned to its former position of favorite. This feeling TODAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY TODAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY

PLENTY OF SPORT FOR FISTIC FANS LOCALLY TONIGHT

Chester Armory Is to Seat Fairmount Club in the City Has a Good Show and "Lew" Bailey at Norristown Also Plans a Treat.

> Marcus Williams advertises no alleged champions for his show tonight at the Fairmount Athletic Club, but every one of the six bouts he has arranged looks like good fighting. "Charlle" Rear and "Freddy" Wagner, both of the 20th Ward, will box the final bout. They met at this club several weeks ago and put up a sensational fight. "Billy" Coulston, of the U. S. S. Connecticut, will tackle "Tommy" Cranston, of Tioga, in one of the other bouts, and the rest of the program will bring together Ford Munger. of Baltimore, and "Eddle" Dunn, of the Shanahan Club; "Johnny" McAvoy, of the 47th Ward, and "Sailor" Davis, of the Connecticut; Preston Smith and "Eddie" Duff, of the 20th Ward, and "Young" Fletcher and "Johnny" Hanulon, of Ken-

"Lew" Balley's Palace Athletic Club. at Norristown, will probably again be crowded tonight if an excellent bill will draw fight fans. For his main bout of ten rounds, "Lew" has signed up "Sammy" Trinkle, the clever California lightweight, and "Tommy" Carey, of this city. Trinkle and Carey should make one of the cleverest contests yet staged at this popular club. Two Manayunk boys, "Jimmy" McAndrews and "Battling" Hudson, will meet in the semi-wind-up, and the other two bouts will be between "Joe" O'Keefe, of Philadelphia, and "Phil" Collins, of North Penn; "Young" McFarland, of Manayunk, and "Jimmy" Howell, the fighting midget.

Labeled as "middleweight champion of Europe" (?) and with an advantage of eight pointds in weight, "Joe" Borrell, of this city, was outfought, outgeneraled and outhit by "italian Joe" Gans, of New York city, before a large crowd at the Olympia A. A. least night. The bout was a hard one and Gans displayed what little cleverness there was to be seen. Gans' best blow was a left hook, which Borrell invariably failed to avoid. Gans would start the hook from any angle and Borrell seemed to be in its way every time. In the third round Gans sent in a straight left which staggered Borrell and then followed with a left hook which sent the local recling across the ring. Borrell quickly recovered, however, and turned desperately to turn the tife of defeat, but it was of no avail. In the fifth round Gans onught Borrell flush on the chin with a right that would have ended the battle then had an ordinary man received the blow.

on the chin with a right that would have ended the battle then had an ordinary man received the blow.

In the semi-windup Frank Logan, of this city had the advantage of Ralph Erne, of Aramingo. Logan weighed 154½ pounds and Erne scaled 160. Up to the end of the fourth round the bout was fairly even, but after that Logan forged to the front and the last two rounds were his. "Freddy" Kelly made a desperate effort to win from "Young Jack" of Brien in one punch, but O'Brien was too clever and always ducked out of harm's way. O'Brien gave a masterly display of science and footwork and had Kelly guessing at all times. "Hilly" Bevans, of Wilkes-Barre, surprised the knowing ones by his good work with the clever "Kild" Goodman, of New York, who made such a good impression two weeks say with "Jimmy" Murray. Bevans was entitled to a shade at the end. In the opening bout "Willie" Moody, of Port Richmond, bad too much experience for "Johnny" Burns, of the same district, and won at the end of the sixth round.

"Billy" McCarney the well-known Philadel-

"Billy" McCarney the well-known Philade his boy, who discovered the late Luther Mc arty, has assumed the management of Corris, the Oklahoma heavy-woight, and ryling to arrange a match with Jean will and in a 20-round bout. McCarney has bee

Unless "Al" McCoy develops another sudden case of liness, he will meet "Wille" Lewis, of New York, in a ten-round bout before the Broadway Spering Club, of Brooklyn, tenight.

"Bobby" Reynolds, of this city, who has de-veloped into one of the best lightweights amund here, has been secured by Matchmaker "Tom" McArdie, of the Fairmount Athletic Club, of New York, to meet "Dick" Peters in a ten-round hout before his club on Cetters in

KALBFUS SPEAKS WELL OF STATE'S FIELD SPORTSMEN

In an Article Believes Every True-hearted One Would Give Up Gun Forever to Aid in Propagation.

Joseph Kalbfus, secretary of the Board of Game Commissioners of Pennsylvania. is the author of the following interesting article in the bulletin printed by the American Game Protective Association:

"Regarding the reported nesting of ducks in Pymatuning swamp, about which the bulletin inquires. I would say, I believe that more or less ducks of various kinds, especially black ducks and wood ducks, with some ordinary mallards, have been hatching in this swamp since the discovery of Penneylvania, the number gradually growing less up to the beginning of this year. I am not posted regarding the number of ducks that may be now making that section their abiding place. but I am satisfied that the protection given through the national law controlling migratory birds will cause many of these birds to stop in this place, and it will again become, as in former times, a noted breeding place for this species of game.

"I note what is said in several letters from your office regarding the success of Cheer for Braves, Then for Athletics, and Finally Braves Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The fickleness of baseball crowds was fillustrated in Times Square yesterday when another record breaking throng of fans watched the reproduction of the third game for the world's championship between the Boston Braves and the Philadelphia Athletics on a scoreboard. For nine lunings, during which time the rival teams engaged in a struggle that was filled with thrills, the speciators showed a decided partiality for the National League champions, but when the Philadelphians went into the lead in the tenth inning with two runs the majority of the vast crowd forgot their loyalty to the Braves and cheered the Athletics. In the second half of the tenth the Boston players, led by Gowdy, again tied the score, and the sentiment underwent another rapid change, and Boston was returned to

The Williams Board Giving stact repre-